Committee On Memorials

We, the members of the Committee on Memorials, thank you for giving us this ministry in the Baptist State Convention. We thank each of you who has helped us gather the information necessary for this report memorializing ministers and outstanding lay leaders of our state convention who have died during the current year. These names have come mainly from the the Biblical Recorder, our Directors of Missions and your Associational letters.

Especially do we appreciate the help given by Ruth Williams of the Baptist State Convention, R. G. Puckett, editor of the Biblical Recorder and my wife, Louise, for serving as my secretary.

In Hebrews we have a description of God's Olympics. We were all thrilled this summer as we watched our athletes compete. Picture a great stadium filled with God's heroes, including those we remember today. In chapters 11 and 12 we read, "As for us, we have this large crowd of witnesses around us. What a record these men have won by their faith! Yet they did not receive what God had promised, for God had decided on an even better plan for us. His Purpose was that they would be made perfect only with us." Hebrews 12: 1; 11: 39,40. (TEV)

In this beautiful story we have a crowd of witnesses vitally interested in the way we run the race. Hebrews 11 describes many Old Testament people who have faced the competition of the challenges of life and have won their victories through faith and perseverance. The endurance and witness of those we remember today give us a foundation upon which we continue our work through our churches and organizations. It would be impossible to name the benefits of our relationships with our heroes of faith, of those who are named here and the others you have known. It is an honor and responsibility that we are so related to our spiritual ancestors that the completion of their work so largely depends on us. The fruit of their work can be helped or hindered by our degree of dedication, for we are one in Christ. We can build upon the foundation they have laid or we can neglect it and lose the results of years of work and planning. The writer of Hebrews says that their work is completed in us.

In September the son of one of our N.C. Baptist pastors was killed in line of duty in Beirut, Lebanon. Michael Ray Wagner was the son of Rev. and Mrs. Donald Wagner of Rocky Hock Baptist Church. He volunteered for duty there because he wanted to help bring peace to the Bible Lands. His work must be "completed in us."

Also in September Dr. Baker James Cauthen suffered a stroke and is now recuperating. This executive director emeritus of our Foreign Mission Board visited me last summer and shared some of his dreams in seeking to evangelize the world in our generation. His work must be "completed in us."

How can we complete their work? One way is by answering the challenge of Jesus when He said, "Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called the sons of God."

Several years ago I heard Judge John W. McCall make this statement to a college graduating class: "If you succeed without suffering someone has suffered before you; if you suffer without succeeding someone will succeed after you."

Memorializing these dear friends includes personal dedication on our part to the continuance of God's eternal plan of the ages.

John McRae in his poem, "Flanders Field", says it well:

"To you from falling hands we throw

The torch; be yours to hold it high."

Mary Lynch Johnson, who was represented at the Baptist State Convention by Mrs. Cleo Perry of Meredith College and by Mrs. Annie Mary Luke, Miss Johnson's cousin.

Miss Kate Matthews, represented by her niece, Mrs. Annie Mary Luke.

Henry Walden, Jr., represented by Robert Hensley, DOM, Robeson Association.

A. C. Miller, represented by Dr. Alex Booth, Fruitland Baptist Institute.

Guy S. Cain, represented by his grandson, Phil Greer, and Sam O'Neal, Baptist State Convention.

Fred Forester, represented by his sons, Stanley and James.

Vernon Sparrow, represented by Mrs. Sparrow and sons Ron, Don and Mickey.

Hoyle T. Allred, represented by Mrs. Allred; daughters Susan, Sharon Decker, and Janet Robertson; and grandchildren Marie, David and Melanie Stone.

Dr. A. R. Burkot, whose death came after the Convention.

Hoyle Troutman Allred

Described as a man possessing a scholar's mind, but gifted with the ability of transmitting truth in simplicity, Hoyle Troutman Allred exercised his skills in communicating the Gospel of Jesus Christ wherever he was found.

The motivation of this good and gentle man was his love for all kinds of people, and he placed no restrictions in the giving of his time and total self to his ministry. He spoke, thought, wrote, laughed and loved with clarity, and his contribution to life must continue eternally, for such qualities directed by the Holy Spirit regenerate themselves in people touched by their influence.

A native of East Spencer, North Carolina, Allred grew up in Salisbury and Greensboro. He received his AB degree from Guilford College in Greensboro, and his B.D., M.Div., and D. Min. degrees from Southern Baptist Theological Seminary in Louisville, Kentucky.

Allred was married to the former Dorothy Purvis of Greensboro, and they were blessed with three daughters, Janet Robertson, Susan Allred, and Sharon Decker; and one foster daughter, Iris Boyette.

A minister of the Gospel, Allred's reputation expanded rapidly through his effective pastorates in Worthville, Kentucky; and Greensboro, Albemarle, and Gastonia, North Carolina. He became the popular director of missions for the Gaston Baptist Association in 1970 and remained in that position until 1980 when he took early retirement after suffering a stroke.

He remained active in spite of physical limitations thrust upon him. His nephew, David Allred, wrote of him: "He did not know the meaning of the word 'disability.' He taught us all that disability will forever be a state of mind, not of body. His life bore testimony to the power of God to lift a man upon eagle wings, even when limbs no longer would carry him."

Before going to be eternally with the Lord, Allred said: "The mind and the heart want to stay, but the body wants to go."

Alexander Roman Burkot

Colleagues, friends, alumni and students mourned the death of their teacher, counselor, friend, and dean, Dr. Alexander Roman Burkot, who died on November 8, 1984, at the age of seventy-four.

Dr. Burkot joined the faculty of Campbell Junior College in 1935, and was in his 49th year of continuous teaching at the Baptist School in Buies Creek. From 1936 through 1979 he had been also a principal administrator, having served successively as dean of men, academic dean, vice-president and provost.

He served at various times as a member of the North Carolina Committee of the Southern Association of Colleges and Universities, of the Committee of Standards of the North Carolina Association of Colleges and Universities and the Commission of Colleges and Universities of the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools.

Recognitions of his contribution to education have included his election to Phi Kappa Phi, national honorary society for academic excellence, and his receipt of the honorary degree of Doctor of Humanities at Elon College.

He was born to Polish immigrant parents in Kaska, a now extinct mining village of Pennsylvania. He struggled as a high-honor high school graduate to finance his studies at Dickinson College (through waiting on tables, clerking in a chain store, and digging for funds for thirteen months in an anthracite mine).

Bilingual from infancy (in Polish and English), Dr. Burkot graduated at Dickinson in French, German, and Spanish and further developed an exceptional flair for languages through study of German on an Oberlander Foundation Scholarship at the University of Berlin. He qualified later at the University of North Carolina for the M.A. degree in Romance Languages. He spoke, read, and wrote five languages and could read five others. At his death he had in progress a book on word study, his most popular course at Campbell.

He is survived by two children, Betty of Ananheim Hills, California, and Jerry of Pollocksville, North Carolina, both of whom are Campbell alumni; seven sisters; and five grandchildren.

Guy Sommers Cain

North Carolina Baptists mourned the loss of one of their most caring, helpful, and trusted friends with the death of Mr. Guy S. Cain on April 29, 1984, at age seventy-nine. "Mr. Guy", as he was affectionately called, had a special relationship with the pastors of North Carolina. His consuming concern was that they had enough in retirement to live a life of dignity.

Guy Cain graduated from Wake Forest College in 1928. Following graduation, he taught in the public schools and was a high school principal in Forsyth County for ten years. During these years, he served a number of half-time churches as pastor. He received a call to become the pastor of First Baptist Church in Graham, North Carolina, where he served for eight years. Then he served as area missionary for seven years, working for the promotion division of the North Carolina Baptist State Convention.

"Mr. Guy" came to Raleigh in 1962, and served as secretary of the annuity programs for North Carolina Baptists until his retirement on December 31, 1972. During his retirement years, he served as interim pastor of a number of churches.

Guy Cain was more than a preacher! He was a Christian gentleman who loved his fellowmen and who stood tall among them. His keen sense of humor; his straightforward honesty; his ability to encourage others; and his commitment to his Lord and denomination endeared him to North Carolina Baptists.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Flossie Sloon Cain, four sons, one daughter, two brothers, two sisters, twelve grandchildren, and four great-grandchildren.

Fred Forester

"He was a soul winner—the kind that found people in the hedges," said a friend. Another said "he was a great and constant lover of boys, and challenged them to clean living, as he flexed his muscular arms."

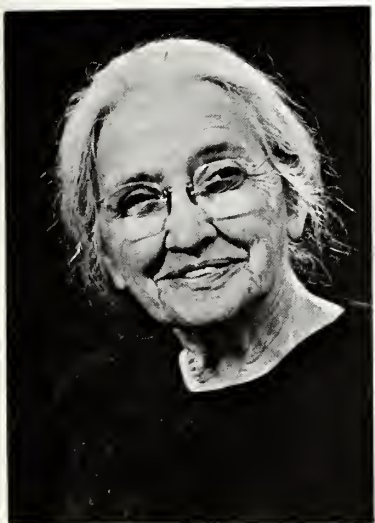

Fred Forester was born in Head River, Georgia, July 19, 1900. He attended Mercer University, and received his Master of Theology degree from Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary. He was ordained as a minister in East Athens Baptist Church, Athens, Georgia. He died November 21, 1982.

Fred Forester had an active career, graduating from high school at age twenty-two, playing football at Mercer University, assistant athletic coach at Piedmont College, Demorest, Georgia and had pastorates including churches in Texas and North Carolina, including First Baptist, Cullowhee; First Baptist, Drexel; First Baptist, Bessemer City; and his last ministry, Drexel Memorial Baptist, a span covering over 42 years in the ministry. In 1955 he went to Louisiana where he served as Brotherhood Secretary of the Louisiana Convention until his retirement and return to North Carolina. Fred Forester was a promoter of Royal Ambassadors for boys, and had a strong program wherever he served, using it as a soul winning avenue. He was a pioneer promoter of Royal Ambassador camps in Texas and later in North Carolina and made two trips to Nigeria, Africa to promote Royal Ambassador and camp work. He was instrumental in the founding of the Region 8 camp of the Hickory area, a facility that has grown and become a very valuable asset to churches of the area. Drexel Memorial Baptist Church dedicated the church library to his memory.

Fred Forester is survived by his wife, Mrs. Ellen Forester, five sons, and fifteen grandchildren.

Mary Lynch Johnson

At the time of her death on July 17, 1984, Dr. Mary Lynch Johnson had given 65 years of her life to Christian higher education. The long-time professor of English at Meredith died in Wake Forest at age 87. In a tribute at her memorial service on the Meredith campus, Dr. Bernard H. Cochran, professor of religion, said, "We cherish the legacy which she has bequeathed to Meredith and, through her students, to the world."

A native of Greensboro, Dr. Johnson was the daughter of the late Livingston Johnson, former general secretary of the Baptist State Convention as well as an editor of the Biblical Recorder. An active church woman, she taught Sunday school at First Baptist Church in Raleigh for many years and, for thirty years, at Emmanuel Church, where she was a charter member.

She was a trustee of Carver School of Missions and Social Work and of Shaw University. In recognition of her thirteen years of volunteer service at Mayview Convalescent Center in Raleigh, she was named Volunteer of the Year in 1980 by the North Carolina Health Care Facilities Association. She was also a volunteer worker at the Governor Morehead School on the Old Garner Road campus, where a cottage was named for her. Also, she taught creative writing for the Wake County Council on Aging.

Mary Lynch Johnson entered the academy division of Baptist Female University (early name for Meredith) when she was in the sixth grade and graduated from the college division in 1917. She returned to teach in 1918 and was named chairman of the English department in 1952.

After her retirement in 1969, she continued to teach in the continuing education division until failing health caused her finally and fully to retire in 1983.

She held the master's degree from Columbia University and the Ph.D. from Cornell. Also, she was awarded an honorary doctorate, the LHD, by Wake Forest in 1957.

In 1948, the Meredith College Board of Trustees authorized her to write a history of the college. The first edition was published in 1956, and the second edition of A History of Meredith College was published in 1972.

John E. Weems, Raleigh

Katherine (Kate) Matthews

Miss Katherine Matthews was born in the Riverton Community, Scotland County, North Carolina and died at the age of 87 on March 22, 1984 in Raleigh.

She was the daughter of Walter and Mary (Johnson) Matthews and the niece of Livingston Johnson, editor of the Biblical Recorder from 1917 to 1931.

Following graduation from Spring Hill High School, Miss Matthews attended Meredith College where she earned a Bachelor of Arts degree with a major in English and minor in languages. She did additional study at the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, and the University of California.

Poor salaries as a school teacher during the depression forced Miss Matthews to try another career. She worked seven years in the law offices of R. L. McMillan, Sr. of Raleigh.

"Miss Kate," as she was affectionately known by friends and acquaintances, joined the staff of the Biblical Recorder in 1942 as editorial assistant to the late Editor L. L. Carpenter. Her major responsibilities were to process copy and manage material until the paper was on the press. In addition to editing news stories, she assumed many varied assignments essential to the production of the paper each week. Until retirement, she faithfully fulfilled this task.

When she retired from the paper's staff in December, 1962, Editor J. Marse Grant wrote of her, "In almost all undertakings, there is a 'behind the scenes' person who is vital to the successful operation of a venture. Kate Matthews is that person."

Printers, not normally known for their generosity in words of praise, spoke highly of "Miss Kate" as they observed her spirit and commitment to the task each week. Although this modest person would give others the credit and take none for herself, it is noted that the circulation of the Recorder grew from 12,000 to nearly 80,000 during her 20 years with the paper.

Meredith College was important to "Miss Kate." After retirement, she spent five years in the Alumnae Office of her alma mater. She also worked on the Raleigh City Directory team and at the time of her death, she was writing a history of Old Temperance Hall in Scotland County.

"Miss Kate" was an active member of Raleigh's First Baptist Church and a faithful member of the Jones-Farmer Sunday School Class of that church. Her pastor, John Lewis, conducted the funeral services.

Amanda Gower, Raleigh

Acker C. Miller

The Reverend Dr. Acker C. Miller was born December 22, 1891 in Coke County, Texas. He died Saturday, September 22, 1984. He was buried in the Fruitland Baptist Church Cemetery.

Dr. Miller completed high school at Colorado, Texas in 1909. He was ordained to the gospel ministry in 1912. He received the Bachelor of Arts degree from Hardin-Simmons University in 1917 and the Master of Theology degree from Southern Baptist Theological Seminary in 1921. Hardin-Simmons University awarded him the Doctor of Divinity degree in 1946. He did graduate study at Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, at Union Theological Seminary in New York, and at North Carolina State University.

On June 6, 1922 Dr. Miller was married to Margaret Goodnight who died November 7, 1981. They had four children, the late Marden Miller, Al C. Miller of Dallas, Texas, Clara Buckingham, wife of General Clay Buckingham in Mans Choice, Pennsylvania, and Elsa Billman, wife of Levi Billman of Dallas, Texas.

Dr. Miller served pastorates in Texas and Oklahoma, served as chaplain during World War I, and became Director of the Christian Life Commission in Texas at its origin. When the Christian Life Commission of the Southern Baptist Convention was organized, he was elected Executive Secretary. Upon retirement he was called as pastor of the First Baptist Church in Sedona, Arizona. In 1965 he and Mrs. Miller came to Fruitland Baptist Bible Institute where he taught Christian Ethics and she taught Literature.

Dr. Miller retired from Fruitland in 1982. At the time of his death, he was living at 5550 Harvest Hill Road in Dallas, Texas.

Vernon S. Sparrow

The story of Vernon S. Sparrow's life was written by his own hand, by his words and by his deeds throughout his lifetime. His life can be characterized by his love for his Lord, his family, his church and his fellowman. He gave himself in service to others.

Vernon Sparrow was born in Orange County, North Carolina. His education was received in the public schools of Orange County and at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, from which he earned a degree in Business Administration with honors. He spent the next twelve years in private business in Durham, North Carolina.

In the summer of 1951 Mr. Sparrow accepted a call from the North Winston Baptist Church of Winston-Salem to serve as Associate to the pastor and as Minister of Education. He filled this position with distinction for five years. From 1956 until 1959 he served in a like position with the First Baptist Church of Lenoir.

Beginning in 1959 he was to spend eleven years with the Baptist Children's Homes of North Carolina, Incorporated, as Superintendent of Mills Home, Thomasville. Under his leadership the work grew, services were improved, facilities were upgraded and the quality of care was given primary attention.

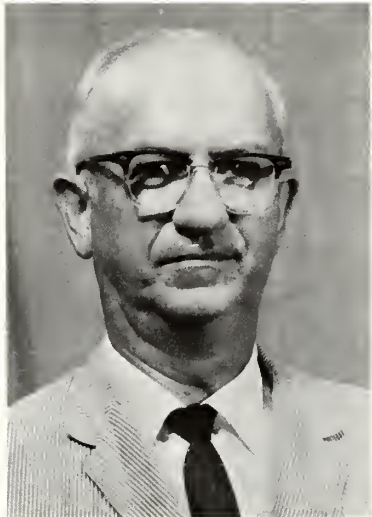

Following his employment with the Baptist Children's Homes, he served as minister of churches in Pennsylvania and North Carolina and was engaged in business endeavors in the Chapel Hill and Durham area. His was a continuing interest and active participation in his church and denomination.

No man could accomplish so successfully and joyously what this man did without the loyal love and devotion of a good wife. During university days Vernon Sparrow and Anne Mae Glasgow, likewise of Chapel Hill, were married. She was to grace his home and complement his life until his death in 1984. To this union were born three sons, Ronald, Donald and Mickey; and one daughter, Patricia Anne Jacobs.

Vernon Sparrow gave freely and unselfishly of his time, talents, boundless energy, vision, integrity and courage in an ever compelling quest for the improvement of life of all whom he touched.

W. R. Wagoner, Clemmons

Henry E. Walden Jr.

Dr. Henry Eli Walden Jr., 69, former Superintendent of Missions of the Robeson Baptist Association, died Sunday, September 2, 1984 at Southeastern General Hospital in Lumberton.

Dr. Walden graduated cum laude from Wake Forest College in 1938. He earned his masters degree in Theology from the South Baptist Theological Seminary in Louisville, Kentucky in 1941. His Doctorate of Philosophy degree in Theology was also earned from the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary in 1944.

Dr. Walden's pastorates included: Dortches Baptist Church, Rocky Mount; New Hope Baptist Church, Wilson County; and First Baptist Church, Old Fort. He was the first pastor of Trinity Baptist Church, Raleigh.

Dr. Walden taught in the Religion Department of Wake Forest College from 1948 to 1951. He was Rural Church Secretary for the N.C. Baptist State Convention from 1951 to 1954. Dr. Walden was Superintendent of Missions for the Robeson Baptist Association for 23 years, from 1958 until his retirement in 1981. He was instrumental in the building of the present associational offices.

Dr. Walden is survived by his wife, the former Ruth Bailey of Raleigh, who retired in 1979 from the nursing staff of Southeastern General Hospital, after 18 years of service. He is also survived by two sons, Henry E. Walden IV of Sanford and Archie B. Walden of Garner; two daughters, Mrs. Martha Humphrey of Lumberton and Mrs. Trudy Clay of Tallapoosa, Georgia; a brother, Solon Walden of Monroe; a sister, Mrs Gertrude Harris of Charlotte; and four granddaughters.

The funeral for Dr. Walden was conducted by Dr. Russell T. Cherry. Burial followed at the Gardens of Faith Cemetery in Lumberton.

Dr. Walden was a diligent, dedicated servant of Christ who will be keenly missed in N.C. Baptist circles. His work in the Robeson Association, in particular, was noteworthy and will long be remembered by the pastors and lay people he served in that ministry.

Constitution

PREAMBLE

For the declaration of its fundamental purposes and the permanent guidance and control of its activities, the body does adopt the following as its Constitution, to wit:

Article I. Name

The name of this body is the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina.

Article II. Purpose

The object of this Convention shall be to promote missions, evangelism, education, social services, the distribution of the Bible and sound religious literature, and to cooperate with the work of the Southern Baptist Convention.

Article III. Authority

While independent and sovereign in its own sphere, the Convention does not claim and will never attempt to exercise any authority over any other Baptist body, whether church, auxiliary organizations, association, or Convention.

Article IV. Composition

The Convention shall be composed of:

A. Two messengers from each cooperating church and one additional messenger from each church for every hundred members or major fraction thereof, beyond the first one hundred members; provided, that no church shall be entitled to more than ten messengers. No one shall be a messenger who is not a member of a church cooperating with the Convention, and messengers must be duly elected by their churches; a cooperating church shall be one that supports any object of the Convention and which is in friendly cooperation with this Convention and sympathetic with its purpose and work; and

B. The officers of the Convention, the members of the General Board, the editor of the Biblical Recorder and the President of the Woman's Missionary Union.

Article V. Meetings

The Convention shall convene annually on Monday after the second Sunday in November no earlier than 6:30 PM and no later than 7:15 PM. In case of emergency or unusual circumstances, the General Board is empowered to change the time or place of meeting, cancel the sessions of the Convention, or call a special meeting by a vote of two-thirds of the members present when the vote is taken.

Article VI. Officers

The officers of the Convention shall be a President, a First Vice-President, a Second Vice-President, a Recording Secretary, an Assistant Recording Secretary, a General Secretary-Treasurer, three Trustees, and a Parliamentarian. The President shall appoint the Parliamentarian, who will serve during the term of the President.

A. President, Vice Presidents and Trustees

The terms of the President, the Vice-Presidents, and Trustees shall commence at the conclusion of the annual sessions at which they are elected and continue until the close of the next annual session of the Convention. The President and Vice-Presidents may not be elected for more than two consecutive terms. A vacancy in the presidency shall be filled by the Vice-Presidents succeeding to the office in order of their rank. The President shall serve as ex-officio without voting on all Convention committees.

B. Recording Secretary and Assistant Recording Secretary

The terms of the Recording Secretary and the Assistant Recording Secretary shall commence on the first day of May following the annual session at which they are elected and continue until the first day of May in the following year.

A vacancy in any of the above mentioned offices (in A and B) except that of President, occurring between sessions of the Convention may be filled by the General Board.

C. General Secretary-Treasurer

1. In cases of a vacancy in the office of General Secretary-Treasurer, the General Board shall nominate a person to the Convention to fill this office.
2. Opportunity shall be given to receive additional nominations from the floor of the Convention.
3. The person receiving the majority of votes cast shall be declared elected. Upon election the General Secretary-Treasurer shall hold office for an indefinite period, with retirement to take effect based upon policies established by the Executive Committee and approved by the General Board.
4. In case the position of General Secretary-Treasurer becomes vacant between sessions of the Convention, the General Board, upon the recommendation of its Executive Committee, shall name an acting General Secretary-Treasurer to serve until the next regular session of the Convention.

The General Secretary-Treasurer is the chief executive officer of the General Board, the chief administrative and program officer of the General Board staff, the chief budget officer of the General Board staff, the chief professional adviser of the General Board and its committees, the secretary and treasurer of the General Board and the Convention, and one of the denomination's spiritual leaders, providing statewide guidance and inspiration.

The General Secretary-Treasurer shall serve ex officio without voting on all committees and aid by furnishing information, printed materials and needed guidance for the work of the committees.

Article VII. Trustees of the Convention

The General Board shall nominate three trustees to be elected by the Convention in annual session. These trustees may succeed themselves, if nominated and elected, and will continue in office until their successors have been elected. The trustees shall hold title to the property of the Convention and convey and use the same as directed by the Convention, its General Board or Executive Committee. They shall execute obligations only in behalf of and as ordered by the Convention. They shall have the powers granted to trustees of religious societies by the laws of the State of North Carolina, but subject always to the limitations imposed by this Constitution and by action of the Convention, its General Board or Executive Committee. They shall require the Treasurer of the Convention to give suitable bond, with corporate security and in adequate amount as determined by the General Board, and they shall cause such bonds to be safely kept. Failure on the part of the Treasurer to maintain such a bond in force for as long a period as ten days shall authorize the trustees to remove the treasurer from office. The trustees shall make full, detailed reports to the annual session of the Convention and at other times if requested by the General Board. They shall safely keep the seal of the Convention and affix it only as authorized by the Convention, its General Board or Executive Committee. The seal shall be circular in form and shall bear the words:

“Trustees of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina
Incorporated 1893. SEAL.”

The trustees shall keep full minutes of all their meetings and preserve the same in permanent forms. They shall elect their own Chairperson and Secretary. Any vacancy occurring in their Chairmanship between sessions of the Convention shall be filled by the General Board.

Vacancies occurring in committees between sessions of the Convention shall be filled through appointment of the Convention President.

Nothing contained in reports to the Convention shall be construed as an action of the Convention except the recommendations which are definitely listed and adopted by the Convention.

The committees of the Convention shall be divided into three categories:

A. Those appointed by the President and Vice-Presidents in advance of the meeting of the Convention.

1. THE COMMITTEE ON ENROLLMENT consisting of nine members, three of whom shall have served the previous year, and whose duties it shall be to provide registration cards for messengers and visitors and have them in a suitable place several hours before the meeting of the Convention. This Committee shall make a report to the assembled messengers upon the call of the President, and shall serve as a committee on credentials.

2. THE COMMITTEE ON COMMITTEES, consisting of 15 members, whose duty it shall be to nominate for election by the Convention the committees listed under sections B and C below, and such other committees as may be assigned to it.

It is desirable that at least 25 percent of members nominated to all committees of the Convention shall come from churches with a resident membership under 400. No one shall be nominated to serve on more than one committee at the same time. It is desirable that no church shall have more than six (6) members serving at one time on committees. Any addition beyond six (6) must be individually justified by the Committee on Committees to the Convention.

The Committee on Committees shall include in its report as a minimum the name, church, home town, association, occupation, and sex of each nominee, the name of the committee on which the nominee is to serve together with such summary information as will make clear to the Convention the diversity and breadth of representation provided by the slates of nominees.

B. Those to report at the next regular session of the Convention.

1. THE COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS shall consist of fifteen (15) members, ten of whom shall be nominated by the Committee on Committees and elected by the Convention. To institute the rotation system, the Committee on Committees shall nominate five members for a one-year term and five for a two-year term. Thereafter five members of the Resolutions Committee shall be nominated each year by the Committee on Committees for two-year terms.

The five remaining members shall be from the General Board with at least two of the five from the Executive Committee. These five should be named by the Executive Committee after the organizational meeting in January of each year.

All resolutions presented to the Convention shall be referred to the Committee on Resolutions, except that by a two-thirds vote of the messengers present on the second day of the Convention, the rules may be suspended and a resolution be taken up for immediate consideration.

Those who plan to present resolutions to the Convention for consideration are urged to submit a copy of the resolution to the Committee well in advance of the Convention. This will not only give the Committee more adequate time to consider the resolutions, but will also make it possible to print the proposed resolutions in the Book of Advance Reports.

2. THE COMMITTEE ON NOMINATIONS, consisting of fifteen members, five of whom shall rotate off each year. Their term of office shall begin with the adjournment of the Convention at which they are elected and shall terminate upon adjournment of the Convention at which their successors are elected. No person employed by the General Board or an agency or institution of the Convention shall serve as chairperson of this committee.

It is desirable that the Committee shall nominate at least 25 percent of the members to the various boards, agencies and institutions from churches with resident membership under 400. No person shall be nominated to serve on more than one board at the same time. They shall also nominate members for vacancies for the twelve (12) members-at-large of the Council on Christian Life and Public Affairs and such other nominations as may be delegated to the Committee of the Convention. It is desirable that no church shall have more than six (6) members serving at one time on Convention boards. Any addition beyond six (6) must be individually justified by the Nominating Committee to the Convention.

a. The Committee shall begin to function upon election. It shall meet as often as needed to prepare recommendations for vacancies and shall begin not later than July 1 to prepare recommendations for the annual meeting of the Convention.

b. This Committee shall invite through letter the institutional and agency heads and associational leadership to submit recommendations for vacancies for their respective institutions, agencies or General Board occurring annually or between annual sessions of the Convention. The Committee shall invite individuals through the Biblical Recorder to submit recommendations. All recommendations shall be accompanied by biographical material, including general assessments by personal and church references. Recommendations and supporting material shall be submitted early enough for the Nominating Committee to acknowledge and carefully evaluate each recommendation and make an informed decision based upon character, churchmanship and special skills required by the particular institution. All such materials shall be kept by the Chairperson of the Nominating Committee during the period of active work up to and until the time of the Convention, and all such materials received from churches and individuals shall be shared upon receipt with the particular institution involved. After the Convention has taken action on nominations, the Chairperson will forward all biographical materials to the new Chairperson of the Committee on Nominations.

c. When the Committee meets to do its work, it shall give careful consideration to those who have been recommended from the various sources indicated above and to the fact that the trustees of each agency or institution are close to that agency or institution, have expert knowledge of its needs and possibilities, possess a deep interest and concern for the institution, and know the men and women who can best serve the institution. The Nominating Committee shall:

(1) Consult with the representatives of the Board of Trustees of Convention agencies and institutions for the purpose of determining the specific trustee skills needed.

(2) Consult as needed with persons making recommendations with respect to their recommendations for membership on the General Board and the Boards of Trustees of institutions and agencies.

(3) Share with the institutions and agencies its proposed nominations prior to notification of these nominees. This is for the purpose of further consultation if further consultation is deemed necessary by either the Committee or the Boards of Trustees.

(4) Then it will be free to follow its own best judgement in making recommendations to the Convention or the General Board. The Committee should strive to select and nominate the best representatives of our Convention from the vast resources available to the Baptists of North Carolina.

Special emphasis should be given to:

(1) Stability of effective leadership, thus assuring the continuous work of Baptists.

(2) Demonstrated active churchmanship, thus assuring effective Baptist State Convention representation.

(3) A cross-section of membership, thus assuring representation of churches of various sizes and types, a variety of professional and educational backgrounds, geographical areas, different age groups, and both lay persons and ministers. It is desirable to avoid the concentration of leadership in too few places.

d. Consent of the nominee to serve shall be secured by the Committee prior to the recommendations to the Convention or the General Board.

e. The full report of the Committee shall be published in the Biblical Recorder at least four weeks prior to the annual meeting of the Convention. The report shall include as a minimum the name, church, home town, association, occupation, and sex of each nominee, the name of the institution or agency on whose board the nominee is to serve, together with such summary information as will make clear to the Convention the diversity and breadth of representation provided by the slates of nominees. The name of any person to be nominated from the floor of the Convention and the name of the nominee intended to be displaced shall be published in the Biblical Recorder at least one week prior to the Convention's annual session. In addition, biographical material relating to proposed floor nominees shall be given to the agency or institution involved and to the Nominating Committee at least one week prior to such session.

5. THE COMMITTEE ON MEMORIALS consists of six members, two of whom shall rotate off each year. The Committee shall prepare a report memorializing ministers and lay leaders of the Baptist State Convention who died since the adjournment of the previous annual session of the Baptist State Convention. They shall recommend names of those to whom the Annual of the Convention is to be dedicated.

6. THE HISTORICAL COMMITTEE, consisting of twelve members, three of whom shall rotate off each year.

This committee shall recommend appropriate measures for the preservation of Baptist history. It shall seek to preserve the minutes and records of all Baptist bodies, churches, associations, and conventions, historical manuscripts, printed materials, including correspondence, and museum objects. It shall encourage the writing and publication of high-standard histories of individuals, churches, associations, and conventions. It shall recommend what historical sites, including buildings, should be properly marked and preserved when these are related to Baptist history. It shall work in close collaboration with the historical researcher employed jointly by the Baptist State Convention and Wake Forest University, who works directly with the Baptist Collection in the Wake Forest University Library. 9. THE COMMITTEE ON COOPERATION WITH GENERAL BAPTISTS, consisting of six members, two of whom shall be elected for a three-year term, two for a two-year term, and two for a one-year term. Once the committee has been organized, two persons should be nominated each year for three-year terms. The General Secretary-Treasurer, the President of the Convention, a college student, and the Director of the Department of Cooperation with General Baptists shall serve as exofficio members. These shall form a Joint Committee with a comparable group from the General Baptist Convention. This Joint Committee shall study and recommend periodically to their respective groups areas of cooperative work, activities, and projects that will strengthen our common fellowship as well as advance the work of our Lord. The Joint Committee will serve in an advisory capacity to the Department of Cooperation with General Baptists.

C. Special Convention Committees

When a special committee is called for, the Resolutions Committee shall study the situation to see if there is a committee or group already in existence which could appropriately attend to the matter proposed, and, if there is such a group, it shall, upon recommendation of the Resolutions Committee and vote of the Convention, be referred to them. Otherwise, the Resolutions Committee may recommend that a special committee be set up by the Convention.

1. Religious Liberty

WHEREAS, The First Amendment to the Constitution of the United States guarantees the free exercise of religion while protecting against the establishment of religion; and

WHEREAS, Baptists enjoy the free exercise of religion by conducting their lives in obedience to their Lord Jesus Christ; and

WHEREAS, the free exercise of religion necessarily includes the liberty to honor God in word and deed in every legitimate human activity; and

WHEREAS, obedience to the Lord Jesus Christ requires Baptists to exercise private and public rights and responsibilities so as to honor God and love their fellow man; and

WHEREAS, religious liberty is being increasingly suppressed in American society by the exclusion of religious motive, belief and acknowledgement from the social, political and educational spheres of American life; and

WHEREAS, the continued suppression of religious expression in American life is destructive of the religious liberty of Baptists and violates the guarantees of our constitutional government

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the messengers of North Carolina Baptist State Convention meeting November 12-14, 1984 in Asheville, North Carolina, declare our support for the full and free exercise of religious liberty and express our concern about the suppression of religious expression in the United States; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that we oppose the efforts of social, political and educational institutions in the United States to suppress speech on the basis of its religious content; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that we support equal access to public facilities by persons associating for a religious purpose; and

BE IT FINALLY RESOLVED that we call upon North Carolina Baptists to enjoy the free exercise of religious liberty by honoring God and loving their fellow man in full obedience to our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

2. Freedom of Religious Schools

WHEREAS, Baptists everywhere treasure religious liberty and personal freedom; and

WHEREAS, the right of private educational institutions, particularly religious ones, to be free from governmental control of their educational practices is a precious and inalienable right; and

WHEREAS, many religious schools have scrupulously avoided direct Federal aid or funding so that they could maintain independence from Federal regulations; and

WHEREAS, many of the voluminous Federal regulations which govern educational programs and activities which receive Federal funds are incompatible with policies set by private and religious schools, many of which policies are based on their religious beliefs and their interpretation of the Holy Scriptures; and

WHEREAS, the bill entitled "Civil Rights Acts of 1984" proposed in the 98th Congress would subject many private institutions, including religious schools, to the full range of detailed Federal regulations; and

WHEREAS, this proposed bill, which would achieve a great expansion of Federal power with regard to state and local governments and private institutions, including sectarian schools, very nearly passed the 98th Congress without extensive debate; and

WHEREAS, the provisions of this bill would not help, and might even hinder, the advancement of racial justice and broader opportunities for women currently guaranteed by Federal civil rights statutes, but would rather serve to mire private institutions in more regulation and paperwork and clog our Federal courts with protracted litigation; and

WHEREAS, proponents of this bill have rejected any efforts at compromise and have vowed to press for passage of the proposal, as it is, in the 99th Congress;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that we, the messengers of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, meeting November 12-14, 1984, in Asheville, North Carolina, declare our strenuous opposition to the bill entitled "Civil Rights Act of 1984"; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that we are opposed to any efforts to further subject to Federal regulation private and religious schools which shun direct Federal aid; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that we call upon Southern Baptists to oppose efforts to deny religious liberty by expanding regulation of private and religious schools and other institutions, and to communicate said opposition as responsible citizens exercising their rights to vote, to free speech, and to petition the government for redress of grievances.

In explaining the need for the resolution, President Wiggins told of the experience of Grove City College, Grove City, Pa. He said that it is a private, Christian institution that did not want any federal funds and there was no evidence of discrimination. He said the college did admit some students who received federal financial assistance in one form or another. A test case was made and the Supreme Court ruled that only the admissions area of the college would be subject to federal control. "The Civil Rights Act of 1984 is perhaps the most misrepresented piece of legislation in history," President Wiggins said, explaining that since it contained the word "recipients," it would mean that "taken literally, if someone receiving a Social Security check were to put money into the collection plate of a congregation, indirectly the church would have to come under control of the federal government...This would put every one of our church related colleges and universities under federal control, as well as our churches..." He said the General Board voted twice that this legislation should be delayed because it is misnamed and that it should be considered at a time other than an election year. Ballot No. 1 at position No. 2 was used for voting. (See No. 43)

22. Horace Jackson, Wilmington, committee member, read the

"Resolved" portion of Resolution No. 3 and moved its adoption.

3. Protection of Parental and Student's Rights

WHEREAS, over 3,000 testimonies from parents, teachers and other concerned citizens throughout the United States were submitted in writing or in public hearings before the U.S. Department of Education held in March 1984; and those testimonies have shown that some of the curricula used in public schools is damaging to children's moral, religious and psychological health, and

WHEREAS, those testimonies cited curricula materials and personal experiences which encouraged students to believe that killing, lying, cheating, stealing, and even suicide are sometimes advisable; and have been encouraged to reject the authority, the value systems and the religion of their parents; to engage in pre-marital sex, have an abortion, experiment with drugs, alcohol, and alternate lifestyles; and to study anti-religious and occult practices contrary to their own religious teachings; and

WHEREAS, as a result of those testimonies the U.S. Department of Education has issued Federal regulations to implement the Protection of Pupil Rights Amendment (1978) to aid parents and concerned educators in putting a stop to Federally-funded curricula designed to change the religious, moral and political attitudes of public school children;

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the messengers of the North Carolina Baptist State Convention, meeting in Asheville, North Carolina, November 12-14, 1984, call for similar and supplemental Parental and Pupil Rights legislation from the 1985 North Carolina General Assembly, extending parental oversight and the Protection of Pupil's Right of Privacy to all curricula, supplementary materials and teaching methods used in North Carolina public schools.

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the desire of this body be conveyed by the Council on Christian life and Public Affairs to the Governor of North Carolina, the Superintendent of Public Instruction and to all members of the 1985 North Carolina General Assembly, and the North Carolina Board of Education.

4. Sexual Deviation

WHEREAS, the general public health is threatened by the increase of AIDS and Herpes, created by the permissive and promiscuous lifestyle of homosexuality; and

WHEREAS, The Scriptures warn against sexual misuse and abuse of one's body and that the believer is responsible to maintain his and her body as the Temple of the Holy Spirit; and

WHEREAS, The Scriptures reveal heterosexuality as the Divine norm around which and through which human kind is to build up that beautiful relationship of love, loyalty and trust which is to be the basis for the reproduction and nurture of human life; and

WHEREAS, The Scriptures denounce homosexuality as a destructive divergence from the norm; and

WHEREAS, the contemporary scene finds an unprecedented interest, support and promotion of homosexuality as a normal viable lifestyle

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the messengers of the North Carolina Baptist State Convention, meeting in Asheville, North Carolina, November 12-14, 1984, reaffirm their belief in the Biblical principle of the Divine norm of heterosexuality and their belief in the destructive divergence of homosexuality, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the messengers oppose any legislation or relaxing of the criminal codes that would legitimize, legalize or decriminalize deviate sexual behavior such as fornication, adultery, prostitution and homosexuality; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that in order to carry out our calling as the Body of Christ to be compassionate and redemptive in our dealings with all people, that we request the council on Christian Life and Public Affairs to assist our churches in conducting programs to inform our youth and adults of the moral, spiritual and physical dangers of deviate sexual lifestyles, and how to deal compassionately with those facing the many complex problems of homosexuality; and

Mr. Macon said that success in one's vocation is important, but also just as important is one's Christian witness to the "work-a-day world." The Christian living before the family and the business world is a witness for Christ. You are not "lapel-grabbers" but living witnesses of the spiritual values in life. We are witnesses in the "market place." Do the best you can with what you have where you are every day of your life.

BE IT FINALLY RESOLVED that a copy of this resolution be sent to all members of the North Carolina delegation in the U.S. House and Senate, and to the North Carolina League of Municipalities and to the North Carolina Association of County Commissioners.

In response to a resolution on "Local Churches and Christian Service" submitted by Mary Ruth Crook of the Pullen Memorial Church of Raleigh, the Committee on Resolutions recommends that we reaffirm the resolution No. 4 of the 1983 Convention which was a reaffirmation of a 1975 resolution on the same subject matter. The Committee also recognizes the good intentions of people on both sides of this issue.

WHEREAS, the Scripture states: "There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female; for ye are all one in Jesus Christ." (Gal. 3:28), and

WHEREAS, the Southern Baptist Convention, meeting in Kansas City, Missouri, on June 12-14, 1984, registered a continuing opposition to a United States Ambassador to the Vatican, and urged conventions, agencies and members cooperating with the Southern Baptist Convention to continue their opposition to an ambassador to the Vatican; and

WHEREAS, Americans United of Silver Spring, Maryland, along with fifteen religious bodies and seventy individuals, has brought suit against certain officials of our United States Government asking that the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania declare diplomatic ties with the Roman Catholic Church improper and issue an injunction against any further expenditure of public funds to this end; and

WHEREAS, we are convinced that the appointment of a diplomatic representative to any religious body by our government is a clear violation of the principle of separation of church and state as set forth in the First Amendment to our Constitution and a denial of our democratic principles which demand that all churches shall be equal in the eyes of our government and no church shall have a special and favored place; and

WHEREAS, this appointment of a representative to the Vatican gives the Roman Catholic Church a favored relationship with our United States Government with access and ties to our President and other highly placed officials not given to other religious bodies; and

WHEREAS, this appointment leaves questions in the minds of nations of other persuasions regarding our nation's real convictions concerning complete religious liberty; and

WHEREAS, we Baptists, with our doctrines concerning the priesthood of the believer, the liberty of every man's conscience, and the proper separation that must exist between the affairs of state and the affairs of religion, have always lived at the forefront of the battle for complete religious liberty within this nation;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that we, the messengers of the North Carolina Baptist State Convention meeting November 12-14, 1984 in Asheville, give our hearty and prayerful support to Americans United and those who support them in this suit which challenges our government's appointment of a representative to the Vatican; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that we encourage the Executive Committee of our Southern Baptist Convention to join with Americans United in support of this suit; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that we as North Carolina Baptists hereby reaffirm our historic convictions regarding the First Amendment to our Constitution, the right of every church to equality in the eyes of our government, and the separation that must exist between church and state in a free society; and

BE IT FINALLY RESOLVED that copies of this resolution be sent to The President of our United States, to our representatives in the United States Congress, to Americans United, to the Executive Committee of our Southern Baptist Convention, to Dr. Keith Parks of our Foreign Mission Board, and be released to the public press that our Baptist convictions may be made clear to our state, our nation, and the world.

WHEREAS, many persons involved in the tobacco industry have historically been dedicated leaders and supporters of member churches of the North Carolina Baptist State Convention;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the messengers to the 154th annual session of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, meeting in Asheville, North Carolina, November 12-14, 1984, express appreciation to those tobacco farmers and others engaged in related industries who loyally support their local churches and denominational ministries; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that we acknowledge the individual freedom of tobacco farmers and others engaged in the industry to earn a livelihood as determined by their own consciences and personal convictions under God.

54. Robert Tenery, Morganton, said this resolution should not have been brought to this convention or to the Kansas City convention. He moved that it be amended to delete the first "Whereas" so that "we do not come across to appear as rebuking the Southern Baptist Convention."

Chairman Lewis said the resolution was brought to this convention simply because it was brought up at Kansas City and that it is not an effort to rebuke the Southern Baptist Convention.

55. G. Lee McIntyre, Raleigh, moved that the Langford motion and Tenery amendment be tabled. The parliamentarian ruled that vote must first be taken on the amendment.

56. Vote on the Tenery amendment was taken by a show of hands and being inconclusive, it was taken a second time by standing. The motion to amend failed.

57. Malcolm Hester, Spray, moved that Resolution No. 8 on Tobacco be tabled. Vote was by standing and the motion carried. (See No. 53)

58. Mr. Gatwood led the convention in singing "Face to Face With Christ My Saviour" and Joe Knott, III, Raleigh, spoke on "Christ Jesus is Lord Through His Church...In the Home."

Joe Knott, said in order for the family to be Christian that the husband and wife must be Christian. God ordained the family. He gave it the responsibility for nurturing the family in

(1) Faith in God. There is room for evangelism within the family. Faith applies to the past and present. God was and is, through Christ, sovereign in the past and present. Our prayer of faith is to be made to Him in the same way.

(2) Hope. Hope motivates us to help each other and our children in the journey of faith. We should make it a project within the home to grow in "Christ-likeness."

(3) Love. Love is involved toward God and the family. Love each other and our children as they are--even in failures. Love is unconditional and is willing to sacrifice for God and the home.

59. With Vice President Hobbs presiding, the report of the General Board was resumed.

60. General Board President Murphy introduced John Elder, Southport, chairman of the Budget Committee who called attention to the 131 page budget report in the hands of messengers. (See p. 115) He outlined procedures followed for drafting the budget and introduced members of the committee: John Bunn, Ray Hodge, Morris Hollifield, E. T. Vinson, and B. E. White. He said the Cooperative Program was to be increased so that by the year 2000, 38 percent would be given through the Southern Baptist Convention. For 1985, there is a slight increase to 35.45 percent going to the SBC Cooperative Program. The proposed increase in the base budget is 4.3 percent for a total base budget of $25 million and with the challenge budget totals $25.5 million. He said that sometimes in the past, the budget had been set beyond what could be achieved. The budget proposed this year is a reachable budget, he said. He added that last year there was such a shortfall that each of the divisions had to cut back in the last two months of operation and some had to borrow into the 1985 budget to meet expenses for 1984. That placed a hardship on ministries, personnel and missions. This year the budget is reachable and a challenge budget is added.

Several years ago the convention adopted a merit system of pay increases that involved long hours of tedious processes involving specifically the General Secretary-Treasurer. This year the Executive Committee voted to give an across-the-board six percent increase for 1984 in order to ease the burden for the interim General Secretary-Treasurer. That same process is being recommended for 1985 because of the transition period. A one percent across-the-board increase is recommended for those with salaries of $25,000 or more and a two percent increase for those with salaries under $25,000. Another change being made is that the figures listed in the proposed budget for 1985 will be paid throughout the year with no internal mid-year increase. There will be a return to the merit system at some time in the future.

The N.C. Missions Offering goal is $2,800,000. It was explained that the Christian Action League is now a line item of one percent, separate from state missions ministries.

Some have mentioned the need for more funding for new work. That is included in the challenge budget.

Budget Chairman Elder moved adoption of the budget as printed. Vote was by standing and the motion carried.

61. Edwin Coates, executive director of the Baptist Foundation, Inc. gave a historical review of the Foundation and introduced the directors, regional consultants and staff members. Personal testimonies about trusts were made from the floor by Sara Ann Hobbs, Raleigh; John Lawrence, Winston-Salem; and L. J. Culler, Boomer. A video presentation highlighted the report and Mr. Coates told of several trusts that had been established by other persons in the state. (See pp. 196-198)

62. James Y. Greene, chairman of the Task Force on the Togo Partnership, reported that the first well had been dug and water reached, but more well-diggers are needed. Following a video presentation, he introduced some of the volunteers to Togo: Peggy Albright, Drexel; Suzanne Allred, Greenville; Charles McCook, Charlotte; Arthur Barnett, Asheville; Fred Bertram, Beaufort; Alvin Bowers, Charlotte; John Caldwell, Chapel Hill; Jim Canterberry, Cary; Joe and Eva Clontz, Chapel Hill; Bill Currin, Kipling; Herb Eplee, Charlotte; Reginald Ferguson, Charlotte; Maylon Frazier, Raleigh; John Harden, Durham; Harold Hill, Marion; Rick Hoyle, Boone; Bob Logan, Valdese; Don Norrington, Boone; Ray Pridgen, Drexel; John Rice, Cary; Betty Roper, Marion; George Rose, Marion; Robert and Sue Shaw, Evergreen; Clyde Shuping, Drexel; Lee Snuggs, Wadesboro; Charles and Ellen Tabor, Winston-Salem. Seven are in Togo now: Walter and Jacqueline Ford, Waxhaw; Dale Gentry, State Road; Pinkie Holbrooks, Asheville; Ken Mansetti, Valdese; and John and Julia Moore, the host couple. Bill Currin, Kipling, told about his experiences in Togo and Buddy Corbett, pastor, First Church, Drexel, told of his church's involvement in the project. Mr. Greene said more volunteers are needed and closed the report with prayer. (See pp. 121-123)

63. Lee Roy Denton, Weaverville, chairman of the Teller Committee, reported results of earlier voting; Resolution No. 7, Ambassador to the Vatican, 1,947 Yes, 91 No. (See No. 52)

64. Jerry Hutchinson, director of Christian Social Ministries in New River Association, pronounced the benediction.

Tuesday Evening--November 13, 1984

65. The evening meeting began at 7:05 p.m. with the North Carolina Brass Ensemble playing "Brethren, We Have Met To Worship"—Moore/Pethel; and "When I Survey"—Mason/Kirkland. The Singing Churchmen sang "Joy in the Morning"—Sleeth.

66. President Wiggins called the meeting to order and introduced Second Vice President Poe and Mrs. Poe; Mrs. Wiggins; General Board President Murphy and Mrs. Murphy; Parliamentarian Batts and Mrs. Batts.

He asked for special prayer for Mrs. Clyde Rhyne, Sanford, and Ben C. Fisher, Raleigh.

67. Mr. Gatwood led the convention in singing "Onward Christian Soldiers" and Ernest Glass, Charlotte, led in prayer.

68. In the final report of the Resolutions Committee, Chairman Lewis thanked members of the Committee: Sam Currin, John Gray, Bill Redman, Robert Yates, Robert Pierce, Roger Gilbert, Glen Holt, Horace Jackson, Nancy Myers, Merlin Boone, James Langford, Gaylord Lehman, John Elder, and Elizabeth Callaway.

69. Elizabeth Callaway read the "Resolved" portion of Resolution

No. 9, and moved its adoption. Since the President was named in the resolution, Chairman Lewis presided during the voting which was by standing. The motion carried.

9. Appreciation

WHEREAS, the officers, program personalities, and committees have guided us to proclaim, "Jesus Christ Is Lord;" and

WHEREAS, the Baptist State Convention stands on the threshold of a new beginning with the selection of a new General Secretary-Treasurer; and

WHEREAS, the sessions have provided worship, information, and deliberative business under the Lordship of Christ.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the messengers to the 154th Annual meeting of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina in Asheville, North Carolina this November 12-14, 1984 express appreciation to the City of Asheville and the churches of Western North Carolina for the love and hospitality shown this body; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that we commend President Norman A. Wiggins, First Vice-President J. Dewey Hobbs, and Second Vice-President William E. Poe for their effective skills in presiding over the sessions; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that we express gratitude for the untiring efforts of all involved in program, enrollment, local arrangements, and other behind the scenes preparations; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that we prayerfully commit ourselves to support the new General Secretary-Treasurer as he commences this strategic position in God's Kingdom work; and

BE IT FINALLY RESOLVED that we pledge ourselves as a Convention to return to our churches reporting upon the Lord's work through North Carolina Baptist ministries and proclaiming the theme which has permeated reports, testimonies, and sermons, "Jesus Christ Is Lord!"

70. Chairman Lewis moved that the Resolutions Committee for 1985 follow the same procedures as used this year. With President Wiggins presiding, the motion carried in a standing vote.

71. Mr. Gatwood led the convention in singing "Amazing Grace" and Beth Wheless, student at Appalachian State University and Watchcare member of Perkinsville Church, Boone, spoke on "Christ Jesus is Lord Through His Church...On Campus."

It was at a fall retreat with 30 other students that her life was changed. She said, "I saw Jesus, as never before, as a friend. He was interested in my everyday life." Also, I found the B.S.U. as a family support in my journey of faith and Christian growth. "I really got involved in sharing my faith. I am grateful to you (the Convention) for supporting campus ministries. I am sure God is using me and other students to witness in His name."

72. The Wake Forest University report featured a dramatic skit with Chaplain Ed Christman portraying Samuel Wait; music by the

74. James Murphy, president of the General Board, presented Lamar J. Brooks, Wilmington, chairman of the Search Committee for the General Secretary-Treasurer.

76. Chairman Brooks reported that the Committee's recommendation for nomination for the position of General Secretary-Treasurer is Roy J. Smith, Raleigh. (See p. 114)

77. President Murphy said this recommendation was received by the General Board at its September meeting and that 113 members voted unanimously to present the name of Roy J. Smith to the convention.

78. There were no other nominations and with a standing vote, Roy J. Smith was elected unanimously as General Secretary-Treasurer.

79. The convention applauded the work of the committee and gave standing ovation to the new General Secretary-Treasurer as he went to the podium and addressed the convention, accepting the position.

80. At the request of President Wiggins, Dr. Smith introduced his family: his wife, Doris; his daughter, Ginger and her husband, Dick Graves and granddaughter, Shelley; his son, Tracy; his mother, Mrs. Sanford J. 88. William Puckett, Millbrook Church, Raleigh, made a motion that the report be amended so that on the Committee on Resolutions, Coy C. Privette, Kannapolis, would be replaced by Alton McEachern, Greensboro, for the term expiring 1986, and as chairperson of that committee. (See Nos. 91, 122)

89. Frank Campbell, committee member, moved that the time be extended five minutes. The motion carried.

90. Mr. Puckett said he felt Mr. Privette should be replaced because in his opinion, "there is a conflict of interest." Mr. Privette was recently elected to the N.C. Legislature from Cabarrus County and also serves as a professional lobbyist as head of the Christian Action League, Puckett said.

91. In a standing vote, President Wiggins ruled that the motion to amend had lost. There was call for ballot voting and Ballot No. 3 was used. (See Nos. 88 and 122)

92. Robert Tenery, Morganton, moved that in order to achieve geographic balance on the Committee on Nominations, the motion be amended so that Kenneth Ridings, Asheville, would take the place of Marion Lark, Henderson. (See Nos. 98 and 123)

93. There was a motion from the floor to extend the time five minutes which carried.

94. Chairman Mobley explained that only one-third of the total committee is elected each year and that considering all 15 members, there is good statewide representation.

95. Frank Campbell, committee member, spoke against the Tenery amendment.

96. A motion from the floor to extend the time five minutes carried.

97. Don Taylor, Asheville, spoke in favor of the Tenery amendment.

98. Ballot No. 4 was used for voting on the Tenery amendment. (See Nos 92 and 123)

99. Chairman Mobley moved that the Committee report be adopted subject to the two votes taken by ballot. The motion carried and Ballot No. 5 was used to vote on the original motion without the two special votes. (See Nos. 87 and 124)

100. With Vice President Poe presiding, C. R. Pierce moved that the Baptist State Convention in its annual meetings dispense with all resolutions except those that deal with appreciation and commendation. Mr. Poe said that the Executive Committee of the General Board has this matter under study and will bring its report to the convention. In view of this, Mr. Pierce and the person who seconded the motion agreed to withdraw it.

101. Horace Hamm, pastor of Fuquay-Varina Church, moved "to affirm the Baptist farmers of North Carolina for their consistent and dedicated support of Baptist causes throughout the world and to instruct the General Secretary-Treasurer of the North Carolina Baptist State Convention to appoint a committee to work with the Baptist Men and Brotherhood Department and the Council on Christian Life and Public Affairs in implementing a strategy to utilize the unique and dedicated talents of North Carolina Baptist farmers to become an example in relieving and alleviating the awful problem of hunger in the world. I further move that the committee be instructed to bring a report to the 1985 Baptist State Convention meeting in Charlotte."

102. Mr. Poe said this motion had been submitted to the president and the parliamentarian rules that since it concerns a new work or activity, it should be presented to the institution, agency or council concerned. With assurance that the president will give it proper attention, the motion was withdrawn.

103. Charles Gatwood led the convention in singing "Jesus Saves" and W. Harold Newman, a Fayetteville surgeon, spoke on "Christ Jesus is Lord Through His Church...Through Volunteerism."

Dr. Newman challenged us to be "seekers" and "doers" of the Lord's work. He cited Proverbs 3:35 as a challenge to put the Lord first in all of our ways. Dr. Newman challenged the Convention at large and every individual to be involved in our communities and the world with a Christian ministry. Dr. Newman spoke with experience as a former missionary volunteer to Gaza in medical missions. He challenged us to follow the precepts set forth in Bold Mission Thrust. He said, "We can do it."

104. C. R. Pierce, chairman of Enrollment, expressed appreciation to the committee, Ruth Williams, Raleigh; Volna Bishop, secretary of Grace Church, Asheville, and the many volunteers from local churches who had helped the committee with its work. The final report is 4,089 messengers, 166 visitors, for a total of 4,255, believed to be a record enrollment, Mr. Pierce said.

105. Gene Watterson, Shelby, reported for the Committee on Place and Preacher that, chosen in secret ballot from some 25 suggested names, the Committee recommendation is Gerald Goodwin, Durham, for the 1985 convention sermon, with Charles Allen, Campbell University, first alternate; M. O. Sears, Adamsville, second alternate; and Ralph Carter, Statesville, third alternate. He moved adoption of the report and the motion carried. (See p. 203)

106. For the final part of the General Board report, Mr. Murphy recognized Mrs. Dot Allred, Gastonia, chairperson of the Constitution and Bylaws Committee who introduced the committee members: Al Miller, Mount Airy and Charles Harris, Durham. She said that constitution changes being recommended by the committee had been approved by the General Board. (See pp. 116-120)

107. Mrs. Allred read Article VI, Officers, which was to be amended in its entirety and moved its adoption. The motion carried.

119. Mrs. Allred said the Constitution and Bylaws Committee requested permission of the General Board to update the Constitution and Bylaws in accordance with federal laws by removing references to gender where it could be done without altering the content in a substantive way. This has been done and if approved, the annual for this year will include the changes. She moved adoption of the General Board's recommendation that these changes be made. She said she has worked for three years on this committee and each year this matter is brought up by some group or committee. There is no hidden agenda, she said, "it is not any kind of feminist, organized movement or anything of that nature. These changes would bring us in line with the spirit of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, in particular, Titles 7 and 9. The motivation of our committee was to honor and reflect the feelings expressed to us and which we personally felt were right and proper and in order." With no further discussion, the motion carried.

120. Mr. Gatwood led the convention in singing "I Stand Amazed in the Presence" and Ginger Graves, daughter of General Secretary-Treasurer Smith, led in singing "Jesus Loves Me."

121. With Vice President Hobbs presiding, Guy Rogers, chairman of the Division of Evangelism, introduced five pastors who told of their involvement in "Good News America": Frank Page, Lafayette Church, Fayetteville; Billy Cline, Merrimon Ave. Church, Asheville; Mark Corts, Calvary Church, Winston-Salem; Rich Liner, First Church, Hendersonville; and Charles Page, First Church, Charlotte. 1985 has been designated as a year of prayer and preparation for "Good News America" and revivals are scheduled for the eastern part of the state March 9-16, 1986; the Piedmont March 23-30, and in the western part of the state, April 6-13.

122. President Wiggins reported on Ballot No. 3, the motion to amend with Alton McEachern to replace Coy Privette on the Resolutions Committee. The vote was 677 Yes, 625 No. The motion to amend carried. (See Nos. 88 and 91)

123. On Ballot No. 4, another motion to amend the committee report which would replace Marion Lark, Henderson, with Kenneth Ridings, Asheville, the vote was 547 Yes, 852 No. The motion to amend failed. (See Nos. 92 and 98)

124. Ballot No. 5 on Committee on Committees resulted in 1,353 voting Yes, and 53 No. The motion carried. (See Nos. 87 and 99)

125. W. Henry Crouch, Charlotte, chairman of the Committee on Nominations, told the procedures used by the committee in preparing recommendations. He said there were several additions to the published list: Chowan College--Thomas Head, Wilmington, and N. O. McDowell, Jr., Scotland Neck; Retirement Homes--C. Fred Lovette, North Wilkesboro; Baptist Foundation--E. Ray Cope, Winston-Salem. (See No. 130) (See pp. 205-209)

126. Lindsay Miller, III, Leland, committee member, read additions to the printed list of the General Board nominees: William P. Billings, West Jefferson; Gurney Davis, North Wilkesboro; Jack L. Bryant, Dallas; Robert B. Morgan, Lillington; and Thomas Jenkins, Forest City.

127. President Wiggins reported that Steve Sells, Greensboro, followed the suggested procedures in indicating that he would move to amend the report of the Committee on Nominations. On a point of personal privilege, he asked for time to explain why he decided against amending the report.

128. Mr. Sells said he came to the covention prepared to present another name to replace one to be nominated to the General Board to finish a term of a layman in the Piedmont Association. "In the interest of harmony," he said, "we are not going to bring that nomination but I want to say that in the Piedmont Association we have a young man being placed in this position as a pastor in the place of a layman. We have been told in this convention that we need to involve our lay people. I wish that something could be done to instruct the Committee on Nominations to get them to become more interested to involve more lay people. We need laymen on the General Board so their voices can be heard throughout the convention."

129 Mr. Miller, who served as committee liaison with the General Board, asked on a point of personal privilege to explain why James Jarrard was selected: "He is very active in the association, (his church) gives almost 20 percent to missions and eight percent to the Cooperative Program; he is in a tri-racial situation, reaching out to everybody; he has a unique church in North Carolina; neither the church nor Mr. Jarrard has been asked to serve in a convention position before; and 73 percent of the 140 nominees are laymen."

130. A standing vote was taken and the report of the Committee on Nominations was adopted. (See No. 125)

1984 General Board Report To The Convention

The General Board met three times during 1984: January 24-25 at Caraway Conference Center; May 29-30 at Wingate College; and September 25-26 at Caraway Conference Center. The Board, composed of 113 members, serves as the "Convention ad interim." In this capacity the General Board is charged with "general supervision" of the institutions and agencies, and with directing the work of the General Board staff and programs.

The Board's ten subcommittees perform much of the Board's function of directing the work of staff and programs. These are: Business Management; Christian Higher Education; Christian Life and Public Affairs; Christian Social Services; Church Programs; Communications; Missions; Evangelism; Stewardship; and Youth and Campus Ministries. These meet on a regular three times a year schedule and for called meetings as needed.

The Executive Committee, composed of 18 members is the "General Board ad interim" and meets nine times a year. This group serves for the General Board and the Convention as the personnel committee, budget, plans, and policies committee.

The 1984 General Board functions include:

1. Search Committee Report

The Convention's constitution assigns to the General Board the responsibility of bringing a recommendation for a General Secretary-Treasurer position.

In order to fulfill this responsibility, the General Board elected a Search Committee with Lamar J. Brooks, Wilmington, Winter Park Baptist Church, as chairman. This committee has functioned under the highest principles and ethics as they have sought to find God's will for a leader for North Carolina Baptists.

In September the committee reported to the General Board and the General Board approved the nomination of Dr. Roy J. Smith for the position of General Secretary-Treasurer.

2. Convention Debt

The Convention has no indebtedness with any lending institutions. We presently have "internal debts" whereby unprovided-for capital costs have been financed by balances of Convention Reserve Funds. The internal debts as of December 31, 1984 are estimated to be:

New Baptist Building	$211,570
Computer for Convention	119,246
Fruitland Bible Institute	193,253
Caraway Conference Center
New Wing	576,779

An accurate account of the Convention's internal debts will be included in the auditor's report for 1984, and published in the 1984 edition of the Annual.

A repayment plan for these obligations is provided in the 1985 budget and will be included in the budgets of the following three years.

3. North Carolina Baptist Assembly at Caswell

By vote of the Executive Committee, Ketchum and Company has been retained to do a feasibility study relative to a $3,000,000 capital funds campaign.

Hurricane Diana did considerable damage to the assembly property. At present Assembly personnel are in the process of making repairs.

4. Caraway Conference Center

The new wing at Caraway Conference Center was dedicated during the General Board meeting September 25. This provides 32 more sleeping rooms and five more conference rooms. North Carolina can be proud of this addition to Caraway.

5. 1985 Cooperative Program Budget

The Cooperative Program budget recommended for 1985 calls for a base budget of $24,000,000 with an additional challenge budget of $1,500,000.

6. Planned Growth in Giving

The State Task Force for Planned Growth in Giving was elected and is involved in making plans for the 30 State Seminars to be held during 1985.

7. Lay Participation Committee

Bill Helms, chairman of the Lay Participation Committee, reported to the General Board in September. The report contained twelve recommendations which will be studied and implemented by the General Board.

8. Sunday School Enlargement

This year (1984) has been year three in an emphasis led by the Sunday School Department to assist churches with a Director-led Sunday School enlargement campaign. These are scheduled by associations. The goal is to involve the churches in all the associations by 1985.

NC/Togo Partnership

Partners in Wholeness, the NC/Togo Partnership, is well into the first of its three-and-a-half years. Begun with the vote of the Baptist State Convention last November, the Partnership involves North Carolina Baptists, the Foreign Mission Board, Baptist missionaries in Togo, and the Togolese Baptist Association.

Togo is a small country on the coast of West Africa, located next to Ghana and near Nigeria. It is fairly typical of countries in the Third World, those developing countries where there is much poverty and many needs. It is one of the countries affected by the current African drought and famine.

The Partnership is located in and around the village of Moretan. This is a very poor area, where life expectancy is only 38 years and 50% of the children die before they reach the age of six.

Several factors contribute to this situation. Water is a major problem. Women, whose responsibility it is to obtain water, often must walk many miles to a well or stream. Sadly, even that water is usually contaminated with parasites. During the dry season, which lasts for six months, water may not be available for crops or animals. Water problems are compounded by poor nutrition. While adequate quantities of food may be available, the traditional Togolese diet is very high in starch and low in protein.

All of this is made even worse by the lack of basic health information or simple medical care. Common childhood diseases, which would be easily thrown off by most American children, can be fatal in Togo. Many of these diseases, like measles, could be prevented by inoculations, if only they were available. Poor health information leads to more deaths. For example, the traditional "cure" for childhood diarrhea is to withhold fluids. This seemingly logical response, of course, speeds dehydration and hastens death.

The Moretan region is also an area with deep spiritual needs. The primary religion is animism or fetishism, the traditional worship of many spirits. Until last fall, the only other Christian work in the region was at two small Catholic missions. Even the Moslems, strong in many parts of Africa, have only one small mosque in the area. Last fall, Baptist missionaries and Togolese Baptist preachers led an evangelistic crusade in which nearly 400 were saved and six preaching stations were established. In an area in which the primary religion is based on fear, the good news of Christ, with its message of hope and joy, is falling on fertile ground.

The Partnership seeks to address these many needs. Central to the project is a Community Learning Center, now being built in Moretan. This center will consist of a classroom, eating facilities, and several traditional Togolese huts, built of mud bricks with thatched roofs. The huts will have small, though significant improvements. For example, the windows will be screened. John Moore, former director of missions in the South Roanoke Association, is serving, with his wife Julia, as the host for North Carolina volunteers in Lome, the capital city. He reported what happened at the partnership site when some of the first local people saw the window screens. "They had never seen screens," he wrote, "but recognized immediately what they were for, and expressed amazement that now one could have the breeze blow through the house without the flies."

The Community Learning Center, when completed, will be a site to which people from nearby villages can come to learn better nutrition, improved agricultural techniques (such as crop rotation), simple health education, and other ways to improve their lives and health. It will also be a place where the Togolese can experience the love of God as it is expressed in word and in deed by North Carolina volunteers and others working there.

Other parts of the Partnership are addressing other needs. The boys at Camp Caraway this summer gave their offerings to provide inoculations for Togolese children. Volunteers will go to give those shots. The Foreign Mission Board has bought a well drilling rig and plans to drill deep wells in many villages. Volunteers will operate the rig and teach the Togolese to use it. Plans are being drawn to build a bridge across the Mono River, which cuts many villages off from the rest of Togo during the rainy season. Volunteers have worked to plan the bridge and will help to build it. Literacy training will enable the people to help themselves and will open the Bible to them. Volunteers will go as literacy teachers.

Currently, construction is well under way on the Community Learning Center. Six huts have been completed and four more are under construction. Work is proceeding on the classroom building, and the well drilling rig has arrived. Two missionary families, who will continue to live in Moretan, have moved to that area. A home for one family has been completed; a second is almost finished.

At the time of this writing (October), 28 North Carolina Baptists have been to Togo as volunteers. They are:

You can have a part in the partnership. During the next three years, we will be looking for nearly 300 volunteers. You may be one of the ones we need. If you are not able to go, you may be able to give. The Hunger Relief Fund of the Foreign Mission Board pays for the hunger-related parts of the project. The NC/Togo Partnership Fund of the Baptist State Convention assists volunteers who are unable to pay all of their own expenses and finances part of the administrative and promotional costs. While some can go as volunteers and many can help financially, all can undergird the Partnership through prayer. Please pray for career missionaries in Togo, for North Carolina volunteers, for the new Togolese Baptists, for the people of Moretan, and for all in North Carolina who work to make the Partnership possible. Indeed, we are co-laborers with Christ, partners in bringing wholeness to the people of Togo, ministering in the name of the One who seeks to make each of us whole.

Pastor/Church Relations

Pastor/Church Relations provide basic, factual informational services for pastors and churches. As churches lose a pastor by retirement or call to another church, guidance and assistance is offered in the search for a new pastor. Pastors coming to a completion of their present field of service are shared with available Pastor Search Committees.

Associational Correlation

In 1984, this department has worked in partnership with 40 Associational Directors of Missions providing literature, availability, and current data on Southern Baptist pastors and staff. Together we share the needs and hurts of ministers and churches.

Crisis Ministry

Ministry is a part of life and faces the emergencies and difficulties of broken relationships. Pastors and church staff hurt and cry and need a friend. Twenty crisis situations were ministered through this office.

Support Ministry

All human beings need support and affirmation particularly those who may be retired, suddenly fired, or soon-to-begin servants of Christ. In the past year, 205 support/affirmation opportunities were provided by Pastor/Church Relations.

Ministerial Students

Southern Baptist Seminaries are leading the world in currently preparing and equipping 11,000 ministerial students. The office of Pastor/Church Relations assisted ministerial students from all of our seminaries in their beginning pilgrimage of ministry.

Career Guidance

Our office aided 110 ministers and staff personnel in their desire to retool, restructure, and reorganize their skills in outreach ministry.

Pastor Search Committees

This year 190 Pastor and Church Staff Search Committees were assisted as they began their search. Many of these were in-the-field training sessions and other conferences.

Robert Bruhn, director

Business Management

The business Office has seen a good year financially. The Cooperative Program has been consistently above last year's receipts. Foreign Missions, Home Missions and other sources of income have been greater than last year for the same period of time. North Carolina Mission Offering has been below last year's.

Personnel is changing in the Business Office. Mrs. Lib Mercer has retired after 19 years of service to the Convention. Her many years of secretarial and bookkeeping work have greatly benefited our Convention. We are fortunate to have Mrs. Sylvia Morgan as the new Division Secretary.

Richard Smith, director

Data Processing

The Data Processing Department has continued to expand during the past year by placing additional pieces of equipment in departments of the Convention. IBM Personal Computers with word processing capabilities have been placed throughout the building and these are being "tied to" the System/38 as money becomes available, thus making the computer capable of accessing the Convention's main data files (names, addresses, receipts, expenses, etc.).

Our main source of information for names and addresses is the Uniform Church Letter filled out and sent in by the church clerks.

During the year, we depend upon individuals to help us with the maintenance of these positions. Churches are encouraged to make us aware of additions, deletions, and corrections in their staff.

Camp Caraway and Conference Center

The new wing of the Conference Center has been completed and is in use. This addition should make our facilities more usable for the General Board, Convention programs, churches and associations. The addition of 33 new bedrooms and four new conference rooms are all needed.

The Boy's Camp had another successful year. The attendance was good and many boys who attended each week will long remember the spiritual uplift.

North Carolina Baptist Assembly Caswell

This has been an exciting and challenging year at the North Carolina Baptist Assembly. Our attendance has been excellent. More churches are using our facilities both during the summer and other weeks during the year.

The North Carolina Baptist Men have made great contributions in labor and materials to the renovation projects. We are grateful and thankful to so many for their many hours of service to our Assembly.

Mr. Tom McKay, Assembly Director for seven years, has resigned. He has led our Assembly to many challenging changes in our physical plant. He has led in long range plans that we hope will make our facilities more useful by both youth and adults.

Hurricane Diana caused considerable damage to our buildings. Almost every building suffered some damage — many lost roofing, windows were broken and there was some structural damage. Again, the Baptist men came to our rescue and made our recovery much quicker.

We hope to further improve our class rooms and our sleeping facilities through a Capital Funds Campaign. We have yet to complete all three phases of our long range program of improvements.

_____, director

Retirement Planning

Let's bring this message a little closer home. In North Carolina, there are some 1,321 annuitants. Out of this number, 681 receive $100 or less per month. Around 415 of this number receive from $101 to $200. This leaves 225 annuitants receiving over $200 per month!

The Annuity Board and the Baptist State Convention work hand in hand in trying to improve this situation. One bit of exciting news is the new program, along with improvements, which will take effect on January 1, 1988. Whereas the Baptist State Convention contributes $200 per year to your pastor's retirement program, beginning in January, 1988, the Baptist State Convention will contribute up to $420 per year. This will mean that $210 will be going into actually building a retirement income for our ministerial career church staff personnel. This will represent a vast improvement.

It is obvious that one of the greatest needs is planning for those retirement years. In a recent survey done by Gurman and Johnson of Transitions Planning, Inc., it was found that 85% of employees at all levels, upon reaching retirement, had done no serious planning for themselves. In another recent survey closer to home, it was revealed that the average Baptist pastor spent more time each year planning a two-week vacation than in planning for approximately one-fourth of his life which he would spend in retirement years!

North Carolina has 2,257 churches and associations with 3,034 employees participating. Through June, with a total of 49,524 churches and associations, there were 31,677 employees participating in the Southern Baptist Retirement Program. The number of new retirement applications received in the program in your convention during the first six months was 28. The following Baptist agencies participate in the retirement programs:

Baptist State Convention of North Carolina
Biblical Recorder, Inc.
North Carolina Baptist Foundation, Inc.
Baptist Children's Homes of North Carolina, Inc.
Wake Forest University
Wingate College

Annuity Board

Report to the 1984 Southern Baptist State Convention

A strong economy and sound management practices contributed to making 1983 another banner year for the Annuity Board. The following report reflects the Annuity Board's position as a sound financial pension board.

- * Total assets administered by the Board as of December 31, 1983, were: $1,251,643,084 compared with $1,057,947,515 December 31, 1982.
- * Investment income for 1983 totalled $150,204,159.
- * As of June 30, 1984, total assets held in trust by the Annuity Board totalled $1,308,938,000. This is an increase of $57,297,000 over June 30, 1983.
- * Premiums and dues through the first two quarters of this year reached $52,551,012 compared with $45,775,947 a year earlier.
- * As of June 30 this year, the Board paid a total of $17,665,022 in benefits to 13,913 annuitants.

The Annuity Board sends a retirement benefit check to over 13,000 Southern Baptist annuitants each month. This means that this number of Southern Baptist homes receive help each month in meeting their obligations. Unfortunately, most of these retired servants receive less than adequate retirement incomes. Many served churches which did not provide sufficient funds needed to build a sound retirement benefit. Along with that fact, inflation continues to eat away their retirement income.

The Annuity Board is the Southern Baptist Agency that administers the retirement and insurance program for the Southern Baptist Convention and helps meet the daily living needs for so many of these servants who have given their lives to the cause of Christ in a Southern Baptist Church. For a moment, try to imagine yourself living on less than $200 per month. This is hard to conceive in today's economy. The hard fact is that approximately 80% of the retired ministers or their widows in the Southern Baptist Convention try to live on this amount. But this is not all. Approximately 50% of them get less than $100 per month. The Southern Baptist Convention average for all annuitants is $142 per month.

Through June, with a total of 49,524 churches and associations, there were 31,677 employees participating in the Southern Baptist Retirement Program.

Church Programs

The Division of Church Programs is composed of eight programs of work—Church Building Planning, Church Music, Church Training, Sunday School, W.M.U., Church Administration, Weekday Early Education and Church Library (Media). These eight areas of work are organized into five departments. (Church Administration is a part of the Division Director's job description.)

The goal for Bold Mission Thrust continues to challenge the departments within the Division of Church Programs. The following five year goals for 1985 - 1990 constitute the very heartbeat of interest and activity. These goals are Reaching People, Developing Believers and Strengthening Missions.

The Minister Care Team continues to function with a great deal of enthusiasm and expectation. The recommendations of the Commission on Ministry (adopted by the Convention November 1981) continues to be very helpful. Two surveys have been completed. The response was excellent. "Job Satisfaction" was the subject of both of these.

The number of field engagements in the area of Church Administration has increased dramatically.

During the second week of May each year, associational key leaders are invited to Ridgecrest Conference Center for updating and training. Each area of work within the Division is responsible for directing the training of their particular counterparts from each association. This has proven to be a very helpful time for both state convention and associational leadership. This meeting was held May 14-16, 1984. The attendance was excellent. The spirit of joint ownership and cooperation was very good.

The personnel of the Division of Church Programs numbers 31. There are five department directors (the director of the Church Building Planning Department is to be approved by the Executive Committee of the General Board and employment to begin November 1st of this year), eleven associates, eight secretaries, one administrative assistant, one bookkeeper, two camp directors, two permanent part-time associates and the division director.

There were several personnel changes within the division during the year. August 31, 1984, Mrs. Barbara Chason, Church Programs Division Secretary, transferred to Christian Higher Education and Mrs. Mary Conyers transferred from Church Training to begin work in this position. Mrs. Faye Comer, office secretary in Church Training, filled Mrs. Conyers' position of receptionist/secretary. Mrs. Vicki Walker transferred from the Communications Division to fill Mrs. Comer's position. In the WMU Department, Tammy Herring became Camp Consultant/Director of Camp Mundo Vista in January 1984, and Mrs. Belle Wilson came to work as part-time secretary.

Program directors have been ably assisted by a great host of special and approved workers throughout the state.

Burrel F. Lucas, director

Church Building Planning

The need for expanded and/or improved facilities has resulted in an increasing number of requests for assistance from our churches. On-site consultations were conducted throughout the State and even into Tennessee and South Carolina, to churches affiliated with associations in North Carolina. In each instance, an evaluation was made of the condition of existing buildings, the current utilization of space in relation to the programs provided, the growth potential of the community and the desired outreach, plus the financial ability of the church to undertake a building or renovation project. When required, information and documents were gathered from the church and processed to the Church Architecture Department in Nashville for preparation of plot development plans and preliminary floor plans.

Emergency services were extended to three churches which were destroyed—one by fire and two by a tornado.

Churches were provided with sources for all types of furnishings, equipment, materials and services available through various companies. Copies of floor plans were shared with churches planning to build parsonages.

Church Building Conferences which were held in Kinston, Ashboro, and Hickory were well attended by church staff, lay leaders, and committee members from churches planning for better facilities. Program Personalities from the Church Architecture Department and Stewardship Commission in Nashville, the Home Mission Board in Atlanta, and the Baptist State Convention in Raleigh shared their expertise in the various aspects of planning for and accomplishing a church building/renovation project. Samples of pews, pulpit furniture, baptistries, bells, carpeting, and other items were on display by product suppliers. Architects, bond program representatives, and contractors were available to discuss their services with those who expressed an interest.

Ten churches became aware of the spiritual growth and financial savings experienced through Challenge To Build fund-raising programs conducted by in-state consultants assigned by this department. Another benefit derived from this effort was the release of more money for missions offerings and outreach of ministries.

Church Music

The Church Music Department has experienced another good year as we have endeavored to assist North Carolina Baptist churches in strengthening their music ministries. We have provided training opportunities for music leaders and group members at the local church level as well as through associational and state programs.

Several programs and projects had special emphasis in 1984:

- Training in the techniques of conference leading was provided in January for Music Approved Workers and Regional Directors. The conference was led by Mancil Ezell, secretary, Church Media Library Department, Baptist Sunday School Board and Fred Kelly, music ministries consultant, Music Department, Sunday School Board.
- Nine persons from North Carolina Spanish missions participated with other Hispanics from South Carolina and Georgia in a Spanish Music Conference at Toccoa, Georgia led by Ed Nelson, director, Music Publications Department of the Baptist Spanish Publishing House, El Paso, Texas. Some of the North Carolina participants also attended the September Volunteer Music Directors' Retreat at Caraway.
- Conferences for leaders of Preschool, Younger and Older Children's Choirs were led by Approved Workers in August in four locations.
- The first Youth Instrumental Festival was held in conjunction with the Youth Choir Festival on the Wake Forest University campus. There were forty-four participants in the instrumental festival and 1,149 singers in the choral festival.
- Ninety-two Singing Churchmen participated in an overnight retreat in September at Caraway. A women's choral group under the direction of Charles Storey was formed in the Fall; the Singing Churchmen and Women will sing for the opening session of the 1984 Baptist State Convention.

There was good response to other programs:

- Small Church Schools and associational projects for training of music leaders and members.
- Four Youth Handbell festivals participated in by 386 ringers; four Adult Handbell Festivals with 482 participating ringers. There were 1,333 singers in the ten Adult Choir Festivals.
- The Children's Choir Camp at Mars Hill College had 106 children in attendance. Linda Boyd, children's music coordinator, First Church, Atlanta, Georgia, led the 260 children in a mass choral experience during the Choir Camp at North Carolina Baptist Assembly (Casswell). Forty-four youth attended the Music Week at Camp Truett. The Youth Adult Music Conference featured 392 youth in a choir led by Fred Kelly, Nashville, Tennessee and 21 instrumentalists led by Billie Archer, Franklin Heights Church, Kannapolis.

- Two Volunteer Music Directors' Retreats were held at Caraway Conference Center in September and October. The choral work and conferences were led by Regional Music Directors.

Charles Storey completed his two year term as Denominational Vice-President of the Southern Baptist Church Music Conference. Charles Gatwood led the Chorus of Southeastern Seminary during the spring semester and conducted them in a presentation in May of "King David" by Honegger; he also taught during the two music leadership weeks at Glorieta Conference Center in New Mexico. The department director and associate presented three joint concerts during the Fall months.

The department staff consists of Charles Gatwood, department director; Charles Storey, associate; and Becki Canterbury, office secretary. Ten Regional Directors assist in many ways in the work of the department and meet twice each year with department personnel to assist in planning and evaluating.

Church Training

The Church Training Department assists associational and local church leaders in equipping God's people for bold growth in discipleship through its emphasis upon Continuing Training, Short-Term Training, and Individual Training.

During the past year, assistance was given to leaders through the following projects and activities:

- Two Area Church Training/Enabler Conferences in which associational age group leadership received indepth training and update in methods and materials. Two hundred and fifty associational leaders participated.
- Nine associational Church Training workshops for the training of local church leaders.
- Two "Project-400" sessions at Caraway Conference Center for training 19 Growth Specialists who assisted in beginning new Church Training programs during the 1984 church year.

Sunday School

Build A Great Sunday School!

Build A Great Church!

Since the early part of this century Southern Baptists have known the importance of a strong people-reaching, Bible-teaching Sunday School. Southern Baptist Churches have given priority work and resources to assure strong, effective Sunday Schools.

Although there was a period of decline and apparent complacency during the 60's and 70's, evidence is that more and more churches are remembering..."Build A Great Sunday School! Build A Great Church!"

Sunday Schools Are Deciding to Grow Again

Evidences are the large number of churches setting and reporting enrollment goals and the state-wide enrollment increases for two successive years. Special commendation is due Elkin and Liberty Associations for having 100 percent of the churches to report enrollment goals. Enrollment increase for 1982 was 0.7 percent. The increases continued through 1983 with a gain of 5,412, from 657,099 to 662,511, a gain of 0.8 percent. After two decades of general decline, these small gains may well represent a new trend and concern for reaching and teaching people through Sunday School.

Reach 5 in '85 Emphasis Highlights 8.5 by '85 Climax

The SBC goal of enrolling eight and one-half million people in Sunday School is about to be reached. Progress through 1984 is ahead of yearly projections. Every church is being encouraged to use the REACH 5 IN 85 theme and materials to help their workers and members claim opportunities this final year of 8.5 by '85. Some possible ways REACH 5 in 85 can be used include:

- Individuals committing to enroll 5 persons in Sunday School during 1984-85; making 5 evangelistic visits weekly, monthly, or each quarter, etc.
- Classes enrolling 5 new persons during 1984-85; classes committing 5 members to make evangelistic prospects each week, etc.
- Churches enrolling 5 persons per week or month; starting 5 new teaching units during 1984-85; starting 5 new Bible study groups outside the present Sunday School (neighborhood studies, apartment areas, trailer parks, etc.)

Will North Carolina Reach Its 855,000 Goal?

A net gain from 662,511 to 855,000 in just one year is a tremendous undertaking. Is it possible? Of course! Some churches could double their Sunday School enrollment. Red Branch Church, Sandhills Association, a rural church far from the mushrooming population centers has doubled! Some churches could grow by 50 percent. Others by 20 percent. Some perhaps by only five percent, but most churches have enough prospects available to reach more than are currently enrolled.

Consider this. With over 400,000 of our own resident church members not enrolled in Sunday School, churches that lovingly and consistently enroll their “inside the church prospects” will experience phenomenal growth.

Will North Carolina churches enroll 855,000 in Sunday School?...We can!

Enlargement-Improvement Campaigns Set Pace

Campaigns were conducted in 16 associations during 1984. Chowan, Eastern, New River, Tar River, Flat River, South Fork, Beulah, Cabarrus, Haywood, Sandy Run, South Yadkin, Three Forks, Liberty, Buncombe, South Roanoke, and Brunswick associations gave opportunity for their churches to participate in an intensive week-long Sunday School revival. Although less than one-fourth of the churches took advantage, the 173 churches that chose to be involved made much progress in Sunday School growth, numerically and in the quality of Bible teaching. More than 15,000 prospects were discovered and 1,000 new members enrolled during campaign weeks.

Could Your Church Participate in One of These?

- Little River, March 9-17
- West Chowan, March 16-24
- Surry, April 13-21
- Union, April 20-28
- Haywood, “Take Two”, April 27-May 5
- Columbus, September 14-22
- Piedmont, September 28-October 6

Associates Guide Improvement Projects

Sunday School Department Associates have multiple work assignments. They plan, lead and coordinate training for their assigned age-group and give guidance to the work in extra assignments, as well. For instance:

Johnny Ross, Adult Work, State Training Conferences, State Approved Special Worker Training. A few of the extras for 1984 include: Homebound focus by leading shared conferences with the Family Life Department in 11 associations; Homebound training tours in 15 associations with 49 churches participating; coordinating record 135 attendance at summer Caraway Mini-Weeks, 855 trained workers in training at the Ridgecrest Fall Sunday School Convention, 228 at Greenville and 370 involved at Caraway.

Phil Stone, Youth Work, ASSISTeam Development, Associational Training Schools Coordination. Progress in helping associations develop strong local Sunday School Support Teams moved forward because of: ASSIST training conferences in 13 associations; enlistment of 19 “Regional” ASSIST Special Workers; conducting 2 ASSIST Special Worker conferences; coordination of 4 “Send I You” conferences providing training for 893 workers; leading 4 training sessions for 8.5 by ’85 Representatives; leading North Carolina to “first place” among state convention with 76 ASSIST Directors enlisted and reported with a total of 601 ASSIST members listed on rosters!

Janice Haywood, Children’s Work, Vacation Bible School State Clinics, Backyard Bible Clubs promotion and training, Children’s Worship consulting. The 1984 VBS Clinics trained 573 associational leaders. They in turn trained 9,886 church leaders in their 78 associational VBS clinics. The first state-wide Mission VBS Clinic equipped 172 people to conduct mission VBS and Backyard Bible Clubs. In 1983 (1984 final report is not available until January 1985) there were 3,332 Vacation Bible Schools conducted and 273,701 people enrolled in these schools. There were 3,992 professions of faith resulting from these Bible study events. Prospects reported discovered in VBS was 44,947 people with a projected 33,900 additional prospects discovered but not reported. Total gifts to missions was $140,206.

Bob Goode, Preschool Work, Weekday Early Education training, Media Center/Library Promotion and Clinics, Baptist TelNet information. State-wide strategies included: providing Cradle Roll interpretation sessions for pastors in 3 associations; provided five area conferences, with BSSB representative, to interpret new Convention Uniform Series curriculum for preschoolers; week-long "Fall Whistle Stop" tour with Children's and Youth Associates to interpret curriculum materials and their use; provided leadership and coordination for preschool teachers and for lab schools at the Small Sunday School Thanksgiving Retreat at Ridgecrest; conducted media library conferences in 2 associations; led 3 (Eastern, Central, Western) Church Weekday Education conferences; provided a state Media/Library Workshop at Caraway with 160 attending.

Secretarial Support Essential and Efficient

The field staff spends a great deal of time away from Baptist Building traveling across the state involved in projects like those listed above. Our secretaries get all the materials ready for us to take to our projects and conferences, and they keep the materials and communication channels flowing while field staff is on the road.

Linda Hicks, Secretary to the Department Director, functions as an administrative assistant, is responsible for correspondence and materials for enlargement-improvement campaigns, department budget accounting and records, and provides secretarial support for Weekday Early Education, State Training Projects, and for the Preschool and Adult Associates.

Eva Teague, Assistant Department Secretary, gives secretarial support for the Children's and Youth Associates, maintains Vacation Bible School records and awards, handles ASSISTeam rosters, and associational development correspondence, and is responsible for inventory control and shipping of free promotional materials.

Add to this good team our extra secretarial helpers Pam Furlough, Eva Hocutt, Virginia Walker, and Simone Storey.

Every team member is committed to the purpose statement of the Sunday School Department: To lead North Carolina Baptists to believe that every person, regardless of age and circumstance, needs appropriate Bible study and Christian growth, and to provide encouragement and instruction in how to effectively reach and teach persons. We are committed!

Robert Stewart, director

Woman's Missionary Union

The work of Woman's Missionary Union is conducted by 141,980 members in 10,275 organizations of Mission Friends, Girls in Action, Acteens, Baptist Young Women, and Baptist Women.

The purpose of all age-level organizations is to study missions, engage in mission action and personal witnessing, and to support missions.

The state work of Woman's Missionary Union is administered by an Executive Board, comprised of the officers, age-level chairmen, and fifteen members-at-large from the ten state regions. The officers for 1984 were Bea McRae (Mrs. Horace), president; Norma Lewis (Mrs. William F.), first vice president; Anne Carter (Mrs. Ronald), second vice president; Mary Stancil (Mrs. Alfred), recording secretary; Shannon Wyrick (Mrs. Robert), assistant recording secretary.

The office staff consists of Nancy Curtis, executive director; Suthell Walker, Baptist Women director; Carolyn Hopkins, Acteens director; Jan High (Mrs. Larry), Girls in Action director; Pat Ritchie, Mission Friends and Baptist Young Women director; Tammy Herring, camp consultant/director; Pina Maynard (Mrs. Robert G.), administrative assistant; Diane Hurlbut (Mrs. Don), bookkeeper; Kay Bissette (Mrs. David), secretary/receptionist; Belle Wilson (Mrs. Walter), part-time secretary; Leland Bingham, Camp Mundo Vista resident manager.

While the Woman's Missionary Union does her ministry through local churches, there are state ministries done on an ongoing basis.

Woman's Missionary Union gives a substantial monetary gift to all North Carolinians appointed as career, associate, Journeyman, or US-2 missionaries. A Christmas gift of books is given each year, and a magazine subscription of the missionary's choice is a gift item.

Since 1981 North Carolina Woman's Missionary Union has recorded and sent Royal Service on cassette tape to the visually handicapped.

Woman's Missionary Union is actively involved in work with the two state prison units for women. Included in this ministry are two three-day retreats held at Camp Mundo Vista for honor-grade inmates.

New In 1983-84

In an effort to make North Carolinians more aware of the life of Lottie Moon, and thus increase prayer for missions and giving to the Christmas offering, Woman's Missionary Union purchased television time on major stations to present "Journey Home: Lottie Moon of China."

In recognition of years of involvement and support, the Department of Corrections of North Carolina and North Carolina Correctional Center for Women named WMU the Volunteer Group of the Year for 1983.

North Carolina WMU was asked to train a summer intern from New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary. Carol Brown, La Crosse, Wisconsin, spent the summer of 1984 learning all facets of the state and local WMU program.

Camping Programs

Woman's Missionary Union owns and operates Camp Mundo Vista near Asheboro, North Carolina. The camp is used by various groups during the off-season, and by Woman's Missionary Union for nine weeks during the summer. In 1984, 1,691 Girls in Action and 360 Acteens attended Camp Mundo Vista. These girls represent 391 churches and 63 associations. In addition to Camp Mundo Vista, Woman's Missionary Union supported Marcia McQueen and Susan Thomason, who directed camps at Camp Truett in region 10, Camp Cale in region 1, and Camp Joy in region 7. Two hundred and fifty-four girls attended these camps. WMU also gives financial support to a Girls in Action camp sponsored by the Kings Mountain Association.

Activities and Events

Woman's Missionary Union sponsors a number of state-wide events for WMU leaders and members. These are programs of training, information, and inspiration. These included:

- Acteens Associational Council Training (two)
- Baptist Career Women Retreat
- Baptist Young Women Convention
- Mission Education Training Labs (three)
- Missions Volunteers Retreat
- Acteens Queen's Court
- Mission Friends Leader/Baptist Young Women Retreat (two)
- Girls in Action Leader Retreat
- Associational WMU Leader Training (four)
- Girls in Action Mother/Daughter Overnight Camp

There were over 3,000 participants at these meetings. It is noteworthy that 670 associational leaders attended training. This is 92 more than in 1983.

Highlights

The Annual Session of Woman's Missionary Union of North Carolina was held in the Cumberland County Memorial Auditorium in Fayetteville with over 1,500 people registered. The theme of the meeting, "The Many Faces of Prayer and Ministry," was aptly interpreted by program personnel, who included Bobbie Sorrill of the national WMU staff; Delores Hill, missionary in Thailand; Sister Mary Teresa Floyd, North Carolina Correctional Center for Women; Mary Ida Tidswort, WMU president in West Virginia; Virginia Wood, WMU president of the European Baptist Convention; Max and Joan Furr, missionaries in Peru; Jim Greene, Baptist State Convention; and Thelma Horton, president, Baptist Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Convention, Auxiliary to the General Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, Inc. The music, as led by Peggy McCabe of Wilmington and nationally known concert organist and pianist Randall Atcheson of Connecticut, was a highlight of the meeting.

Of special importance was the election of Bea McRae (Mrs. Horace), of Lumberton, to her fourth term as state WMU president.

Another highlight was the National Acteens Convention held in Fort Worth, Texas. There were 197 girls and leaders who traveled on state-sponsored planes, making a total of 765 from North Carolina who attended. In all, there were 14,005 Acteens and leaders who attended this event, which is sponsored by the national WMU every five years.

Statistics

Statistically, Woman's Missionary Union of North Carolina continues to lead the nation both in total membership and total number of organizations. Much of the work in this area is done by trained lay women in the associations, who have as their responsibility encouraging enlistment in the churches, and beginning new organizations in all age levels. This has been done successfully as Mission Friends, Acteens, Baptist Young Women, and Baptist Women all grew in total number of age-level organizations and total membership. The total WMU enrolment increased to 141,959. It is a tribute to local and associational leadership that WMU continues to grow in these days when more and more women are working outside the home.

Woman's Missionary Union of North Carolina also leads the nation in number of Distinguished Church WMUs with 253, and in number of Distinguished Associational WMUs with 36.

Woman's Missionary Union of North Carolina is committed to the Southern Baptist program of missions, and gives wholehearted support to the Cooperative Program as the life-blood of the work. Woman's Missionary Union endeavors to lead the membership of all churches to support the special offerings and the seasons of prayer for foreign missions, home missions, and North Carolina missions.

In 1983-84, North Carolina Baptists gave $6,344,989.57 to the Lottie Moon Christmas Offering, $2,937,318.77 to the Annie Armstrong Easter Offering, and $453,929.66 to the North Carolina Missions Offering as of September 30, 1984. WMU also strongly supports the World Hunger Offering, and the Week of Prayer for Associational Missions.

Woman's Missionary Union, through her people, programs, and emphases, is seeking in the best way possible to help the Convention reach the goals of Bold Mission Thrust.

Nancy Curtis, executive director

Communications

The Communications Division serves as the general public relations and public information service for all the General Board departments, divisions, committees, councils and task forces. In the main, this involves the production of publications and audio visual products for distribution by General Board programs of work. The Division also serves as the media relations office with both the denominational and secular media. The Division operates the Quick-Copy (Print) Shop, Mail Services and Bulk Storage area.

The Print Shop averages approximately 300,000 copies of printing each month. A large portion of this printing is collated and stapled in the Print Shop.

The Mail Services area is responsible for all bulk mailings conducted by the various General Board departments and divisions, including the regular Pastor's Monthly Mailing and all specialized mailings such as the North Carolina Missions Offering; Lottie Moon; Annie Armstrong and others. The Mail Room has processed approximately 117 bulk mailings in 1984. The Mail Room is also responsible for filling of orders such as tracts, pamphlets, and materials for specialized mailings.

The Communications Division provides a free-loan Audio Visual Library to North Carolina Southern Baptist Churches. The Audio Visual Library includes filmstrips, motion pictures and video tape cassettes.

Communications provides audio cassette recording services for a variety of Baptist programs. The state wide Evangelism Conference, WMU Annual Session, Baptist State Convention Pastor's Conference and other major meetings are taped for sale distribution. Audio services for the blind include recording of the Biblical Recorder weekly, Royal Service (WMU publication) and World Missions Journal, (Brotherhood publication) monthly.

A major emphasis of the division in 1984 was the assistance given in forming Local ACTS Boards in cities across the state. ACTS is currently shown in these cities and channels: Wilmington Ch. 32, Charlotte Ch. 29, Greensboro Ch. 25, Winston-Salem Ch. 14 and Lincolnton Ch. 21. The following cities have Local ACTS Boards, but have not been assigned a channel to date: Asheville, High Point, Roxboro, Statesville, Wilmington. Contacts have been made with the following cities: Albemarle, Asheboro, Boone, Brevard, Buies Creek, Burlington, Concord, Durham, Fayetteville, Gastonia, Monroe, Morganton, Oxford, Raleigh, Roanoke Rapids, Salisbury, Shelby, Southern Pines and Waynesville.

Several personnel changes occurred in 1984: The resignation of Glenn Starling, Engineer, replaced by George Spence, contract Engineer. Dan Euliss, Assistant Communications Director resigned June 1, 1984. The job responsibilities of the Assistant Director were distributed throughout the division. The Art Department has employed a contract Artist/Designer, Elizabeth Johnson; Dennis Melton promoted to Audio Visual Services Manager/Producer Outside Projects; P. H. Smith promoted to Services Manager. Jimmy Allen, Production Associate resigned September 1984. Vicki Walker, Mail Room secretary transferred to Church Training. This position has been replaced by Mary Greene.

The major areas of work in the Division are Art/Publications; Video Productions and Audio Visual Services. Their reports follow.

William H. Boatwright, director

Art/Publications

The Art/Publications Department seeks to support the General Board divisions and departments by producing promotional materials for various programs and projects. In 1984, materials were published in the form of posters, brochures, flyers, programs, bulletin inserts, and other specialty pieces.

In addition to the normal General Board materials, the Art/Publications Department assisted in various convention-wide projects. These included the annual Baptist State Convention materials, the European Convention materials, the North Carolina Missions Offering materials and the Strengthening the Family paperback book.

There have been several changes in the department in 1984. The leaving of the division's Assistant Director, Dan Euliss, caused a shift in responsibilities and a greater work load for the Art/Publications Department. Projects such as the North Carolina Missions Offering, and the arrangements of the exhibit hall for the Convention in November are new for the department this year.

Graphic designer, Elizabeth Johnson is currently working under contract for the Art/Publications Department. She supplies additional graphic and mechanical art services.

Jane Callaway Richards, director

Video Productions

The work of Video Productions is fourfold, producing programs: (1) for departments directly under the supervision of the General Board, (2) for the various Baptist institutions and agencies of the Convention, (3) for individual churches and associations in the state as time permits, and (4) for ACTS television network and the Video Tape Service of the Southern Baptist Convention.

In 1984, the Department produced a total of 63 original feature-length video programs. These included the weekly International Bible Lesson for 19 cable outlets in the state; Royal Ambassadors: Growing In Faith; Commuter Student Ministries; A Bible For Miguel (migrant missions); A Place For Carla (mental retardation); One Hundred Years Of Caring, Baptist Children's Homes; four segments for inclusion in ACTS programming; Resort And Leisure Missions, (VTS, Home Mission Board); Planned Growth In Giving (VTS, Stewardship Commission); and three messages in sign language for the deaf.

This year, for the first time, North Carolina Baptists purchased commercial television time for the statewide showing of a North Carolina production, More Than Just A Name which was designed to acquaint non-Baptists with Baptist mission outreach in the state and to promote state missions among our own people.

Each of these programs is made available to SBC churches in North Carolina through the Audio-Visual Library of the Convention at no charge. In addition to video tapes, filmstrips, and motion pictures are available under the same plan.

Frances J. Riley, director

Audio Visual Services

Audio/visual service areas include: the audio/visual free rental library, audio duplication and distribution, video duplication and distribution, and the provision of audio/visual equipment for staff use.

The Audio/Visual Library continues its unique ministry of providing free of charge video tapes, filmstrips, and motion pictures to churches and associations in North Carolina. Currently, the Library contains more than 3,300 separate titles on stewardship, evangelism, Sunday School, children's work, and many other areas of ministry.

Audio duplication and distribution not only provides copies of messages delivered at several Convention meetings yearly to purchasers, but assists the Department of Special Ministries, the Woman's Missionary Union, and the Brotherhood Department of the Convention in making available tape recordings of the Biblical Recorder, Royal Service, and World Mission Journal at no cost to visually impaired persons. Over 12,000 duplicates of these magazines are mailed annually.

Video duplication services assist Convention departments by providing greater distribution potential for important teaching, training, and inspirational programs in this important medium. Audio production services provide assistance in the preparation of sound tracks for slide programs, filmstrips, and video programs.

Dennis W. Melton, director

Evangelism

We are told that only three percent of all the lost people come to our churches on their own. This means that 97 percent are out there lost without help, without hope, without strength. These people will die and go to hell unless we go to where they are and share Jesus with them. It is absolutely imperative that our church people come out of the beautiful church buildings into the market place and share with lost humanity the "Good News" of Jesus.

All Baptists are urged to participate in the "Good News America God Loves You" revival in March and April 1986. The revival dates for the areas are: Eastern, March 9-16; Piedmont, March 23-30; and Western, April 6-13, 1986. Every church is encouraged to plan a revival meeting during one of these suggested dates. Let us pray daily that every unsaved person in North Carolina will have the opportunity to hear the gospel of Christ by the end of 1986.

Churches are urged to have a CWT or Lay Evangelism School training in preparation for the "Good News America" revivals. Bible distribution and a people search will be emphasized during October 1985.

Many of our churches have already scheduled revival training seminars, Growing Evangelistic Churches in North Carolina seminars, and Spiritual Awakening seminars for 1985.

In February, in the midst of a snow storm, the Statewide Evangelism Conference was held at War Memorial Auditorium, Greensboro. Dr. Claude Rhea led the music and Dr. Jess Moody, D. L. Lowrie, Dr. Doug Watterson, Dr. Grady Wilson, Laura Allen, and Dr. Gardner Taylor preached to the twenty-five hundred in attendance. On February 4-5, 1985 the 39th Conference will be held in Greensboro with Joe Ann Shelton leading the music, Dr. Bill Tanner, Dr. James Pleitz, Dr. W. A. Jones, Dr. John Sullivan and Dr. John Bisagno bringing the messages.

The Youth Evangelistic Crusades were held in May this year at Chowan College, Winston-Salem, and Asheville with almost four thousand young people in attendance.

The Evangelism Division sponsored 15 regional meetings in October designed for pastors and staff. These meetings will be held each year to inform and educate the staff on coming evangelism events and programs. The meetings begin at 10:00 a.m. and last until noon with lunch being served. This year the emphasis will be on the "Good News America" revivals.

Again, one of the hits of the year was the Single Adult Evangelism retreat. This is the second year for this retreat and it along with the vocational evangelists retreat are always well attended.

The first ever Mountain Pastors Evangelism Conference was held at Ridgecrest and was such a success the 1984 conference is already on the agenda. Designed for the mountain pastor and his wife, the conference begins on Friday afternoon and concludes Saturday at 2:00 p.m.

With baptisms down this year, let's pray God will use each of us to win one in 1984-85.

J. W. Hutchens, Jr., director

Evangelism Development

The purpose of this department is to provide direction, strategy, and training for a broad spectrum of year-round evangelistic endeavor; i.e. encouraging aggressive pastoral leadership, rural as well as metropolitan applications, bi-vocational and ethnic leadership, spiritual awakening, and the mechanics of evangelism research, writing and utilization of mass media.

Church Growth

Growing Evangelistic Churches in North Carolina, a five-hour seminar, which is basic to planning for evangelism year-round. Associations are encouraged to schedule this seminar.

Revival Preparation

The Revival Training Seminar enables a church to organize and prepare in order to utilize the revival meeting for its maximum potential in reaching people. Revival Training is a primary strategy for emphasis. Associations will want to plan for this seminar in view of the nationwide simultaneous revival crusade in 1986: "Good News America. God Loves You."

Spiritual Awakening

The Prayer for Spiritual Awakening seminar continued to be available for churches and associations. Some churches are opting for a retreat or prayer revival format. Since its introduction in 1980, renewed interest is being expressed in using this means of establishing and implementing a congregational prayer ministry as the foundation of a church's total ministry.

Metropolitan Evangelism

An Urban Evangelism Consultation continues to meet the needs of many. The content brings a focus on interfacing evangelism with Christian social ministries, new work, language, student, multi-family, and inner city work.

Vocational Evangelists

The third annual enrichment retreat for North Carolina Vocational Baptist Evangelists and their families featured voices of experience from among their fellowship. The 1984 retreat was held at Caraway Conference Center, January 30-February 1, with Wayne Bristow of the Foreign Mission Board. In October of each year the Evangelism Division assists in the distribution of the annual directory of evangelists through the pastors mailing. We welcome inquiries about these evangelists and encourage churches to secure their leadership in revival meetings and other special programs.

Victor G. Cole, director

Personal Evangelism

The Personal Evangelism Department provides opportunities for witness training to Christians of all ages with emphasis given to several target groups such as youth, single adults and young adults. A major part of its work is to provide leadership training for key church and associational leaders who can continue training others at the local level.

Continuing Witness Training

The interest in CWT continues to climb at a very exciting rate across North Carolina. To date, 104 churches have attended a four-day national CWT seminar in North Carolina with over 150 pastors, staff, seminary students, and Directors of Missions being trained since this process was begun in North Carolina during 1983. Currently the host churches for the seminars are in Fayetteville, Hendersonville, and Raleigh, but other churches are being added as certification takes place. This will greatly expand our opportunity of reaching more pastors. The seminar, involving 9 sessions during 4 days, is the most demanding and intensive of all witness training processes. The most distinguishing factor is that this method provides for the multiplication of those trained - each one trained trains two more; those three each train two more, etc. A model presentation of the gospel is also used during witnessing visitation.

An indicator of excitement for this process is that ten national seminars are planned in North Carolina during 1985.

Single Adult Evangelism Conference

EvangeLife is a witness training seminar designed especially for singles and the areas of life that they encounter. This past April 27-28 saw this seminar taught to 98 single adults from across North Carolina. One of the exciting dimensions of this conference was to see singles of all ages — from late teens to over sixty — never married, divorced, and widowed share their needs and learn how to share Christ with others. Only two years old, this conference is rapidly earning a place of recognition for itself by meeting the needs of our single adults, a rising and significant segment of our population. Another conference is planned for 1985.

Student Evangelism Teams

Two teams, composed of three college students each, did a superb job of leading revivals in 18 churches during this past summer. Youth and adults alike were challenged and trained by the teams to share their faith as a life style. Many decisions for Christ were registered both during the worship services as well as in one-to-one sharing in the homes during afternoon visitation sessions in which youth were trained to share Christ.

Exciting changes are planned for the 1985 team. Look for those changes in the up-coming weeks.

Youth Evangelism Week

“Journey Into Usefulness” was the theme of the 1984 Youth Evangelism Week held at the North Carolina Baptist Assembly at Caswell. Fenton Moorhead, H. S. Yarborough, and Richard Everett led in the teaching and music sessions for the large group. Local church leaders were involved in small group Bible Study. During commitment times, 116 youth made public decisions for Christ and 21 of those were first-time professions of faith in Jesus Christ as Lord.

An exciting dimension of this program is that in 1985 an additional Youth Evangelism Week will be held at Truett Camp, August 5-9.

Youth Evangelistic Crusades

The 1984 version of the Youth Evangelistic Crusades was an exciting and meaningful time for all of those involved. A dynamic group of people formed the program for these events which shared testimonies and messages in word and song that challenged both youth and adult alike. Cliffe Knechtle brought the message in each service assisted by Larry McFadden, soloist and other well-known Christian sports figures such as Steve Hale of UNC-Chapel Hill. Several hundred youth responded to the invitation to commit themselves to faith in Jesus Christ.

A major change in the format for next year will be a combination Evangelism/Discipleship two-day seminar, July 10-12 followed by one statewide Evangelistic Crusade for Youth in Greensboro on July 12. A day of sharing and recreation is planned for Saturday, July 13. Complete information will be forthcoming in a few weeks.

Richard W. Everett, director.

Missions

The work of the Division of Missions is done through area missionaries, six departments - Associational Development; Brotherhood; Chaplaincy and Language; Church Extension; Cooperative Ministries and Seminary Extension; Special Ministries and Deaf and Fruitland Baptist Bible Institute. The combined reports of each of these areas of work constitute the report of the division.

Sara Ann Hobbs, director

Area Missions - Northeastern North Carolina

Alive, well and growing could describe a lot of what is happening to churches and communities in northeastern North Carolina.

After the devastating tornadoes that ripped through eastern North Carolina in March, it was quite evident that there is a strong support system that could and would reach out to the needs of hurting people. It has been exciting to see the continued support given by our churches as they minister in many areas of need.

New churches are also being birthed. North Carolina Baptist Men have responded from across our state to help in the building of two new church buildings. Since May, the Fellowship Baptist Church near

146/Baptist State Convention

Moyock and the Albemarle Baptist Mission near Edenton, have seen volunteers “dry in” their new units. Several teams will be coming in the fall and winter months to continue this support ministry.

The best of North Carolina Missions is illustrated by a “partnership” that was formed this year between the Swanquarter Baptist Church located in Hyde County and the Long Creek Memorial Baptist Church of the Gaston Association. The Swanquarter congregation is small in number but big in determination to minister to their community. Dreaming, planning and working together, the Long Creek Memorial congregation has begun helping Swanquarter in areas such as Pastoral Aid, repairing of buildings, V.B.S., youth ministry, outreach ministry, migrant ministry and revival efforts. Here is a model that could provide future involvement between other congregations across North Carolina.

Key Leadership Workshops and retreats, along with Seminary Extension Centers, continue to be a valuable resource in preparing pastors and lay leadership to do ministry together.

Larry R. McClure, area missionary

Area Missions - Western North Carolina

The work of the area missionary in western North Carolina centers around four basic areas: rural and mountain church development, Seminary Extension centers, resort missions, and helping develop missions programs in associations and churches. In a sense, these go hand in hand and are vehicles to, as D. T. Niles said, “help those who’ve said ‘yes’ do yes, and to help those who’ve said ‘no’ learn how to say ‘yes’”.

Leadership training remains one of the great needs. The Week of Christian Study and Fellowship at Mars Hill, “24 Hours at Ridgecrest,” a mountain pastors conference, the Mountain Pastors Evangelism Conference, the Mountain Directors of Missions Conference meeting alternately at Boone and Junaluska are efforts in this area for providing fresh insights and stimulating fellowship. In addition, local associational efforts at leadership development are encouraged by the area missionaries as they help organize and teach Seminary Extension classes. Other efforts in this direction are made in helping provide various training conferences and helping plan and carry out associational World Missions Conferences.

There are countless tourists and visitors who come to the areas served by the area missionaries, to visit or to live. It is important for us to have a ministry with them, to include them in our churches and to provide a witness in the campgrounds and tourist attractions. Active participation by the missionaries in this as well as encouragement offered to the associations and churches to be sensitive to the opportunities and needs is the goal of the area missionary. Eleven summer missionaries worked in the Watauga-Avery area, making thousands of contacts with these "people on the go". Winter ministry involved over fifty volunteers on the slopes. Plans are being made to provide a resort ministry in the Nantahala Gorge to the thousands who "float the river" each summer.

Helping the rural and mountain church and association is a priority for the area missionary. In Wilkes County, four associations are beginning to plan together to meet the needs of their churches better. There is no thought of organic union, but there is the desire to make resources available to each other across associational lines. In cooperation with the Language Ministries Department, the Elkin Association was able to begin a ministry to the migrants. Other departments and divisions of the Baptist State Convention were enabled to meet needs across western North Carolina.

The task is varied but rewarding. We're grateful for the opportunity the Convention makes for us to help meet the needs of churches and associations in our areas.

Jim Lambert, area missionary
Tom Lolley, area missionary

Associational Development

The Department of Associational Development provides encouragement and assistance in the 79 associations in helping them to develop a strong associational program and ministry to meet local needs and opportunities. During this year, 49 associations have received financial assistance in the amount of $148,835 for their basic associational program and for mission ministries. This assistance is being provided through the means of a cooperative agreement. This cooperative agreement involves a joint planning process between the association and the Convention through which the association is assisted with its basic program and/or mission ministries and special mission projects.

During 1984, six associations have been involved in the Metro Thrust Program: A Plan of Metropolitan Strategy Development. This Department provided assistance in helping an association to determine its purpose, objectives, resources, goals, and action plans. Long-range planning is the process of providing the association with the best possible direction and approach in accomplishing its purpose and mission. It is the necessary process by which the association defines its purpose and mission and then develops a program to attain them. Good associational planning in both long-range planning and annual planning is necessary for the association to effectively achieve its purpose and to be on mission for Jesus Christ in its setting.

Christian Social Ministries

There are 11 full-time and seven part-time Christian Social Ministries programs now in progress and in 1985 an additional full-time program will be started. The full-time Directors of Christian Social Ministries are: Gayle Brown, Buncombe Association; Marvin Southard, Dan Valley Association; Cathy Hopkins, Eastern Association; Robert Davis, Kings Mountain Association; James H. Royston, Mecklenburg Association; Ronald Loftis, New South River Association; Gerry Hutchinson, New River Association; Dennis Gabriel, Raleigh Association; and Marsha E. Cook, Wilmington Association. There are now vacancies in the Gaston, and the Pilot Mountain Associations.

Resort Ministries

Resort Ministries is an effort of North Carolina Baptists to witness and minister in the resort and leisure time areas of our state. Basically, our program is during the summer weeks and in 1984 there were 29 summer student missionaries serving in resort areas across the state. Their ministries included drama, clowning, puppetry, Bible teaching activities, music presentation, worship services, and serving as campground chaplains. In the Boone area, we share in a year around ministry to the ski slopes.

With tourism up significantly in our state, the opportunities of Resort Ministries are greater than our resources and personnel. The challenge is ours to reach these leisure time people at a time when they are open and receptive to new experiences. It is exciting that more and more churches and associations are experiencing the challenge and joy of witnessing and ministering for Christ in resort areas.

Brotherhood

The basic task of Brotherhood still is to involve men and boys in missions. It is felt that this is being done better today than ever in the history of Brotherhood work both in North Carolina and the Southern Baptist Convention. In 1984, there were more men involved in mission action, study, and prayer groups than ever before. Men's prayer groups continue to grow at a fast rate. For both the church and Brotherhood, this is a vital sign of good things to come.

Local Leadership

During 1984, the state Brotherhood Department spent more time and resource in helping develop the local leadership (associational and local church). It is felt by the state staff that without good trained leadership at these most important levels, it will be very difficult to see sustained growth in mission outreach for men and boys. There was great effort given to train specialists in Brotherhood work that help in leading both at the church level and the associational level. This year, the training specialists went to the Foreign Mission Board to better understand how men and boy's work relate to our overseas mission enterprise and how, in leading in a conference, Brotherhood could better relate to this most important mission outreach of our denomination.

There were more associational Brotherhood workshops in 1984 than in previous years. Also, Mission Action Conferences were held for the first time, emphasizing 12 different ministries. While attendance could have been at a higher level, enthusiasm was very high; and this will be a continued emphasis of Baptist Men.

Royal Ambassadors

Under the leadership of Tommy Pucket, Eddie Pettit, and Richard Brunson, our Royal Ambassador program in North Carolina has become a model for the Southern Baptist Convention. New and innovative programs have challenged boys in grades 1 through 12 to become more involved in missions than ever before. From our sports programs that are involving thousands of boys to overseas missions project involving senior high young men, Royal Ambassadors has become the vehicle to challenge boys to be "Ambassadors for Christ."

Our summer camp program continues to be the very best in helping a young man to discover himself in new ways. Under the leadership of Richard Brunson, Caraway for boys is a model example of what "decentralized camping" can be and should be. Over 1,400 boys this past summer spent a week at Caraway learning valuable lessons that will come back to them as they grow into manhood. Royal Ambassadors have a future that is very bright and, under the leadership of our present staff, will continue to grow.

North Carolina Baptist Men

North Carolina Baptist Men is very appreciative to the North Carolina Missions Offering for providing three percent of that offering to operate this organization. Baptist Men continues to work hand in hand with the Brotherhood Department in enlisting men to various ministries. At the present time, there are 14 different ministries that men are involved in. David Langford, director of Brotherhood work, serves as Executive Director of North Carolina Men.

In 1984, two new ministries are under consideration. A proposed Lawyer's Fellowship was initiated. The purpose of such a group will be to provide a fellowship both on a local level and a state level for lawyers to come together to discover ways to use their profession in a Christian way. Also, it will allow lawyers an opportunity to discuss with fellow lawyers ways to deal with issues that affect their profession. In 1985, there will be five pilot projects to begin to set patterns for future fellowships in years to come. In addition, a Mechanic's Fellowship study is underway. Hopefully, in 1985, there will be similar pilot projects that will challenge men to use their skills in ministry.

The Baptist Men's Disaster Unit was put in use for the first time this year: in Red Springs during the tornado and at Southport during the hurricane. Both times, the unit lived up to its expectations and was a powerful witness to the caring attitudes of Baptist people in North Carolina. Baptist Men will continue to challenge every Baptist church in our state to have a Baptist Men's prayer group. It is a reasonable expectation, and one that, without doubt, will provide power for both the church and their men to do great things for our Master.

Staff

With a complete staff on board, the office ran very adequately with the help of Lynn Tharrington, office coordinator; Merilee Clifton, office secretary; and Carlette Adams, part-time secretary. Countless letters, programs, and memos were sent to leadership across our state that enabled our work to be accomplished. With capable office staff and dedicated field staff, good days are still ahead for Brotherhood work in North Carolina.

David Langford, director

Chaplaincy and Language Ministries

Chaplaincy

Volunteer Chaplaincy Ministries have been launched in three Baptist Associations in 1984. The more advanced of the programs is in the Wilmington Baptist Association where expectations are to involve approximately 25 persons in volunteer chaplain positions around the association. The program focuses upon hospitals, prisons, rest homes, small industries, law enforcements, and fire departments. The program should broaden to include many more associations in 1985.

Twenty-six Southern Baptist Military Chaplains presently serve as active duty chaplains on Fort Bragg, Camp Lejeune and New River Air Station. As missionaries to military personnel and families, they appreciate support of their ministry.

In 1984 the seminary intern program for prison ministries trained two seminary students for a vocation as prison chaplain. The program is conducted annually at Central Prison and Woman's Correction Units in Raleigh.

Language

The Language Department has now established 33 units of language work in the state of North Carolina ministering in 10 different languages. Groups being ministered to include: Spanish, American Indian, Middle-Eastern (Arab), Korean, Japanese, Chinese, Vietnamese, Laotian, Cambodian, Asian Indian. Rev. Mauricio Vargas is minister to Spanish persons and coordinates the migrant missions programs. At present, 16 associations are actively involved in migrant ministry. William O. Hern is minister to Middle-Eastern persons and coordinator of Literacy and Interfaith Witness programs. The request for training to witness to cult groups has increased tremendously.

Associations across North Carolina are increasing their efforts to witness to the ethnic persons of their geographic area. We are grateful for the support which has established the 33 units of ethnic missions and churches now serving these North Carolina residents.

PRAXIS

Seven teams of Student Church Planters from Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary worked in six associations this summer ('84). For ten weeks they made evangelistic visits, conducted Big A Clubs, Backyard Bible Clubs, Mission Vacation Bible Schools and Home Mission Bible Fellowships. Five of the seven teams established New Works. Foundations were built by the other two teams. New Works could easily be born in these situations in the future. PRAXIS Teams served in the following Associations:

- Atlantic Association, Sponsoring Church - First Church, Morehead, Curtis W. Clark and George Johnson
- Mecklenburg Association, Michael W. Chaille, Charles Lawson Smith, Sr., Joanna Morgan and Judge Woodrow Morgan, Jr.
- New River Association, Sponsoring Church - Surf City Church, Rennie Adcock and Mel Johnsen
- Raleigh Association, Sponsoring Church - Pleasant Grove Church Greg Eberhard and Chris Martin
- Wilmington Association, Kim Jordan and Bob Jordan
- Yates Association, Sponsoring Church - Red Mountain Church Richard Hayes and Chris Fuller

New Work Corps

Another group of seminary students from Southeastern and Golden Gate served as church planters in a different facet. There were six associations who worked with New Work Corps Church Planters. Five "new works" were begun by the New Work Corps at the seven target areas.

- Brunswick Association, Sponsoring Church - Southport Robert D. Norton, Jr.
- Carolina Association, Sponsoring Church - Naples Thomas E. Clementson
- Little River Association, Sponsoring Churches - Lillington, Antioch and Hillman Grove, Wade Abercrombie and Daniel R. Israel
- Mt. Zion Association, Sponsoring Church - Hillsborough First Paul Lewis
- Raleigh Association, Sponsoring Church - Pullen Memorial Princy and Joseph Jesudason
- Yadkin Association, Sponsoring Church - South Oak Ridge Phillip Kitchen
- Special Project: Rustic Ridge Mobile Home Park Mike Darby and Francis Duri

Church Pastoral Assistance

In 1984 there were 45 New Works (1-5) and seventeen established works (six years old or older) who received $100,126 in Church Pastoral Assistance. The General Board in the September 1984 meeting approved 1985 assistance to 45 New Works and 18 established works for a total of $174,874 in assistance.

15 pastors were enrolled in the Southern Baptist Convention Annuity Program for the first time through the Church Pastoral Assistance ministry.

New Works

As of this date (9-24-84), there have been 31 new starts.

Priority Associations

Each county of our state has been indexed according to needs for new work. This indexing was done by the Home Mission Board and a demographic specialist within our state. Both indexes produced almost the same priorities. A third study, the Evangelism Receptivity Index, corresponded almost exactly to the results of the other two indexes. Below is the priority list of associations for 1985 as determined by the indexes.

1. Raleigh, Mecklenburg
2. New South River
3. Pilot Mountain, Piedmont
4. Yates, Wilmington
5. New River
6. Robeson
7. Cabarrus
8. Gaston
9. Buncombe

PACT Blitz

Raleigh and Yates Associations have scheduled PACT Blitzes for November of 1984. Mecklenburg has already conducted their PACT Blitz. The teams who did probes of the Mecklenburg Associations found 50 places that needed new work. The teams rated 30 of these identified new work starts as critical and new work needs to be started in these areas immediately.

Other PACT Blitzes may be scheduled for 1985 by contacting the Church Extension office.

Statewide Church Growth Conference

The first statewide Church Growth Conference will be conducted March 1 and 2, 1985 in Charlotte, North Carolina. Charles Chaney, Ebbie Smith, and J. V. Thomas are keynote speakers. Early registration is encouraged.

Church Extension

We covet your prayers that we may meet the challenge of new work in North Carolina. The thousands without Christ must be reached. Our Bold Mission Partnership with the people of this state must have priority as the local churches, the associations, and the staff of the State Convention work together to share Christ with a state population that is 51 percent unchurched.

Bob Watson, director

Cooperative Ministries and Seminary Extension

As we reflect on our twenty-seventh year as a department several impressions are noteworthy:

First, we are pleased to report a record number of 60 black summer workers appointed.

Secondly, the Seminary Extension program with both the Baptist State Convention and Shaw Divinity School continues to grow and receives an ever increasing portion of our resources.

Thirdly, the first prison inmate in North Carolina received a diploma in Seminary Extension. He was second in the nation.

Fourthly, there is a growing awareness and appreciation for the hundreds of bivocational ministers in both state conventions.

Finally, our programs have continued to expand rather miraculously in spite of a continuing economical recession that has hindered budget growth.

Seminary Extension

Another record was set as we assisted with establishing 87 centers throughout the state among Southern Baptists and General Baptists. For the tenth consecutive year we hold the distinction of having the largest statewide program in the United States. During the year 1,369 students enrolled for 2,425 course registrations.

The first diploma earned by a prison inmate in North Carolina (second in the nation) was granted to Larry D. Green of Wilmington. He is serving a life sentence in the Pender County unit of the state Department of Corrections. During the year we provided 287 courses for inmates. Since beginning this program in 1979 we have provided 1,044 courses to inmates in 25 prison units throughout the state. Warden Nathan A. Rice of Central Prison, Raleigh, writes: "Your willingness to sponsor the Biblical Studies program and provide interested inmates with first rate teachers has had an invaluable impact on their lives."

We are pleased that a North Carolina graduate in Seminary Extension was selected as "Graduate of the Year" by the Department of Seminary Extension in Nashville, Tennessee. He is Tommy Goldsmith of Pisgah Forest, pastor of the Little Cove Baptist Church, Brevard.

Through the Shaw Divinity School, Raleigh, we established 22 centers and recorded over 800 registrations in 43 courses. Totals among General Baptists from September, 1970, through August, 1984, are as follows:

No. of people enrolled .....	2,215
No. of registrations .....	5,464
No. of courses taught .....	249

Summer Youth Program

We appointed a record number of 60 black summer workers who served in ministries in 25 locations throughout the state. They served in churches, camps and assemblies, associations, day care centers, etc. This program is indebted to those churches and Baptist colleges who provide matching funds for student workers. Youth Orientation Week was held at Wake Forest University, Winston-Salem.

Student Aid Fund

A total of $13,052. was provided for scholarship assistance to 20 black Baptist students preparing for church related vocations. Matching funds amounting to $5,200. were provided by Southeastern Baptist Seminary, Wake Forest, and Southern Baptist Seminary, Louisville, Kentucky.

Campus Ministry

Our staff was represented on the board of directors for North Carolina Central University Christian Ministries in Durham. We assisted the director on a trip to Liberia.

New Work

We continued to co-sponsor new church work in predominantly black communities in Charlotte with the Galilean Baptist Mission and in High Point with the East Grimes Baptist Chapel. Another new ministry was begun in the Rustic Ridge Mobile Home Park in Franklinton.

Bivocational Ministries

The third annual conference for bivocational ministers and their spouses was held at the Caraway Conference Center in Asheboro. Three awareness conferences were held in Wilmington, Gastonia, and Tuckaseegee associations. The Home Mission Board released a video tape on bivocational ministers entitled "Whatever It Takes". Plans were made to distribute the tape throughout the state.

Staff

Those associated with this department in addition to the director are Mrs. Cecilia S. Davis, office secretary; Dr. Leo Williams, Jr.; Dr. J. Z. Alexander; Reverend A. D. Logan, Jr.; and Reverend Michael J. Darby.

Corbin Cooper, director

Deaf Ministry

Small things. We Americans are so accustomed to hearing "bigger, better and colossal" that we forget the one lonely, lost person or the Christian who needs love on a one-to-one basis. Looking over my activities for the past year reveals few "super-colossal" things to report, but many small deeds done in the name of Christ.

Teaching sign language to a man and his family because he has lost his hearing late in life; helping a deaf family make arrangements to get their daughter in college and filling out all the confusing forms for financial aid; visiting a dying deaf woman in the hospital—things all pastors do. The difference is that pastors who do not know the language of signs cannot minister to these who live in the world of silence. That is why Baptists have a Department of Deaf Ministry...to do the small things that might otherwise not get done.

Then there are the small things done indirectly for the deaf—speaking to civic clubs, RA and GA groups, WMU, Brotherhood as well as to the churches in our state. When hearing people understand the problems of deafness it makes life a little better for deaf people. A deaf man once said, “The biggest problem we deaf people face is hearing people who do not understand the problems of deafness.” Breaking down the wall of misunderstanding, or lack of understanding and building a bridge of respect and love is one of the major goals of this department. Small things.

Talks were held with First Church, Morganton and with the Mecklenburg Association concerning starting regional programs in these two areas. This would involve hiring persons skilled in sign language to assist existing ministries in these areas and to begin new work where needed.

Deaf boys and girls attended camps Caraway and Mundo Vista again this summer, and this department was involved in planning and securing interpreters, as well as working in the camps the weeks deaf youngsters were in attendance.

Small things. Like a cup of cold water given in the name of Christ.

Jerry F. Potter, director

Fruitland Baptist Bible Institute

The Fruitland Story

The “Fruitland Story” in slides and sounds is ready for use by any group needing a program on State Missions. The story follows the life of a typical student and the family. The program takes about twenty minutes. It is available at no cost or obligation. Any group interested in having the “Fruitland Story” should call the school at (704) 658-8886.

Endowment

The last report from the Baptist Foundation is that Fruitland has over one hundred twelve thousand dollars in the FRIENDS OF FRUITLAND FOUNDATION. The goal of one hundred thousand has been exceeded and the fund keeps growing.

Development

The Board of Development Counselors is growing. At this writing, the following persons have been enlisted to serve as development counselors:

156/Baptist State Convention

Allen Bailey, Charlotte
Fred Barnes, Lenoir
Andy Blanton, Forest City
Bruce Bryant, Franklin
David Cosby, Shelby
W. Perry Crouch, Charlotte
Robert Garren, Asheville
Paul Owenby, Brevard
David Payne, Charlotte
James Rogers, Sylva
W. Isaac Terrell, Thomasville

By the time this report is published, others will have enlisted.

Two major concerns remain: the cost of the development program and the problem of encouraging students and alumni to lead churches to emphasize the Cooperative Program and North Carolina Missions Offering while, at the same time, seeking to raise some two hundred thousand dollars in addition to the convention's allocation and student fees.

Deficit

The latest report is that Fruitland Baptist Bible Institute is fifty thousand dollars over-spent in 1984. The development program will cost about sixty thousand dollars during 1984. The administration is working to remedy the situation; but knowledgeable people report that a development program requires more investment than it produces for the first two to five years. Counting what has gone into endowment, the Fruitland development program is doing better than the average.

New Course

Statistics for the operation remain about the same as last year. One new course is being added for the fall quarter. The course will be taught by ten different Directors of Missions in Western North Carolina. The cost of the course is covered by contributions through the associations. This kind of cooperation is the hope of Fruitland's future.

Alex Booth, director

Special Ministries

The Special Ministries Department is responsible for helping churches to become aware of and to provide a ministry with persons with handicapping conditions. The main emphasis of the ministry to date has been with persons who are visually impaired or mentally retarded. Our emphasis has been on a ministry "with" rather than a ministry "to." We work with all persons in helping them to develop to their full potential in experiencing salvation through Christ and service within His church.

Ministry With Blind Persons

The cassette tape materials continue to be a very solid ministry of the department. We mailed an average of 263 copies of each issue of the Biblical Recorder. Sixty-nine visually impaired persons requested the January Bible Study, and 43 persons requested the Home Mission Study book. We expect the requests for this year's Foreign Missions Study Book to be in the forties also.

Mrs. May Waugh continued doing a lot of traveling in her efforts to make personal contacts with Baptist leaders and church members about the ministry with persons who are blind or visually impaired. May made personal contacts with over 30 Directors of Missions. She also led several Sunday worship services, took part in a World Missions Conference, spoke to two blind ministry committees, led three associational blind awareness conferences, and spoke to 10 WMU groups. May conducted the first Retreat/Day Camp for blind/visually impaired persons in Burlington, and worked on plans for several more.

Dr. Logan Carson, a blind professor from Gardner-Webb College, did an evaluation of an extensive braille library left by the late J. H. Waugh. Plans are being made to donate these materials to a college or seminary library where they can be used by blind students.

Ministry With Mentally Retarded Persons

Susan Reed continues to do an outstanding job as field consultant for ministry to persons with mental retardation. She has led in developing the North Carolina ministry to be the best in the SBC!

This year's annual Happiness Retreat celebrated its tenth anniversary by going back to Fort Caswell where it started ten years ago. One hundred and twenty campers plus one hundred workers, teachers, parents and sponsors made it the largest retreat ever. The Truett Happiness Retreat in September also set a record for attendance.

Day camp programs for mentally retarded persons started at Wingate College two years ago. They have now spread to Campbell University and Mars Hill College. Recreation departments, BSU students, Christians service clubs, associational WMU, and our department work together to make these special Saturday events possible.

We promoted Mental Retardation Sunday in March by sending information to churches about how to observe it. We provided 36,000 1984 bulletin inserts and 7,000 old bulletin inserts to churches requesting them.

The second annual Special Ministries Regional Workshop was conducted at First Baptist Church, Wilmington. Gene Nabi of the Sunday School Board taught the teachers, and an attorney, led a discussion about legal matters important to parents of mentally retarded persons.

We worked cooperatively with the Sunday School Department in providing leadership for four ASSIST conferences, four VBS clinics, and three Fall Leadership Conferences.

Susan edited a quarterly newsletter, "Open Doors." Eight hundred copies were mailed each quarter to persons and churches expressing an interest in, and a need for, information about activities, events, teaching materials, etc. available for ministry with mentally retarded persons.

Stewardship

The Division of Stewardship seeks to plan, develop, and promote a plan of biblical stewardship to aid the churches in enlisting members in the practice of and growth in Christian stewardship.

This plan of biblical stewardship includes the individual Christian's response in terms of giving, life style, and money management. It also includes the local church and its stewardship responsibilities.

Biblical stewardship also includes the support of missions through the Cooperative Program.

The Division's goal for 1984 is to fulfill this purpose and help churches and individuals to reach Bold Missions giving goals.

The Division staff seeks to achieve its goals through the following programs:

Missionary-in-Residence

The missionary-in-residence program continues to utilize a furloughing missionary couple to interpret mission support needs to the churches. Max and Joan Furr, missionaries to Peru served from August 1983-August 1984. James and Maxie Kirk are serving from August 1984-August 1985.

Bold Missions Stewardship Conferences

The primary thrust of reaching Bold Missions giving goals has been in meetings with pastors and church leaders in each association. The purpose of the meetings is a presentation and discussion of the stewardship program materials in the "Give Boldly" packet developed by the Division. Conferences were held for 69 associations with more than 730 pastors and representatives from approximately 860 churches attending.

Cooperative Program Promotion

Materials have been prepared and distributed to aid churches in emphasizing missions support through the Cooperative Program. Special emphasis was given to Cooperative Program Day in April. Reports were made to the churches on missions support through the Cooperative Program two times during the year.

The Great Challenge

The Division sponsored and provided a consultant to lead Great Challenge Stewardship Programs in approximately 30 churches. The Great Challenge is a stewardship program designed especially for smaller churches. Two hundred and ninety-five churches have expressed interest in having the program next year.

Special Seminars

Nineteen participants attended a three day Stewardship Seminar in August. The program included a biblical-theological study of stewardship and an overview of stewardship programs. William Clemmons, professor, Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary, presented a study entitled Giving: Transcendent Foundations. Ernest Standerfer of the SBC Stewardship Commission led sessions on Stewardship in Action. Participants are asked to be available to assist churches with stewardship programs.

A Family Financial Planning Workshop involved 10 couples in a process of clarifying Christian commitments, financial goal setting, assessment of resources and the development of a family spending/saving/giving plan. Lee Davis guided the study of his new book, In Charge: Managing Money for Christian Living. Each couple is asked to plan and lead a church or associational Family Financial Planning Workshop within the next year.

Church/Association Staff Support

Based on new information and data church/association staff support recommendations were published in a booklet entitled The Reapers Should Receive Good Wages. The booklet was sent to church and associational leaders as well as church and association staff.

O. D. Martin, Jr., director

Youth And Campus Ministries

During this year a major emphasis has been upon preparing ourselves as staff persons to help others minister more effectively with college students and youth. Evidence of this will be found in the reports of others in the division.

Staff Development

Continuing education for staff during the year has given emphasis to work with volunteers led by Frank Cofer, Baptist Campus Minister in Chicago, in evangelism (Delos Miles of Southeastern Seminary as resource person) and in development of the spiritual life (Bill Clemmons of Southeastern Seminary, guide.) The group of some 25 men and women spent three days in January and again in May with these and other resource leaders and in planning for our future work.

Staff Assignment Changes

Joe Clontz, for a number of years campus minister at UNC-CH alongside Bob Phillips, has begun new work in the central area of the state as resource person for church workers with college students and volunteers who work with students on a number of college campuses. Joe David Fore is on study leave this fall but will begin next spring to serve in the western area in a similar capacity.

Two very talented individuals, Wanda Hardee Kidd and Sheree Jones Smith, are serving as interim campus ministers for the school year 1984-85. Wanda replaces Fore at Western Carolina for these months and Sheree serves at UNC-Greensboro while Geneva Metzger is learning to work with internationals and from a church base in Tokyo, Japan.

Local Programming With Students

Family Groups

While the Division's work in the area of youth is primarily with leadership who, in turn, serve in local church ministries, the assignment given us by the Convention for campus ministry includes the projection of programs with college young people on campuses all across the state. We are your "ambassadors" on nine large non-Baptist campuses; two of our number are employed jointly by Baptists and others to serve at NC Central and UNC-Wilmington; the Division's budget pays approximately half of the salaries of the chaplains on our seven Baptist campuses. Some dimensions of ministry projected in your name in these locations are summarized below.

In encouraging students to reach out and care for others on campus and to find ways of witnessing to them, Family Groups have been developed in several BSUs. At Appalachian, for example, some 300 students were involved in 20 "families." "Care Groups" in a city like Charlotte are an effective means of support and outreach.

Outreach to Students

Outreach to Students is accomplished through dormitory visitation and in-dorm Bible study groups. Over 350 new students at UNC-CH received visits last fall, for example. Personal letters from BSUs to incoming freshmen who identify themselves as Baptists and joint mailings from campus ministry and local churches acquaint newcomers with opportunities for growth and fellowship in the campus community.

Outreach Teams

Outreach teams ministering in local churches are a part of the program on each campus. The UNC-Chapel Hill choir sang at the Baptist State Convention last year and has produced a record, "Joyfully His." Music teams, clown teams, puppet teams and youth revival teams are preparing on campuses all over the state and seeking places of service. The church which invites a team from any BSU gives the students a chance to grow as Christian leaders and provides for their own members a fine worship and nurturing opportunity. Often we are able to respond to specific needs as did eight BSUers from Duke University who taught Sunday School with Chinese youth gathered in Durham's Cresset Church.

Local Churches

Local Churches cooperate in many ways with campus ministers in providing well-rounded and balanced ministry with students. Special events such as concerts or drama are cooperatively sponsored by Raleigh churches and the ministers at NCSU and Meredith College, for example.

In Charlotte, Pembroke and other locations WMU groups prepare and serve lunches for students, thus providing the opportunity for programming and fellowship. In some cases the meal is paid for by the churches and money taken up on campus is earmarked for missions.

Local Missions Projects

In addition to more than $40,000 raised by students for the predominantly summertime state cooperative missions programs, most campuses involve students in service and missions outreach during the school year. Thirteen persons from Charlotte spent spring break in Chicago, for example; from ASU, students were involved in missions projects in Florida and Washington. Pembroke students served in Florida during spring break. Students at Wake Forest and Campbell Universities raised money for Tornado relief; special projects through the Home Mission board were supported by Chowan and Wake Forest. Involvement of students on a weekly basis in soup kitchens, coordinating of services in prisons, hospitals and nursing homes, or ministries with retarded and orphans are parts of the local programming. Almost a hundred students from Meredith, for example, are involved in one of the five continuing projects in Raleigh.

Worship

Opportunities provided for worship vary with the schedules of students on various campuses. "Pause," a Thursday night sharing service at WCU involves a large number of BSUers. At NCSU the group gathers on Monday evenings. Friday evening is the time at Duke. Special services at Christmas, Thanksgiving and Easter are highlights of the school year. Several of the Baptist campuses have weekly gatherings. Voluntary worship at Wake Forest and Meredith, for example, are well attended. Chowan and Campbell alternate worship with other emphasis in all-student sessions weekly.

Evangelism Training

Evangelism training is most often "combed out" locally through the use of the Sunday School Board-produced "Share Seminar." NCSU, ASU, UNC-G and ECU, for example, used these training materials last fall. East Carolina and NCSU, in addition, gave emphasis to evangelism in the BSU fall retreat. This concern becomes a part of on-going Bible studies.

Leadership Training

Leadership training is a major concern of campus ministry as Baptists project it in North Carolina. Individual sessions of campus ministers with the officers and committees at work all during the year are important. From involvement of "experts" in special sessions to on-the-job training, we attempt to develop BSUers into capable church persons. Almost 25 WCU students, for example, were trained and served as leaders for the Associational Youth Retreat which served about 100 junior and senior highs from the Tuckaseegee Association.

Bible Study

Bible study seems, this year, to be the major concern of many students. Often led by local ministers in a BSU Center or office some of these attract serious students for intensive weekly searching and personal application. In addition, there are often dormitory groups and student-led groups in many places around campus where students share insight from Scripture and spend time together in prayer.

The Pressing Needs

The pressing needs which we see and are addressing are several: the necessary trauma/growth of separation from home; vocational choices made in light of personal gifts, world needs and God's wisdom; understanding and opening oneself to the Bible; developing wisdom and concern for sharing of Christian witness; development of a lifestyle appropriate for relatively rich Christians; help in dating concerns; and guidance and encouragement in development of a balance of feeling and commitment in one's faith.

We count on your prayerful support as we attempt to bring students to know and live under the Lordship of Christ on North Carolina campuses and in their communities.

State Level Programs

In addition to the local programming done by your ministers on campuses from Cullowhee to Murfreesboro, we attempt to provide a supplementary state-level program. This involves missions emphases, special focus on commuter students, evangelism training and church ministry opportunities through Youth Corps/Local Church Ministry. These are detailed elsewhere.

Three conferences, promoted state-wide and planned by staff, church staff workers and students are important to our attempt at balanced programming. The Baptist Student Convention, scheduled in late September, is involved in worship, celebration, study and Christian fellowship. Leaders for the plenary sessions in 1984 were David Mace, emphasizing the family, David Forbes, who led us in consideration of Christian Community, and Stan Nelson, who helped us focus on God's family and our responsibility for witness and service. Darrell Adams led in the music; UNC-Chapel Hill BSU provided two dramas; the Southern Seminary Singers presented a musical; and leaders from all across the state led in intensive seminars within the theme "All in The Family."

Each spring we provide a Leadership Training event and opportunity for graduating seniors to "get ready" for entry into the "real world." At Spring Conference the students take over Caraway and spend a weekend in study of Biblical models of leadership, emphases on specific planning and encouragement toward personal development of ourselves as Christian leaders and church persons.

State Officers' Workshop held just after the opening of school, involves 60-80 key leaders from all campuses in the final planning of all aspects of the State-level programs. Here, divided into committees whose tasks are Spring Conference planning, Evangelism, projection of Special Projects, work with Internationals, Fall Convention planning and Missions, students and adult advisors dream and plan and prepare for the new year in BSU.

Ministry With Others On Campus

Because many of your campus ministers have served for some years in one location and because they are committed both to the church and higher education, there are many opportunities for ministry with faculty members, residence hall advisors, administrators and others in the locations where they serve.

Some have opportunity for regular conferences with chief administrators, many serve as advisors to the Deans of Student Affairs, a number work in orientation of and provide resources for dorm advisors. All know and attempt to work alongside of the university counselors, from whom we accept referrals of students and others who need the support and concern of a spiritual mentor.

North Carolina Baptists have developed a vision of Christian ministry with all students and in all educational institutions within the state. May God continue to use our witness and service to these, His children. We are thankful for your support and your prayer.

Professional Development And Youth Ministry Coordination

Youth Ministry is coming of age among North Carolina Baptist churches. There are 495 ministers of youth serving our churches in a full-time staff position and 434 ministers of youth serving on a part-time or volunteer basis. These 929 ministers often find that leading a church to develop a healthy concept of youth ministry is a major challenge of their ministry. A major task of the Department of Professional Development and Youth Ministry Coordination is to present a balanced philosophy of youth ministry to these youth ministers and their churches.

Youth ministry in a local church is more than Sunday night fellowships, recreation, and an occasional out-of-town trip. It is, rather, the coordination of church programming, designed to help staff, volunteers, and parents guide youth in maturing Christian growth. The church's youth ministry (Sunday School, Church Training, Youth Choir, Acteens, Pioneer RAs, Church Recreation, Worship, and Counseling) must grow out of the needs of youth and should include them in planning and program implementation.

To assist the local church the Division of Youth and Campus Ministries provides a strong youth ministry network for instruction and support.

Professional Development

To assist the youth ministers' and campus ministers' growth in their ministry, programs and materials have been provided: Youth Ministers' Workshop - More than 60 professional youth ministers gathered at Beech Mountain, February 13-16 to participate in a conference designed to (1) enlarge the areas of expertise of church staff members in Youth education; (2) provide a spiritual climate where personal growth could produce commitment to God and loyalty to His church; (3) provide a retreat where the fellowship of kindred minds could be affirming and regenerative. Campus Ministry Development Seminar was held at Southeastern Seminary May 14-17 with 18 North Carolina campus ministers participating. The design of the conference was to assist the campus ministers in their spiritual development, theological growth, and program emphasis with students.

Associational and Local Youth Ministry

To assist the local church and association to grow in their effectiveness, Youth Ministry Conferences have been held in eleven associations with emphasis being given to the development of a sound philosophy of youth ministry. Associational youth ministry coordinators have been enlisted in 61 of our 80 associations and were provided training in associational youth ministry at the Key Leadership Conference.

Two Youth Council Retreats helped 47 church youth councils with more than 300 youth and their sponsors to become Christian leaders. The retreats focused on the work and function of the youth council, new and proven ideas for youth ministry, and guidance on how to motivate youth.

A Christian Drama Conference provided entertainment and growth for approximately 150 youth and adults at Knollwood Church, Winston-Salem, October 5-6. "Curtain Call" emphasized the "how to's" of Christian drama in the local church.

Youth Conferences I, II, III, IV

Four weeks during the summer more than 4,000 youth congregated at Caswell to "Run In The SON". These words of a 16 year old boy express the feelings of many who participated in the Youth Conferences this summer. "My stay at Caswell was an experience of a lifetime. I think the best part of all was that I found Jesus...Since I left your camp my whole attitude and outlook on life has completely changed. I get more satisfaction out of doing for others than I do when others do for me...I came to Caswell a disillusioned and confused boy, I left a loving, caring, and confident man. That one week has given me what I've been looking for my whole life. I have found a direction in my life and especially a purpose."

"Run In The SON", the theme based on Hebrews 11, was enhanced by materials prepared by Tommy Capps, Steve Cromer, Ka'thy Gore, Ann Johnson, Ginny Phillips, and Richard Vinson into four weeks that changed lives. During the four weeks 522 decisions were made, with 72 first time professions of faith, and 450 rededications. We celebrate in the victories during the hot summer days on the North Carolina coast.

Missions And Organizational Development

As the name would imply, a major emphasis of this area of work is that of missions. Mission education and opportunities for student involvement in missions are provided throughout the school year. However, the most concentrated time for student mission involvement is in the summer.

More than 250 students are involved in some type of summer ministry program sponsored through the Baptist State Convention. Baptist Student Union raised mission money is used to fund a number of these positions.

During the 1984 school year, students in BSUs across the state pledged and gave more than $40,000 for student missions. Some of this money helped fund the International ministry in Charlotte and Mountain Outreach ministry in Williamsburg, KY. Within the state, student raised money assisted students who worked in local churches, supplemented an inner-city ministry in Charlotte, and helped fund a resort/youth ministry team in Boone. This money also assisted eleven BSUs in their Spring Break Mission Projects. In addition, the student money made it possible for 19 students to serve in ministry positions in North Carolina as well as in other states and countries.

These students worked in some difficult situations, but all of them experienced growth in their own lives as they made significant contributions to the area in which they worked. In North Carolina, students worked in Children's Homes, in a juvenile center, and with senior adults in the Pee Dee Association. Six students worked outside the state in inner-city and general missions in Massachusetts, New York, Pennsylvania, Iowa, New Orleans and Phoenix.

Ten students had the opportunity to serve outside the US. In an on-going project with Togo, West Africa, Lizzy Mills and Lynn Stott spent a semester each working with missionaries in this French-speaking country. Eight students worked with European Baptist Churches as a part of the North Carolina partnership with the European Convention.

These students had an impact on the people with whom they worked. Likewise the summer had an impact upon the students. At least one of the students has made a commitment to career missions; others have been sensitized to the needs around them and are finding ways to respond to these needs.

Volunteer BSU Directors

Even though there are 18 fulltime Baptist Campus Ministers in North Carolina, Baptists are dependent upon a number of persons who serve as volunteer BSU directors. Were it not for these persons Baptists would have no presence or witness on many of the campuses in our state.

Persons serving as volunteer directors include: Bill Edwards and Lynn Horne at Atlantic Christian; Barbara Smart at Brevard; Robin Davidson and Susan Bennett at Elon; Frank Smith and David Clemens at High Point; Marsha Fanning at Lenoir Rhyne; Lorelle Martin and

These volunteers meet regularly with BSUs on their respective campuses. The groups average between 10 and 40 at regular meetings. In addition, these BSU groups are involved in ministry outreach projects. The schools also participated in a joint retreat in January. The volunteer leaders participated in a leadership workshop in September at Ridgecrest.

Church Workers with College Students

The campus ministry personnel works closely with persons in local churches responsible for ministry with college students. The partnership is valid because of the vast number of college students who commute or are at home on the weekends.

One of the ways in which the staff of Youth and Campus Ministries has assisted these in local churches has been through the provision of resources and training opportunities. Training sessions were held at Caraway in July and at Ridgecrest in September for these church workers.

Orientation for High School Seniors

The Division of Youth and Campus Ministries also works closely with local churches in providing orientation for the high school graduates going on to college. Division personnel are available to assist local churches and associations as they prepare students for college. Teams from local BSUs also help in this way. A major statewide event which focuses on this orientation is the High School Seniors Retreat. More than 100 seniors attended this event at Caraway in February.

Church And Campus Program Development

A significant and major portion of ministry with college students is our encouragement in their participation in church. Though much of our work involves the church's witness on the campus on behalf of Baptists in North Carolina, our hope and efforts lie, as well, in relating students to the local churches.

Baptist Youth Corps/Local Church Ministry

An exciting program designed to involve college students in the life and ministry of the church is the Baptist Youth Corps/Local Church Ministry. Forty-three students from the seven Baptist colleges participated in the Baptist Youth Corps, and 15 students from other North Carolina colleges and universities were involved in the Local Church Ministry. These 58 energetic and committed students served churches across North Carolina for ten weeks in the summer, assisting in youth, children's and music ministries. The purposes of the seventeen-year-old program are to develop young adults for a church-related occupation or for significant lay leadership; to assist the local church in strengthening its ministries; and to promote interest in our seven Baptist colleges and the Baptist Student Unions on non-Baptist campuses.

Commuter Student Ministries

North Carolina has 117 colleges and universities, half of which are community and technical colleges. Of the approximate 280,000 students attending schools about half are commuting each day from home. Though our ministry has over the years been one directed primarily to residential colleges, we are much more aware now of this major shift of commuting in student patterns. Consequently our efforts to reach and minister to these students has meant shaping some new directions. Presently, associate pastors, youth ministers, pastors, and other lay persons are carrying the on-campus ministry in a volunteer-directed arrangement, in cooperation with this office. In some cases the shape of the ministry focuses on before class prayer and Bible study breakfasts; sometimes luncheon meetings provide a chance for fellowship and inspiration. What we have discovered is that ministry in these settings often is "ministry on the run," for commuting students leave campus as soon as classes are over, usually traveling home or to jobs. In other words, a "captive audience" of students, able to come back for afternoon or evening meetings, is often both impractical and impossible.

In addition to on-campus ministries, we are seeking ever-effective ways to assist Sunday School teachers and church leaders in their ministry to the students, who most often have grown up in their "college church." Workshops, seminars and personal consultations are employed to give tools, strategies and methods to these workers.

New ministries continue to develop, and established work continues to grow among several North Carolina community and technical colleges. Presently, Sandhills, Central Piedmont, Wilkes, Caldwell, Davidson County, and Coastal Carolina community colleges have functioning student ministries.

Partners in Ministry

The Baptist State Convention places ministers on college campuses to serve students and the campuses in Christ's name. Funds are provided for salaries and facilities, but support for programs has suffered a serious decline. With a staff that is able and willing to attempt even more effective ministry, and, with the campuses open to the gospel in a new way during the last few years, funds are needed in addition to those available from the regular Convention budget. Three years ago the General Board of the Convention authorized a planned giving emphasis, called "Partners in Ministry," to raise endowment for programs only through the Baptist Foundation to support and supplement these programs.

Each state campus where there is a full-time Baptist campus minister has begun or is organizing a local council of "Partners in Ministry," for the purpose of planning and projecting fund raising activities in its locale and among respective BSU alumni. Active councils exist now at Appalachian State, UNC-Chapel Hill, UNC-Greensboro, Western Carolina, and are being organized at NCSU, UNC-Charlotte, East Carolina and Pembroke State. Contributions and gifts, mostly from alumni, total through mid-year more than $40,000. Already, some of the interest accrued has been used to begin a ministry to students at Fayetteville State University.

Student Evangelism

Alongside Bible study, worship, missions and fellowship, a continuing emphasis on bearing witness to their Christian faith is vital to students in North Carolina. SHARE Seminars, book studies, and other training sessions are provided and implemented on individual campuses. Under the direction and planning of a very active state Student Evangelism Committee, "hands-on" ideas for campus witness training and sharing are offered; in addition resources of people, strategies and events that can be of assistance in such programs as Evangelife, Share Seminars and Lay Evangelism are provided. The Committee also seeks to find ways to encourage and educate students and campus ministers regarding campus evangelism.

Christian Higher Education

Council Membership

The Council on Christian Higher Education is 40 years of age. During the years 1942-1944, the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina studied their colleges and evaluated their commitment to Christian higher education. The result was the formation of the Council on Christian Higher Education. Unique within the larger Baptist college family of 52 schools, the Council unites those who lead the colleges and those who lead the denomination. Educational quality, harmony and cooperation are chief among the Council's concerns.

The Council membership is made up of the following persons: presidents, academic deans and chairmen of boards of trustees of the colleges/universities; and the General Board's Committee on Christian Higher Education. Ex officio members of the Council are the general secretary-treasurer, Baptist State Convention; James I. Murphy, president, General Board, Baptist State Convention; Norman A. Wiggins, president, Baptist State Convention; Mrs. Horace McRae, president, North Carolina Baptist Woman's Missionary Union; and T. Robert Mullinax, executive secretary, Council on Christian Higher Education.

Enrollment

The total enrollment (head count) of the colleges is 16,690. For comparative purposes, it is more accurate to list "full time equivalent" figures, based upon a 12 semester-hour class load. The following full time equivalent enrollments were furnished by the college registrars for the fall of 1984.

Campbell University	3,138
Chowan College	899
Gardner-Webb College	1,665
Mars Hill College	1,239
Meredith College	1,550
Wake Forest University	4,788
Wingate College	1,435
Total	14,714

New Council President

James E. Langford, Ahoskie, was elected Council president in January. He has given of himself generously in his new leadership role. In addition to monthly meetings of the General Board's Executive Committee, he visited all seven colleges and conferred with college leadership between May and September. President Langford's concerns for the colleges are reflected in the appointment of three committees: Advisory Committee on Baptist Student Recruitment; Wingate College Change of Status Committee; and a Committee on College Relations.

Bentley, Wiggins Head SACS, Convention

Mars Hill College President Fred B. Bentley has been elected president of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools, the regional accrediting association for North Carolina Baptist colleges. For the previous two years, Bentley served as chairman of the association's Commission on Colleges.

In November, 1983, Campbell University President Norman A. Wiggins was elected president of the Baptist State Convention. Among the important responsibilities of that post are: presiding over the Convention's annual sessions; appointment of significant committees, in cooperation with the vice presidents; and serving as an ex officio voting member of the General Board and the Executive Committee, and of all Convention committees.

The Council commends presidents Bentley and Wiggins, recognizing that in their larger service roles they also serve the best interests of Christian higher education in North Carolina.

Wingate Vice President Joins Council

Paul W. Beasley, named Vice President of Academic Affairs and Dean at Wingate College in 1983 comes to Wingate and Council membership from Oklahoma Baptist University, where he was dean of the College of Arts and Sciences. He succeeds O. Suthern Sims, who is now president of Tift College in Forsyth, Georgia.

Wake Forest Sesquicentennial

During 1983-84, Wake Forest University has celebrated significantly and often her 150 years of history. Climaxing the events, a beautiful and imaginative "Sound and Light Show" retold in vivid imagery the Wake Forest story. Included in the drama was the account of the founding of the Baptist State Convention, motivated by the desire of Samuel Wait, Thomas Meredith and others to establish a Baptist school.

The Council on Christian Higher Education is pleased to acknowledge the significance of the historical ties and the present relationship with Wake Forest University. We congratulate them upon the first 150 years.

Council Office Changes

For 27 years, 1957-1984, Grace Yow served as office secretary and administrative assistant in the office of the Council on Christian Higher Education. Her previous vocational service was secretary to the president of Wingate College, and office secretary in the Convention's Sunday School Department. Miss Yow filled a valuable role of continuous and faithful service, linking the terms of Council executives Claude F. Gaddy, Harold Cole, Ben C. Fisher and T. Robert Mullinax.

On September 1, 1984, Barbara H. Chason succeeded Grace Yow as administrative assistant. A native of Statesville, North Carolina, Mrs. Chason is a graduate of Mars Hill College. She comes to the Council office from the division secretary's position with the Division of Church Programs of the General Board. Her previous work experience includes eight years as educational secretary and financial secretary of Raleigh's Tabernacle Church. We welcome Mrs. Chason to her new position.

North Carolina Leaders in Christian Education

Among the 52 colleges related to state conventions, the seven North Carolina Baptist schools emerge as acknowledged leaders in their collective contributions to Christian education and Christian missions. It is necessary, if the mission of the denomination is to be whole and complete, for Baptists to be involved in the field of enlightenment and scholarship. For a cumulative total of 771 years, North Carolina Baptists have supported Christian education. Such moral and financial support continues today, giving health to the missions of Campbell, Chowan, Gardner-Webb, Mars Hill, Meredith, Wake Forest and Wingate.

T. Robert Mullinax, executive secretary

Campbell University

Campbell University began its ninety-ninth academic year on August 22, enrolling the second-year centennial class. As the university works and looks forward to the Centennial Year, it continues to be mindful of the miracles God has wrought on this campus and commits itself to strive harder to become an even greater instrument of service.

The year opened officially with Faculty Orientation, held on August 16-17. The theme for this year's program was "Academic Planning and Evaluation." Peter Ewell, Senior Staff Associate, National Center for Higher Education Management Systems, was the principal speaker at orientation. Also, speaking during the program were S. Bruce Petteway, president, North Carolina Wesleyan College, and Malbert Smith, pastor, Grey Stone Church, Durham. More than 175 faculty and staff members participated in the two-day program.

Opening Convocation was held on August 28, with Arthur Walker, executive director, Education Commission, Southern Baptist Convention, as the guest speaker.

The University continues to enlarge its area of service. Campbell now has campuses located in Buies Creek, Fayetteville, Raleigh, Sanford, Rocky Mount, Fort Bragg Military Reservation; Cardiff, Wales; and Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia. In May, the University launched graduate programs at Seymour Johnson Air Base in Goldsboro.

In the past, and again this year, Campbell has operated and maintained a balanced budget. The overall enrollment during 1983-1984 exceeded 5,000, with all one hundred counties, all 50 states and 48 foreign countries represented in the student body.

Walter S. Barge, a former tenured professor of the West Point Military Academy and Division Director of the Social Science Division, was appointed Acting Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences beginning with the fall semester.

The Campbell University School of Law enjoyed another outstanding year. This spring's graduating class numbered 103. At the time of this report, recent information received would indicate that the law school has enjoyed another banner year in the number of graduates passing the North Carolina Bar Examination and the Bar Examination of other states. Although there has been a downturn in the number of applications for admission to law schools across the nation, the freshman class entering in August was one of the largest in the history of the school with 107 students being enrolled.

In January, Campbell launched the Lundy-Fetterman School of Business. Those familiar with the history of the university will recall that Campbell was one of the first educational institutions in North Carolina to teach business subjects. The programs in business were developed by Professors I. M. Wallace, B. W. Jenkins and James Faison, all now deceased, and Professor Thomas Harold Folwell, who was named Acting Dean of the new school. Under Professor Folwell's outstanding direction, the Lundy-Fetterman School of Business is now serving one of the largest number of students of any private college or university within the region.

Campbell is now in the sixth year of its Campbell Century Fund Campaign. The initial phase of the campaign which had as its objective the raising of 25 million dollars was completed during the year, and a second phase of the campaign was launched, which has as its goal the raising of 15 million dollars by January 5, 1987. Significant progress has been made toward reaching the latter goal.

During the past fiscal year, Campbell raised in cash and pledges $6,014,896.99. The third annual Alumni Phonathon was a major contributor to the advancement effort. More than 9,000 alumni were contacted over a period of four weeks, and a total of $171,000.00 was raised.

Campbell held two commencements during the past year. On May 7, The Honorable David Funderburk, Ambassador to Romania, addressed 620 graduates of Campbell University during the Spring Commencement. Charles Fuller, pastor, First Church, Roanoke, Virginia, gave the commencement sermon on May 6. Campbell awarded three honorary doctorates at Spring Commencement: Fuller received the honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity; John W. Merritt, Southern Baptist Convention missionary to Germany, was awarded the Doctor of Divinity Degree, and David B. Funderburk, United States Ambassador to Romania, was awarded the degree of Doctor of Laws. Howard Q. Ferguson of Randleman and Jeffrey Bannister, outstanding ROTC cadet, were recipients of the Algernon Sydney Sullivan Award.

Summer Commencement was held on July 21 with 180 graduates receiving degrees. Grover A. Smith, president, Ravenscroft School, Raleigh, gave the address. This commencement was significant for Campbell since it is the last scheduled summer commencement.

Campbell University was saddened by the loss of several friends, former employees and benefactors during the past year. Alvin Paul Kitchen, long time friend and trustee, died October 23, 1983. Mrs. Leroy Townsend, benefactor and wife of our former trustee, died April 22, 1984; Mrs. Taylor Bott Rogers, distinguished member of the Presidential Board of Advisors, for whom the new Taylor Bott Rogers Fine Arts Center was named, died on March 18, 1984. Her daughter, Mrs. Frances Rogers Coates, wife of Mr. James R. Coates, died on June 27, 1984. Pauline Cammack, wife of trustee Ramsey E. Cammack, died on March 14, 1984. Mr. Gordon B. Rowland, attorney at law, long time friend and benefactor, died on November 2, 1983. Mrs. A. P. Stevens, wife of the Reverend A. P. Stevens, both alumni and benefactors, died on August 4, 1984. Little Bouldin, former Dean of Women, died on April 11, 1984. Leonore Dorsey Kilby, former Dean of Women, died on September 5, 1984. Fred Hale, alumnus and benefactor, died on June 8, 1984.

At the close of the fiscal year ending May 31, 1983, the Vice President for Business reported that Campbell University's Capital Plant liabilities were as follows:

Campbell University has a net plant indebtedness of $5,282,281.52; the major portion of this indebtedness is in the form of residence hall bond notes, and carries an interest rate of two and one-half to three percent. The minor portion of the indebtedness, which is non-liquidating, carries an interest rate of seven and one-half to eleven percent. The present indebtedness, both self-liquidating and otherwise, constitutes no threat to the sound fiscal operation of Campbell University.

Chowan College

Chowan College began her 137th academic year on Thursday evening, August 16, 1984, with the traditional President's Banquet—prelude to a two-day faculty/staff workshop. Keynote speaker for the President's Banquet was R. Kirby Godsey, president, Mercer University, Macon, Georgia. The faculty/staff workshop focused upon a review of policies and procedures relative to the inauguration of the new academic year, and upon discussion of the role of the institution as a two-year, church-related college. Final registration totals for the Fall Semester indicated an enrollment of 911, as follows: sophomores and other returning students, 300; freshmen and transfer students, 593; special students (those enrolled for less than 12 credit hours and/or on an "audit" basis), 17; medical secretarial interns, 1. The full-time equivalency enrollment totaled 899.

The academic year 1983-1984 was concluded with Commencement Exercises on Sunday, May 13, at the conclusion of which degrees and diplomas were awarded to 182 candidates for graduation. The Baccalaureate Sermon for the occasion was preached by the Reverend James E. Langford, pastor, First Church, Ahoskie; and president, Council on Christian Higher Education, Baptist State Convention of North Carolina. The annual Commencement address was delivered by Roy J. Smith, acting general secretary-treasurer, Baptist State Convention of North Carolina. The preceding year witnessed significant events—both curricular and co-curricular—in the life of the college and her role as a church-related institution.

Reports and recommendations from two study committees highlighted institutional evaluation and planning for the immediate future. The first of these—an ad hoc Committee on Student Retention—addressed the issues related to retaining a larger percentage of initial college matriculants for the completion of an associate degree program. Given the national projections of dwindling numbers of high school graduates into the decade of the 1990s, retention of entering freshmen is viewed as a major key towards maintaining a stable and viable enrollment. A series of suggestions and recommendations for implementation by the college issued from the year-long study of this committee.

The broader question of the future educational role of Chowan

College was addressed by a Feasibility Study Committee, authorized by the Board of Trustees on September 12, 1983. Specifically, this committee was charged with the task of studying the feasibility of a move to four-year status, and of reporting its findings related thereto to the Board of Trustees for whatever action that governing body deemed wise and appropriate. After some seven months of intensive study, research and evaluation—utilizing the projected new Criteria for Accreditation, Southern Association of Colleges and Schools, as an organizational tool around which to structure its work—this committee submitted its report to the Board of Trustees in March, 1984. The decision to retain two-year status, rather than attempt a move to senior college status, was made by the Board of Trustees in a special called meeting on April 16, 1984, after a full and frank discussion of the issues which had surfaced through the work of the Feasibility Study Committee. Subsequently, this decision received the unanimous endorsement of both the Board of Trustees and the Board of Advisors of the College. The action included a decision further to strengthen Chowan as the Convention's only two-year college.

Dedication of three campus structures—plus the renovation of two additional ones—characterized the institution's continued attempt towards providing adequate instructional facilities, while honoring particular individuals for meritorious support of the college in her educational mission. Horner Graphic Communications Center was dedicated "To the Glory of God in Honor of William Edwin Horner, Sr.," Sanford, North Carolina, publisher, on May 19, 1984, in ceremonies scheduled to coincide with the annual meeting of the Eastern North Carolina Press Association. Turner Auditorium—located in historic McDowell Columns building, and thoroughly renovated in 1974-75—and Simons Hall—a men's dormitory which was erected in 1960, and formerly known as East Hall—were dedicated in conjunction with the annual Founder's Day observance on October 10, 1983. The former had been named to honor and memorialize the late J. Clyde Turner, longtime pastor of First Church, Greensboro, and a genuine friend to Christian higher education. The latter had been so named to memorialize Bettie Valentine Simons, mother of, and to honor Melton Ernest Valentine, Jr., cousin of, the late Walter LeRoy "Roy" Simons, a trustee of Chowan College (1972-1977).

Renovation of McSweeney Hall, which formerly housed the Department of Graphic Communications, to serve as a computer center proceeded apace during 1983-1984, with this facility ready for occupancy with the opening of the current academic year. Expansion of facilities for the housing of computer resources/services has enabled the college to complete plans for and proceed with the inauguration of a new associate degree program in Business Administration (Computer Information Systems), beginning with the Fall Semester, 1984. Refurbishing of Green Hall, to include an additional wing to this facility which houses the Department of Art, was begun in the summer of 1984. Completion date for this project—made possible by a gift from the estate of the late David Henry Cooper—is scheduled for Spring Semester, 1985.

In addition to the recognition Chowan College already enjoyed as one of the top private, two-year colleges in the country, academically, 1983-84 brought further recognition to the institution through the play of the men's varsity basketball team. This team participated in the National Junior College Basketball Tournament in Hutchinson, Kansas, finishing 4th in the nation among junior college basketball powers. The decision to remain a two-year institution, as noted above, carries with it the determination to maintain and to strengthen all aspects of the collegiate experience at Chowan—curricular and co-curricular—in the belief that quality in each enhances the quality of all.

Current net indebtedness of the Physical Plant is $1,337,358. It should be noted, however, that the greater portion of this debt is secured through income-producing residence halls and a college cafeteria. Moreover, debt retirement on all low interest, long term loans by which certain campus facilities have been constructed is on—or ahead of—the required payment schedule.

Cooperative ministries or programs were conducted, jointly, during 1983-84 with various division/departments of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina. Among those divisions/departments who assisted with this sponsorship of programs or emphases were the Council on Christian Higher Education; Youth and Campus Ministries (BSU and related ministries); Church Programs (January Bible Study Institute); Missions (Royal Ambassador emphasis, Baptist Resource Center); Evangelism (Youth Evangelism Crusades); and Cooperative Ministries. The geographical location of the college, together with her facilities for the accommodation of both large and small gatherings, makes the campus an admirable setting for seminar/conferences/rallies designed to serve the interests and needs of church constituencies in the eastern Piedmont and Coastal Plains regions of the State.

Finally, both the college community and the general cause of Christian higher education have suffered the loss of particularly devoted friends and supporters during the course of the past year, as follows: Joseph Clarence Leary, Sr., late of Edenton, North Carolina, trustee (1954-57, 1960-63), who died on September 18, 1983; James Lee Darden, Sr., late of Union, North Carolina, trustee (1951-53, 1960-62, 1964-67, 1969-72, 1974-77), who died on November 5, 1983; the Reverend Richard Norman Carroll, former pastor of Edenton Church (1946-1970) and trustee of Chowan College (1948-51), who died on December 9, 1983; and John Milton Elliott, Jr., late of Edenton, North Carolina, trustee (1944-47), who died on December 19, 1983.

Gardner-Webb College

Entering its 79th year, Gardner-Webb College continues its commitment to providing liberal arts educational opportunities under distinctive Christian influences.

Gardner-Webb marked the beginning of the 1984 academic year with its seventh consecutive enrollment increase. A total of 1,902 students enrolled this fall, a record high for the college.

This fall Gardner-Webb students can select courses leading to a degree in three new academic programs: a bachelor's degree in communications, an associate's degree in interpreter training, or a bachelor's degree in either physical education or religion with a concentration in church recreation.

Practical experience will be an integral part of the communications studies program, as students who are interested in broadcasting will work at the college's 5000-watt FM radio station and those concentrating in print journalism will work with the college-owned community newspaper, The Foothills View.

Gardner-Webb's interpreter training program was initiated in the spring of 1983 with a grant from the Kate B. Reynolds Health Care Trust. The program was expanded in the fall of 1984 by offering a variety of courses such as Advanced American Sign Language and the Psycho-social Aspects of Deafness, providing students with a combination of theory and practical experience.

In addition to establishing an interpreter training program, the college's enrollment of deaf students increased 100 percent in 1984. Gardner-Webb enrolled 30 deaf and hearing impaired students in the fall of 1984 compared to 15 the previous semester.

With the special support services provided by the college, such as interpreters and tutors, deaf students can participate in a wide variety of academic programs and extracurricular activities.

Like the college's program for the deaf, Gardner-Webb's program for the blind and visually impaired is the only program offered by a Baptist college that provides full support services to the blind.

In addition to making physical modifications to its campus such as labeling doors with Braille and large print, Gardner-Webb is also meeting the mobility needs of blind students by providing an orientation and mobility specialist from the N.C. Division of Services for the Blind. Specialized equipment, such as Braille writers and talking computers have also been purchased for use by blind students.

Essential to the success of Gardner-Webb's programs for all students, including those with hearing, visual, or ambulatory handicaps, is job placement for its graduates. The placement office along with directors of the above special programs actively seeks job placement for students with handicaps, as well as employment opportunities while the students are still attending college.

The college's third new program is a degree in church recreation. Students seeking a degree in this field will take a variety of courses such as "Outdoor Living," "Recreational Leadership" and "Organization and Administration of Church Recreation."

Students must also take courses in first aid and religious education, and will be required to demonstrate competency in such areas as music and drama, games and sports, church administration, and communications.

In addition to the new academic programs, students at Gardner-Webb in 1984 also saw renovation begin on two key classroom buildings, Hamrick Hall and the Philip L. Elliott Hall, formerly known as the Church Annex.

Hamrick Hall, completed in 1925, is the oldest building on the Gardner-Webb campus and has been placed in the National Register of Historic Places. Upon completion of the renovation project, the building will house offices, classrooms, a computer center, student activity areas, and will be a prime location for public lectures, meetings, and social functions.

Elliott Hall, named in 1984 in honor of the late Philip L. Elliott, the college's president from 1943 to 1961, currently houses faculty offices and classrooms as well as the associate degree program. Renovation will include a new roof and a redesigned front entrance. Upon completion of the project the building will house the college's Davis School of Nursing.

Also in 1984 the college noted with sadness the death of Mrs. Louise Blankenship, who had been a trustee of Gardner-Webb since 1981.

The college's opening of academic year 1984-85 at Fall Convocation marked an honor for five retired faculty members, who were the first to be selected as faculty emeriti. Selection, according to college president Craven E. Williams, recognizes faculty members for their contribution to Gardner-Webb while serving on the faculty; distinction is even more significant, he said, because the nominations come from active faculty. Named faculty emeriti were Betty H. Logan, Nettie R. Gidney, Deck W. Andrews, M. A. Moseley, Jr., and Paul J. Stacy.

The 1984 Spring commencement saw 371 associate, bachelor's, and master's degrees conferred at Gardner-Webb, while 101 students received degrees during the college's 1984 summer commencement.

In late Spring of 1984 the college also reported a record $2,028,998 in gift income, as the Annual College Fund was characterized as having the broadest support ever. Also the college's "Getting Ready for Tomorrow" program for endowment and capital development enters its second year.

Gardner-Webb concluded the 1984 year with no operating deficits at the college. Total indebtedness of the college as of June 30, 1984, is $1,624,328. The budget for the current academic year is $10,155,605., a 7.7 percent increase over the 1983-84 budget.

Mars Hill College

The opening statement in the President's Report to the Board of Trustees for the year 1983-84 states, "It's amazing the difference that one academic year can make in the life of a president!" That statement is followed by a description of the very positive elements which came together to provide an excellent college year. Not only was the new student enrollment larger than expectations, but there was a significant increase in the number of scholarship applicants for the fall and spring interview sessions. This means that the college will have approximately one-fourth of the entering class attending on academic scholarships and an overall one-fourth of the student body continuing on academic scholarships. The most encouraging point is that well over half of these young people have a commitment to enter fulltime Christian service.

For years, the college has had a series of community meetings which centered on various topics. This year Mars Hill College reaffirmed Baptist heritage and Christian values. The president of the college delivered an address entitled "Affirming Values," which was centered on the Christian faith. The college was also blessed with an excellent presentation by Glen Hinson entitled "Our Baptist Heritage." Hinson's address sensitized the entire college family to our significant Baptist roots. Another address followed in the spring, an excellent presentation by Glen Stassen entitled "The Nuclear Threat, the Russians, and the Freeze." It is important that all Christians face these complex moral issues, in order that the world may be centered on God's love, fulfilling God's mission rather than centering upon destruction.

Another substantive issue addressed by the college family was a presentation by the Campus Minister, the Director of Christian Education Ministries, and the Dean of Students to the Christian Life Committee of the board of Trustees, entitled "The Redemptive Role of the College." This presentation enables the trustees and college administrators to engage in serious dialogue concerning the Christian mission of Mars Hill College. The Campus Minister and the Director of Christian Education Ministries also reported excellent activities with students and local church leaders.

The college family was saddened by the death of Walter Glenn Watts of Statesville on September 16, 1983. Watts had served the college as a trustee for 19 years. Throughout his adult life he had demonstrated total dedication to his church, his family, and to Mars Hill College. He will be greatly missed as a representative of the Convention to the college.

At the close of the fiscal year, May 31, 1984, the total indebtedness of the college was $2,709,718. This indebtedness is, for the most part, in long-term, interest subsidy notes on which the college paid three percent interest. The college is well within any reasonable limits of debt to asset ratios.

Meredith College

Meredith is only seven years away from its centennial anniversary. In 1984, as much as at any time in its 93 years, the College can look to the future with optimism and confidence.

Despite a continuing move toward co-education, coupled with a dwindling population of college age young people in the United States, Meredith is still healthy in the ideals of its founders, who decreed more than a century ago that the new Baptist school be for women and that it be of high quality academically. Enrollment is stable; the already-strong academic program has the added emphasis of a new honors curriculum; endowment and reserves continue to grow; and the purpose of the College includes the high aspiration of instilling in its students "a Christian attitude toward the whole life."

In May 1984, 352 women were awarded degrees: 154 Bachelor of Arts, 183 Bachelor of Science, and 15 Bachelor of Music. The total number of graduates included 33 who were older than the average 18-22-year-old student.

Enrollment for the fall of 1984 is 1,750, which represents full residence hall capacity plus a significant number of commuting students. There were almost three applicants for every available on-campus space for new students.

Graduate programs in business, education, and music were put into place in 1983-84 and, in the spring of 1984, there were 94 graduate degree candidates enrolled. With the addition of graduate studies, Meredith continues to expand its service to adult women in the area. Other methods of serving that constituency are through a re-entry program, in which special provisions are made for women 23 years old or older to begin a college education or to resume an interrupted one; through enrichment courses; and through professional certification programs.

In undergraduate studies, new majors have been approved for theatre, musical theatre, and piano pedagogy, as well as a B.S. degree major in health sciences. In the latter program, a student will take three years of work at Meredith with a fourth year at Bowman Gray School of Medicine in the Physician Assistant Training Program. Also, a new accounting concentration will equip students for the CPA examination.

Use of computers in the academic program has been significantly enhanced by the equipping of a laboratory of microcomputers and one with a Data General C-330 computer system, a gift of the Data General Corporation.

One of the first colleges in the country to install a new technological device known as the digital switch, Meredith now owns its own telephone system. Over the same lines, computers can be placed in network anywhere on campus, and every office on campus and every room in the residence halls can be tied to a central computer with a reservoir of programs available for use.

Now in its fifth year and two years ahead of schedule, the Visions

Program for faculty enrichment, capital outlay, and general endowment has realized approximately three-fourths of its $20 million goal. As a result of the program, ground was broken in May for the Mary E. Yarbrough Research Center, which will house a research laboratory; an environment control room, also for research; a greenhouse; and two offices. The center will be shared by the departments of biology and chemistry.

A new entryway to the east campus was completed and was dedicated September 28, 1984. Known as the Elva Wall Davis Gate, the entrance is at Faircloth Street in Raleigh.

For the fiscal year ending June 30, 1984, Meredith's assets were $34,408,000, and its indebtedness was $3,874,000. Gifts, grants, and pledges for the same period totaled $2,380,224.33, which figure included $785,279.43 from the Cooperative Program. The support from North Carolina Baptists makes it possible for the college to minister to the educational needs of the young women of North Carolina and beyond at a reasonable financial level.

Meredith regrets the loss of Mae F. Grimmer, first executive secretary of the Alumnae Association, who served in that capacity from 1928-64, and who died October 7, 1983; of Louise E. Fleming, dean of students from 1950-69, who died January 20, 1984; and Mary Lynch Johnson, professor of English from 1918-69, who continued to teach through the continuing education division until 1983, and who died July 17, 1984.

Wake Forest University

The twelfth president of Wake Forest University has completed his first year in office. Thomas K. Hearn, Jr. has been busily engaged in a special course of study which he calls "Wake Forest 101." As he has systematically gone about the process of induction, he has discovered, as he recently wrote, "that the high morale and special loyalty found on campus are characteristic of Wake Forest friends and advocates everywhere." Hearn's first year was also the sesquicentennial for the University. Several significant events in celebration of this were carried out.

The celebration began with the University's opening convocation which introduced one of the themes of the Sesquicentennial, a consideration of the relationship between faith and reason. The speaker was Mortimer J. Adler, associate editor of the Encyclopedia Britannica's Great Books on the Western World Series. John W.

Other Sesquicentennial year speakers addressed a variety of topics. Some of these were Helmut Schmidt, former West German Chancellor, Federal Reserve Board Chairman Paul A. Volcker, and Nobel Prize winners Czeslow Milosz, a Polish poet, and Melvin Calvin, a chemist.

There were other lectures during the year such as the six which were delivered on "Women Studies in the University and the Community." The Central America Symposium provided a series on "Central America: Our Neighbors in Transition." Jurgen Moltmann delivered a lecture on "The Discipleship of Jesus," a part of the Luce Series, which has brought thirty-five speakers to the campus addressing the general theme of "Religion and the Social Crisis."

Two special exhibits celebrated the past. Margaret Supplee Smith, chairwoman of the art department, designed "The Building of Wake Forest - The First 150 years," an exhibit which examined the architecture of the old and new campuses. Another by Charles M. Allen, professor of biology, on "One Hundred Years of Biology," traced the history of the biology department at Wake Forest.

A major event of the celebration of the Sesquicentennial was the trek to the old campus from Winston-Salem by more than 1500 faculty, alumni, and friends. The year culminated with a sound and light show, "Visions and Dreams," which was given on the quadrangle and depicted the 150 year history of the school.

The gifts to the University were at an all time high. The College Fund raised $1,053,827 which enabled the University's alumni to be awarded the coveted Alumni Giving Incentive Award of the Council for the Advancement and Support of Education and the United States Steel Foundation. All divisions of the University received over $10 million in support during the fiscal year July 1-June 30.

Gifts to the University from the churches through the Cooperative Program also increased. New churches were added to the list of those who support Wake Forest. The Providence Baptist Church of Charlotte established a scholarship of $3,000 a year for a North Carolina Baptist ministerial student in honor of its pastor, W. Henry Crouch. The First Baptist Church of Burlington established a similar scholarship, though at this time is limited for one year, in honor of its pastor, Dale O. Steele.

The seventh annual Pastors' School was held and the fourth annual Spring Conference (on preaching) was led by James W. Cox, professor of preaching, Southern Seminary. The Babcock Graduate School of Management conducted its annual seminar on "Managing Today's Church" for the eleventh time. It granted four $200 scholarships to North Carolina Baptist church staff members.

The Coy C. Carpenter Library at the Bowman Gray School of Medicine was dedicated in October of 1983. It contains 112,555 holdings.

The University received national recognition for excellence when U. S. News and World Report rated Wake Forest among the nation's best colleges and universities, ranking it second among colleges with comprehensive programs located east of the Mississippi. Money Magazine called Wake Forest one of the nation's "Ten Top Colleges at Bargain Prices" - one of the schools which "still manages to keep their academic standards up and their total costs down."

A major addition to the staff was made when President Hearn appointed his University of Alabama in Birmingham colleague John P. Anderson as vice-president for administration and planning. Dean of Women, Lula M. Leake, was given a new assignment to serve as assistant vice-president for administration and planning. Gerald W. Esch, professor of biology and chairman of the department, was named dean of the graduate school to replace Henry S. Stroupe, ('35) who retired after forty-seven years of service at the University. At the Medical School, Fairfield Goodale was appointed executive dean and associate vice-president for health affairs.

The Baptist Historical Collection microfilmed free of charge the records of more churches this year than ever before. At this writing eight hundred and seventeen churches have their records stored in this fashion at the Collection. All current issues of the Biblical Recorder are being indexed, and the issues of previous years, beginning with the first year of the periodical's publication, are also in the process of being indexed.

The Reynolda campus budget this year is over $45,000,000. Bowman Gray School of Medicine's budget is almost $82,000,000 for a total of approximately $127,000,000. The debt of the University on the Reynolds campus is $1,794,000.

Total enrollment stands at 4,880 at the beginning of the 1984-85 school year, an increase of 105 over the same time a year ago. This includes an increase in the number of women which occurred because of the construction of a new dorm. There are no other plans for an increase in size. There was a major improvement in housing for undergraduate men during the summer. Two dormitories were improved at a cost of approximately $1,000,000, providing many new study areas and better living conditions. Two other men's dorms will be renovated during the summer of 1985. A new dorm which will accommodate 225 students is presently being constructed and will be completed in time to be occupied by the fall of 1985.

The Bowman Gray School of Medicine is in the midst of planning a large scale expansion in cooperation with North Carolina Baptist Hospital.

Graylyn, North Carolina's second largest house and which was given to the University through the generosity of the Bowman Gray family, was used for years as a language house but was severely damaged by fire in 1980. It has been completely renovated and now is known as Graylyn Conference Center. It is making an important institutional contribution as it provides substantial services to the corporate community and exposes Wake Forest to a vital constituency.

Wake Forest's new residential language center, located near the Reynolda campus, was given to the University by C. Fred Lovette of North Wilkesboro. It was dedicated in the fall of 1983 and is called the Lovette House. It accommodates thirty-four persons who are required to speak at meal time the language they are studying; the students are encouraged to do so at other times as well.

The University community was saddened this year because of the deaths of Professor of Politics, Jon M. Reinhardt; Deacon Club executive director, Bob Bartholomew; Nelle Louise Futch Tribble, wife of President Emeritus Harold Wayland Tribble; and Katie Whitley Scales, mother of President Emeritus James Ralph Scales.

As the University moves into the second year of the presidency of Thomas K. Hearn, Jr. and into its 151st year, it does so with encouragement from the past and with great hope for the future. It aspires, as President Hearn said in his inaugural address, that "with the aid of divine favor, may her next one hundred and fifty years be yet more glorious."

Weston P. Hatfield, chairman, Board of Trustees

Wingate College

"Community implies the possibility that people can join together in common, with similar lifestyles, values and purposes.

We are in fact intended by God for community. We want to be a community of scholars here at Wingate College."

With these words, Paul R. Corts, twelfth president of Wingate College, declared the 1983-84 school year officially open at the fall convocation. As competitive and pluralistic as contemporary times are, Wingate College in 1983-84 continued its tradition as a community of seekers committed to maintaining the institution as a place of faith, as a place in the knowledge business, and as a place preparing students for lives of service to God and man.

The 1984 commencement marked the largest graduating baccalaureate class in the College's history. Two hundred and sixty-seven baccalaureate degrees were awarded along with thirty-two associate degrees, reflecting the continuing change in the status of Wingate College from junior college to a senior institution. Duke McCall, president of the Baptist World Alliance, urged students in his commencement address to remain optimistic and true to their faith in spite of the pessimism of the times. The Charles and Hazel Corts Award for Excellence in College Teaching was awarded for the first time. This award honors a Wingate College faculty member who is selected by students, faculty, administration and alumni as deserving of special recognition for meritorious teaching. The first recipient of this award was Walter R. Johnson, a member of the chemistry faculty since 1956.

Winternational, the unique Wingate College international study/travel program which makes it possible for every student to experience another culture, gave nearly 200 students an opportunity to go to such diverse areas as Moscow and Leningrad, U.S.S.R.;

Munich, Germany; Geneva, Switzerland; Paris, France; and London, England. Now in its sixth year of operation, Winternational has offered the international experience to more than 1,500 students. Additionally, plans were completed for the Wingate-in-London semester program to continue in the Fall of 1984. This commitment to a world awareness program is based upon the idea that changing the lives of young people by making them aware of the world around them can indeed assist in changing the world. Consistent with our Christian commitment, this challenging task is the impetus for one of the College's major themes: "Wingate College — making a world of difference."

The year brought about another record-setting year in gifts from individual contributors with approximately 2,200 people participating in the support of Wingate College. Such generous contributions of individuals, in addition to the gifts received from countless Baptists of North Carolina, have sustained Wingate throughout her eighty-seven year history. The trustees of The Charles A. Cannon Charitable Trust No. One have awarded Wingate College a grant of $1,350,000 to build a comprehensive athletic and recreational complex. Twenty thousand dollars came from the trustees of The Charles A. Cannon Charitable Trust No. Two. These grants, when coupled with the $400,000 challenge grant awarded last September by The Cannon Foundation, Inc., represent nearly $1.8 million from the Cannon charitable interests. The facility, a major architectural showpiece that will stand on Camden Street at the north entrance to the campus, will be designed both to meet campus needs and to serve Union County and surrounding communities. The announcement of these grants, the largest in the College's history, marked a highpoint in the year.

Physical improvements to the campus continued with renovations occurring in Laney Hall and the Burnside-Dalton Fine Arts Center Plaza. A microcomputer laboratory was installed in the Ethel K. Smith Library, thus creating the third computer center on campus.

The faculty completed the exhaustive and comprehensive Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Self-Study in an exemplary fashion. Plans for the Bachelor of Science in Nursing degree completion program move steadily forward with the first class of R.N.'s enrolling in the Fall Semester of 1984. Enrollment projection for this program is most encouraging. Sound and effective academic and financial leadership for Wingate was insured for years to come with the appointment of Paul Beasley as Vice-President for Academic Affairs and Dean, and Ray Sowder as Vice-President for Business Affairs and Treasurer.

Prominent individuals and special programs which were conducted on campus this past year included the National Opera Company's performance of a Donizetti comedy; Lester Thurow, MIT economist and Newsweek columnist; E. Beatrice Batson, Wheaton College English professor; Hamlet by the National Players of Washington; Frula, the Yugoslavian Folk Dance and Ballet Troupe; and Wolf D. Gruner, historian from the University of Hamburg, West Germany.

A number of honors came to the Wingate family during the year. Jerry Surratt is to be commended for his scholarly book entitled

Gottlieb Schober of Salem. Robert Doak received his second fellowship from the National Endowment for the Humanities and studied at the University of California-Berkeley. Roger Barker, a junior from Asheboro, NC, was honored with his selection as an Academic All-American baseball player. The Association of Retarded Citizens of Mecklenburg/Union Counties presented its Volunteer of the Year Award to Wingate in appreciation for its services and programs for mentally handicapped children and adults across the state. The plaque's citation concludes with "Thank you for caring." The debate team, a perennial winner, closed its season ranked 19th nationally. Finally, Phi Eta Sigma, a national freshman honors society, established a chapter at Wingate.

In 1983-84 Wingate continued to operate on a balanced budget for yet another year. The College has continued its policy of having no indebtedness and borrowing no funds. For this outstanding fiscal record, the College is grateful to a host of Baptists of North Carolina and other friends of the College who have made it possible through substantial gifts to remain steadfast to its goal of being a "school of high grade."

Christian Life and Public Affairs

This has been an extremely busy year for the Council on Christian Life and Public Affairs. Through its three departments, it has provided a variety of field service events and educational resources for North Carolina Baptists. Associational Christian Life committee members were trained and guidance on a wide range of social and ethical issues was furnished to churches and associations. June was promoted as World Hunger Month and our churches increased their giving significantly over that of 1983. The Council made available bulletin inserts, posters, world hunger calendars, and hunger banks, in addition to free offering envelopes.

Douglas Cole, director

Christian Citizenship Education

The work of Christian Citizenship Education has centered on two types of activities: voter participation and legislative information. Voter registration and turnout remain low. In the May primaries, for example, only about a third of the North Carolinians of voting age went to the polls. This Department has encouraged Baptists to register and to vote by making available a bulletin insert, used in more than 300 churches, which supplied necessary information and encouraged participation. This effort was non-partisan, not aimed at voters of just one political persuasion, but designed to increase voter participation among all Baptists.

The Legislative Information Network has continued to provide reports on the work of the General Assembly to about 800 contact persons in churches throughout the state. The legislature met briefly in early March to redraw several of the state's legislative districts in ways that provide fairer representation to some of the state's minorities. In the summer, the General Assembly convened for its regular short session, at which time the budget was fine-tuned for the 84-85 fiscal year. A significant part of the money allocated during the short session went for education, primarily as salary raises for teachers and other personnel. A Moral Concerns Rally in the South Roanoke Association helped alert Baptists to the growing menace of legalized gambling.

World hunger continued to be a matter of concern to many Baptists. Once again June was designated as World Hunger Month in North Carolina. The Council made available bulletin inserts, posters, hunger banks, placemats, giving guides, and pamphlets, in addition to world hunger offering envelopes.

North Carolina Baptists' response to hunger took on two new forms this year. First, the NC/Togo Partnership channeled some of our financial contributions and the efforts of a host of volunteers into an exciting missions effort to help some who are hungry and thirsty in the small West African country of Togo. This Partnership will continue for another two and a half years.

Second, the NC Hunger Fund began to give assistance to churches and associations combating hunger here at home. This money has been used in exciting and worthwhile ministries, helping, for example, to provide hot meals for the elderly in Belhaven and Statesville; to make food available to migrants in rural parts of Wake County; to stock food pantries in Lincolnton, Charlotte, and Swansboro; to feed homeless people in Durham, Oxford, and Fayetteville; and to set up a community garden project in Onslow County.

North Carolina Baptists, like those across the Southern Baptist Convention, continue to give increasingly large amounts to help the hungry, but so much remains to be done. While our giving in 1983 was the highest ever (and is running even higher thus far in 1984), the average Southern Baptist's gift was less than 75 cents for the entire year.

Christian Family Life

There has been an increasing and gratifying response to the broad area of family life events sponsored by the Department of Christian Family Life during the current year. Our churches have enthusiastically included in an expanding way the "Strengthening the Family" emphasis of our Southern Baptist Convention.

A wide range of family life events was led by the Department's director. Included were five associational or church-wide Family Enrichment Conferences. Six marriage enrichment retreats were led in churches of our state. The facilitators of the annual three-day clergy couples Marriage Enrichment Retreat in January were Bob and Carrie Dale of Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary. The Retreat, attended by 25 couples, focused on the stages of family life. In addition a four-day Leadership Training Marriage Enrichment Retreat was led by Ken Jordan, the new Marriage Enrichment Consultant for the Family Ministry Department of the Sunday School Board. Fourteen new couples were added to the list of those trained to lead either the Sampler or Basic Marriage Enrichment Retreat models. Two area-wide Single Adult Seminars involved singles from 12 neighboring associations adjacent to the host association. A church-wide single adult event and preaching at a single adult Sunday observance also involved the director. Other leadership was offered at two Better Homes Clubs and two church night family emphases on topics such as "Domestic Violence," and "The Family Coping with Suicide and Depression". The Director received training at Ridgcrest in the new Family Ministry Parenting Enrichment Model "Parenting by Grace" and led two four-day "field tests" in two churches. This model will be available next year for the final "Strengthening the Family" emphasis on parenting. A Christian Family Lifestyle Workshop, "Opening the Windows of the Family on the World" was available in four sites over the state, Morganton, Charlotte, Durham and Greenville. These were co-led by O. D. Martin of the Stewardship Division and George Reed, director, Department of Christian Citizenship Education and Robert Newton. Leadership was offered at four Director's of Missions Regional Planning Meetings in the new Family Ministry Associational Program; two Strengthening the Family Leadership Workshops; one Pastor's Conference; the Bi-Vocational Ministers Conference at Caraway; and the Fall Festival of Marriage at Ridgecrest. The director also chaired the Family Ministry section of the two-day Director's of Missions - Home Mission Study. He also spoke at annual associational meetings on family life themes in the Cullom and Sand Hills Associations.

Two Family Life Conference presentations on marriage and parenting were videotaped for use by the churches of the Convention through the Communications Division. Now available, their titles are: "Marriage: Caring Enough to Give the Very Best" and "Parenting: Relationships that Foster Growth."

Consultations assisting churches, associations, and pastors in their crucial task of strengthening family life were also offered. Two conferences for pastors' wives were underwritten by the department.

Aging

Interest and enthusiasm continued to grow as more and more churches begin or expand senior adult ministries. Twelve area-wide Senior Adult Leadership Workshops were conducted with more than 500 in attendance from nearly 200 churches representing 49 associations. Under the general topic "An Effective Ministry with Senior Adults," these five-hour workshops dealt with "attitudes and needs," "Developing an Ongoing Senior Adult Ministry," and "Developing a Year's Program of Activities." In cooperation with the Sunday School Department, a special section of the workshops gave attention to "Ministry with Homebound Senior Adults."

Five conferences/retreats at Caraway Conference Center were held with close to 800 persons participating. The newly expanded facilities at Caraway will make it possible to accommodate more than 1,000 each year. Reservations for the 1985 events are rapidly filling the available space.

The department is pleased to cooperate with the Christian Family Life Department in family enrichment conferences with sections for senior adults.

Several "You and Your Aging Parent" seminars were conducted and the department director led a workshop on "Understanding Aging and Death" for the Baptist Student Convention at Ridgecrest sponsored by the Division of Youth and Campus Ministries.

A new associational model for senior adult ministries has emerged this year and a number of associations are giving emphasis to this exciting aspect of ministry.

Baptist Retirement Homes of North Carolina, Inc.

Through many special individuals, blessings of great significance are coming to the Baptist Retirement Homes.

Through this annual report, I want to share with you some of the events and activities that are blessing the lives of residents through the special people who are giving unselfishly of themselves to the ministry of the Baptist Retirement Homes. Heading the list of special people are you—North Carolina Baptists. From October, 1983 - April, 1984, you gave 26.3 percent of the Homes' total income through the Cooperative Program, North Carolina Missions Offering and special gifts. This support covered 77 percent of the Homes' benevolent care ministry. Benevolent care projections for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1984, are running at about $1,000,000. Mission gifts, it appears, will fall short of the need by some $250,000. During the 1983 fiscal year, mission support was $306,000 less than the need. Currently, approximately 40 percent of the residents in the five Homes are able to cover their full cost of care. Ten percent of the Nursing Care residents underwrite their full cost of care. As you can see, your mission gifts are vital to the benevolent care ministry of the Retirement Homes. The 1983 change in the Homes' Cooperative Program allocation greatly added to the support which you have given. May I add that your prayer support, your personal encouragement and visits are also greatly appreciated because they mean so much to the residents, staff, and to the ongoing effective ministry of the Homes.

To effectively operate a $3.2 million ministry takes a diverse group of individuals looking from many different perspectives at financing, planning, upkeep, development, etc. One special group of these individuals are the Trustees whom you have elected. These 20 individuals are your voice in the overall operations of the Homes' ministry. Numerous major decisions have been made by the Board in the last several months. These decisions have launched a Capital Funds

Campaign—"A Call To Remember..." revised admission policies, secured consulting services to review the total operations of the Homes. Members of the Trustees are comprising a Search Committee to locate my successor upon my retirement in October, 1985. The Board's expectations of the Sun-Health's consultants are coming to reality and many recommendations are being considered to provide the Homes' ministry in more effective ways. In an effort to more effectively depict the ministry which the Homes are rendering, the Trustees voted to change the Homes' name to the Baptist Retirement Homes of N. C., Inc. The name change was approved by the Convention during the 1983 session. I'm grateful for each of our Trustees. They are rendering an invaluable service and ministry to older adults through their commitment to the ministry of the Retirement Homes.

Operating expenses for the Homes' ministry increased approximately three percent during the 1983 fiscal year. Currently, expenses are running 3.6 percent ahead of the same period last year. The 220 Baptist Homes' employees are responsible for such a modest increase. They are truly a special part of the Homes' ministry with older persons. Faithful staff members and their dedication to the Homes and the residents add an important plus as the Homes minister with older persons.

During the past months, another group of important people have come together for a special purpose and work in the life of the Retirement Homes. For the first time in the Homes' history, a state-wide Capital Funds Campaign has been undertaken. Fred Lovette, retired President and Chairman of the Board for Holly Farms, has given unselfishly of his time to pull together key leaders across North Carolina to formulate an Advisory Team and leadership people to raise $2.5 million through the "A Call To Remember..." Campaign. Through the efforts of Fred and many other individuals, many new friends have been made. Gifts to the "A Call To Remember..." Campaign are going to be used to renovate and update the Hayes Home facility. Plans include a new kitchen facility, support facilities for the Nursing Care Unit, and improvements to the grounds of the Hayes Home Campus.

In closing, we must realize that long-term care of older persons means just that. Life expectancy figures indicate that the Homes can anticipate providing approximately eight years of care for 80 year old residents. Also, the growing segment of our population is the 65 plus group. I feel that as Baptists we want to be on the cutting edge of an effective ministry with this growing group of individuals. Through your continued support, the work of Trustees and the continued effective service of the staff, we can be and must be the hope for many older people in our state. I trust your support and encouragement will grow in proportion to the needs that we have as a ministry with older persons. Our doors are always open to your visits, calls and inquiries for admissions, etc. Please let us hear from you that together we might work to be an effective ministry for our Lord.

The Homes' 33 year heritage has been marked by the deepest concern and the most genuine of Christian love for the older persons who have made their "homes" in the Baptist Retirement Homes. Our mission is challenging as we endeavor to meet the growing needs of our older population. Truly, our future is as bright as the promises of God Himself and the love and support that you give as North Carolina Baptists.

Baptist Children's Homes of North Carolina, Inc.

Excitement is building for the Baptist Children's Homes of North Carolina in anticipation of the Centennial Celebration. Since July 8, 1884 when Dr. R. D. Fleming, a dentist, wrote a letter that appeared in the Biblical Recorder asking Baptists to catch the dream of a Baptist Orphan's Home, the mission of the Baptist Children's Homes has remained the same: "to provide care for neglected, orphaned and abused children."

The ninety-ninth year of the Baptist Children's Homes has been one of significance. Over 4,000 individuals, including children, parents and relatives, have been served in a variety of ways through our ministry.

These individuals have been served through the Homes quality child care services:

Group Homes: Campus living in which family cottages are maintained for children with supportive services readily available, such as: recreation, education, medical care, worship opportunities and social service. These homes are located in Thomasville (Mills Home), Kinston (Kennedy Home), Pembroke (Odum Home) and Clyde (Broyhill Home).

Emergency Care Homes are located across the State. This service is designed for families faced with an immediate crisis. The homes are planned to provide temporary care on a short-term basis for school age children whose families are experiencing a crisis in their homes.

Baptist Maternity Home in Asheville provides residential care to unmarried pregnant women of all ages. The mother chooses whether she will keep her child or release the child for adoption. When adoption is the choice this is done through a licensed adoption agency.

A network of Foster Homes, licensed by the Division of Social Service, extends the ministry of this Institution to children and youth who need extra care and love in a smaller group located off campus.

counselors...learning the values of living and working together toward common goals. Youth caught in an apparent failure cycle have the opportunity to learn that positive values in action can turn hostility into trust...bitterness into acceptance...guilt into freedom.

The Child Development Center on the Mills Home campus is a demonstration day care and early education center that provides care for preschool children. Parents are involved in the child's first educational experience. The staff of this center offers, free of charge, training, seminars, consultation services for new or existing day care ministries.

This year also marks the completion of Michael C. Blackwell's first year as president of the Baptist Children's Homes of North Carolina. During this year, significant strides have been made that will enable the Homes to live up to its past as an innovator and leader in the field of child care.

Among these accomplishments is a computer hook up between each of the four campuses. This will enable the efficient assimilation of materials that will facilitate admission and child care information retrieval and entry. In addition, the Northeastern area of North Carolina was opened up for social work through an office in Williamston and the Hickory-Lenoir area became a full family service area.

Other exciting and innovative developments have affected our Child Development Center with an expansion to include two year olds and further plans for infant care. The psychological service of the Homes has also been expanded during this year.

Another aspect of the Homes work this year has been the planning and fund-raising efforts directed towards the Moody Farm Ministries. Envisioned as a caring facility for troubled youth, this ministry will be located in Franklin, North Carolina. This dream is now about to become reality.

Under the direction of Dr. Blackwell, trustees, and staff, the 100th year of the Baptist Children's Homes of North Carolina will be one well worth celebrating.

Baptist Children's Homes of North Carolina owes its being to the Baptists of North Carolina. The successes known and seen in the lives of individuals touched by our ministry are attributed to the care and dedication of these same Baptists. We pledge our continued dedication to our mission. Thank you for supporting us in this vital challenge.

North Carolina Baptist Hospital, Inc.

During the past year Baptist Hospital admitted 24,577 patients for a total of 218,735 days of patient care. There were 211,547 outpatient clinic visits and 31,930 visits to the emergency room. Surgical procedures totaled 11,816 including 700 open heart operations and 20 kidney transplants.

Several clinical advances during the past year serve as examples of the hospital's quality of care. (1) Neurosurgeons have developed a new procedure for treating head injuries which has resulted in our having the lowest mortality rate for patients with this type of injury of any major medical center in the world. (2) Improvements in perinatal care with special emphasis on prevention of preterm labor have resulted in a lower infant mortality rate and in a 15 percent reduction in the number of babies in Forsyth County needing to be admitted to the intensive care nursery. (3) A new treatment offers relief without surgery for many patients suffering from ruptured vertebral discs. (4) Many patients with kidney stones should benefit from the use of new equipment being acquired in the Section on Urology. It uses ultrasound to break up stones of the urinary tract so that, in many instances, surgery is not necessary.

The School of Pastoral Care during the past year provided clinical-pastoral education to 276 ministers through 47 clinical-pastoral programs. Chaplains in the Department of Pastoral Care made more than 33,000 visits to patients, families of patients, and hospital staff. The department also provided more than 20,000 hours of pastoral counseling at its various centers in Winston-Salem, Fayetteville, Raleigh, Morganton, and Charlotte. This program was supported in part from gifts through the Cooperative Program which amounted to $515,556 during the past year.

J. Dewey Hobbs began his work on March 15 as the new director of the Department of Pastoral Care.

The hospital received $351,801 through the North Carolina Missions Offering during the fiscal year. A total of 418 patients received financial assistance on their bills through this fund. These bills ranged in size from $20 to $21,000.

The trustees, staff and especially the patients at Baptist Hospital are deeply grateful to the Baptist churches for their continuing support.

North Carolina Baptist Foundation, Incorporated

To promote—to provide—to receive—to own—to administer—to distribute—

These verbs define the responsibilities assigned to The North Carolina Baptist Foundation by the Baptist State Convention. Each relates to its trustee role of receiving gifts for the Convention, its agencies, institutions, and mission causes.

A 15-member Board of Directors elected by the Convention leads the staff in fulfilling its mission. Churches and denominational leaders demonstrate an increased awareness of the Foundation's role. This has resulted in a growing number of individuals committing themselves to estate stewardship. The causes supported by Baptists already receive a significant portion of their total financial requirements from perpetual trusts created through estate assets. Yet, the potential remains enormous.

To Promote the Making of Gifts

The Foundation acknowledges the need to inform our people of the potential of estate stewardship in providing the capital necessary for carrying the Gospel of Jesus Christ to all the world. Less than one-half of one percent of the value of estates is left to all charitable causes; Christian causes - Baptist causes - receive an infinitesimal amount. Endowment provided by personal trusts is essential to the support of every mission effort of Southern Baptists. Endowment income is permanent. It provides stability in budgeting.

The Foundation is unique in Baptist life. It impartially disseminates estate stewardship information to anyone, and is particularly helpful to persons who wish to contribute, through trusts, to the support of more than one Christian cause.

Seminars, conferences and clinics are provided to church or association. Guidance is provided to memorial committees or planned giving committees. Personal counseling is offered. Through every means, the Foundation seeks to inform, motivate and inspire Baptists to greater participation in estate stewardship.

Providing the Thoroughway for Receiving Gifts

Sixty-five years ago the Convention established the Baptist Foundation to provide a means for Baptists to support permanently those institutions and mission causes they cherish. It was bold action in 1919. There was no model or pattern, for no similar organization existed in Southern Baptist life.

Tax laws and regulations favor charitable giving. The Foundation provides individuals with an opportunity to take advantage of those estate planning techniques. As trustee, the Foundation provides the avenue for transfer of assets by those persons who wish to:

- reduce their own personal management of assets,
- retain personal income or use of the property for life,
- take advantage of tax incentives, both while living and through estate probate, and
- provide, after death, that the trust assets will benefit one or more Baptist causes.

Any asset of marketable value may be received into trust. They have included farm land, city lots, houses, livestock, stocks and bonds, insurance policies, rare collectibles, and of course, cash.

Almost every Baptist cause has been endowed: scholarship funds; church libraries; cemetery funds; world hunger; church building programs; every mission cause, effort and offering; every college, university, seminary, and institution maintained by North Carolina Baptists; the Biblical Recorder and the Foundation's service ministry.

Staff members have been named as Executor of estates and as Power of Attorney. Meeting these needs, and other personal needs of trustors, is a responsibility fulfilled by staff personnel.

Foundation Owns, Holds, and Administers Gifts

The Foundation, chartered by the Convention, holds, owns, and administers gifts solely as Trustee for the Convention agencies and causes. One gift may pay income to any or all of those Baptist efforts. This is the unique characteristic of the Baptist Foundation.

Edwin S. Coates, executive secretary, is responsible to the Foundation's Board of Directors. As chief administrator, he relates to the needs of all Baptist institutions and missions.

During 1983, more than $953,000 in new assets was received through new trusts and additions to existing trusts. The Endowment Trust concept was made operational, a plan which gives opportunity to anyone, of whatever means, to participate in permanent support of missions and Baptist causes through trusts.

The Investment Committee, which evaluates and recommends investment strategy, restated its objective of generating maximum income, while providing protection of the trust corpus. Assets, contributed by Baptists, continue to work for Baptists through the faithful stewardship of individuals. The faithful stewardship of the Baptist Foundation is also required, and to that objective the staff dedicates its efforts.

Biblical Recorder

The Baptist paper of North Carolina celebrated two historic events in back-to-back years. In 1983, the Biblical Recorder observed the 150th anniversary of Baptist papers in the state, and in 1984, the official newsjournal of the state convention moved into its own building.

The move into the Biblical Recorder Building at 232 W. Millbrook Road in north Raleigh, just a few minutes from the Beltline, was a return to the former pattern when the paper owned its own building in downtown Raleigh. That building was entered in 1912 and was used by the paper and offices of the General Board (from 1939) until the Baptist Building at 301 Hillsborough Street was entered in 1957.

The new Recorder Building was entered debt-free through the generosity of so many North Carolina Baptists and friends who gave unselfishly and even sacrificially to make the building a reality. Since the building is paid for, the overhead operating expenses of the paper have been reduced and thus makes possible the continued production of a high-quality, weekly newsjournal for the state convention at the lowest possible costs in today's economy.

The Williamsburg-style office condominium consists of 2,300 square feet on two levels, providing space for the staff, computers, typesetting equipment, a darkroom, kitchen, restrooms and a

The basic cost of the building with its modifications to suit the specific needs of the Biblical Recorder was $117,500. Additional expenses for equipment, furnishings and special wiring-conduit brought the total expended to approximately $140,000.

The Recorder also acquired its own computer, capable of handling the mailing lists and financial data for the operation of the paper each week. This move also reduced the cost of overhead operation, a small amount immediately and a much larger amount within five years. The new system also makes the operation much more convenient since it is in the building with the staff and under their management and scheduling.

For the third consecutive year, the Recorder did not raise subscription prices, an effort to make it as easy as possible for the churches to put the paper in the budget and send it to all resident families. Of the approximate 3,500 churches and missions in the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, about half have the paper in the budget or members receive it through club plans.

Also, for the third consecutive year, the paper did not request an increase in the allocation of funds from the Cooperative Program. The paper's leadership desires to hold the amount as low as possible to free funds for other mission causes fostered by the denomination.

In March, 1983, the directors of the Recorder approved a long-range plan recommended by the editor. There are three goals in the plan: a building, a circulation of 150,000 weekly and an endowment of no less than $500,000, hopefully $1 million. Since the first of these three goals has been realized already, concentration will now be made in the areas of circulation and endowment.

New and creative programs will be launched to encourage churches to subscribe to the best single source of news about the total life of the denomination. Friends of the Recorder will be urged to name the paper in their wills and provide various forms of trusts which will strengthen the paper financially and make possible a continued low subscription rate. Several of the other state Baptist papers have been developing endowments for many years. The Baptist Foundation of North Carolina will assist the Recorder in the development of the endowment and will be the depository for the funds received.

The Biblical Recorder is grateful to God and his people for the progress made last year in the work of the paper, and requests the continued prayer support of our people for the years ahead.

Historical Committee

The Historical Committee continued its efforts to plan for another Heritage Festival. One of the sites mentioned in last year's report was the Jersey Settlement, and, in light of the Search Committee's nomination of Roy Smith this year, it seems almost providential as Jersey Church was his last pastorate prior to serving with the Baptist State Convention. In any case, the Historical Committee voted to proceed with plans for the celebration, if the Jersey Church was receptive to the proposal. Jersey Church, which will be having its two hundred thirtieth anniversary next year, voted to look with favor on a festival in September, 1985. The exact date is yet to be determined. A committee was appointed to plan the program and publicity. The Historical Committee chairman will work closely with the Jersey Church in the process as will the committee for program and publicity and its chairperson, Mrs. A. L. Parker. There was a definite sense of excitement at the possibilities which might be afforded by this festival.

Director John Woodard, who along with his staff acts under the general supervision of the Historical Committee and the Wake Forest Library, reported on the continued growth of the Ethel Taylor Crittenden Collection in Baptist History, one of the Committee's most important endeavors. Woodard stated that more churches took advantage of the microfilming service than ever before. There were 9,774 accessions made to the Collection. While the Collection occupies 3,065 square feet, lack of space continues to be a growing problem. Myrtle L. Lytle, Mr. Woodard's assistant, has improved the reference information to researchers. Director Woodard completed a year of service as president of the Southern Baptist Historical Society. He continues speaking throughout North Carolina in behalf of the Collection. Woodard was commended for his work.

Under miscellaneous matters mention was made of the current conflict in the Southern Baptist Convention and what the Committee could do in helping to resolve the situation in the most constructive fashion. Three events in Baptist History were identified as having potential light to shed on conflict resolution. These included the change of General Baptists into Particular Baptists, the uniting of Separate and Regular Baptists, and a controversy over the extent of the atonement. For example, in the controversy over the extent of the atonement the participants became ashamed of their conduct towards one another. Being conscious of the relationship between belief and behavior, principle and practice, they realized that their actions were incongruous with what they professed. They were embarrassed by their uncharitable treatment of those whom they had just called brethren. As a result they worked out a solution which put a stop to their failure in conduct which was regarded as crucial as a matter of doctrine.

Likewise the uniting of Separate and Regular Baptists could have a bearing on today's problems, for it, too, demonstrates that give and take can be made in the critical area of theology. Generally, unions are based on compromises which weaken, if not destroy, their effectiveness. However, the union of Separates and Regulars was evidently well-founded. Concerning that union, John Leland stated:

The union that has taken place among the Baptists has been very pleasing to men, and a continuation of the same is an object that engrosses my desire. For this desirable end, I have been willing to sacrifice a number of peculiarities, and think myself a gainer in the bargain.

Surely, if the resolution of such conflicts could be worked out two hundred years ago in Virginia and North Carolina so that one would discontinue conduct unbecoming to a Christian and another could feel himself a gainer in the bargain, then we ought to be willing to struggle towards a similar solution today. No doubt, an examination of our past might provide an incentive for learning how to cope with the present situation.

Trustee Orientation Committee

Trustee Orientation is designed as a time of training for all newly elected trustees of the agencies and institutions. Our session was held at Caraway Conference Center on November 29 and 30, 1983. The work session included such topics as "Trustee and Law," "Trustee's Responsibility for Achieving Institutional Excellence," and a panel which dealt with the area of "Choosing the Chief Executive." Our meeting concluded with discussions centered around "Personnel, Board Organizations, and Board Meetings," and the "Court of Last Resort."

Our program personnel were of excellent quality and approximately 85 trustees and chief executives were present. As new plans are made for the year 1984, a constant effort is made to cover all areas of a trustees' responsibility to the institutions and agencies.

The program outline for the meeting of November 26 and 27, 1984 will prove to be one of the most outstanding held. Our visiting speakers will bring to us their expertise in their particular area of work. Our speakers will be R. Kirby Godsey, president, Mercer University; James Gunther, Nashville, Tennessee, and Ernest W. Beals, director, Admissions Guidance Services, The College Board, Atlanta, Georgia. Our newly elected trustees will have much to gain from these helpful sessions.

Jo Anne Alexander, chairman

Cooperative Ministries Committee

The Joint Committee on Cooperative Ministries was formed in 1971 by the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina and the General Baptist State Convention of North Carolina. The primary purpose was "to study and recommend periodically to their respective groups areas of cooperative work, activities, and projects that will strengthen our common fellowship as well as advance the work of our Lord." A further purpose served as an advisory to the Department of Cooperative Ministries.

The committee consists of eight members from each convention, and the director of the Department of Cooperative Ministries. Included in the membership are the presidents and executive secretaries of both conventions.

202/Baptist State Convention

The cooperative work supported by both conventions is centered primarily in the Department of Cooperative Ministries. Programs include appointing black college students in summer ministry projects, providing student aid for black students preparing for church related vocations, a Seminary Extension program aligned with the Shaw Divinity School, campus ministries designed to reach black students, promoting a retirement program for General Baptist pastors, and numerous other programs in churches and associations in both conventions involving joint pastors' conferences, promoting local joint committees, conferences on racial awareness, encouraging participation in observing Race Relations Sunday in February, providing internships for black students, training institutes and workshops.

Co-chairman L. D. Holt of Raleigh has been absent this year serving in Wiesbaden, West Germany as comptroller for European Baptists. We miss his presence on the committee but we are pleased to share him and his wife in this missions endeavor.

J. B. Woodhouse, co-chairman

Place and Preacher Committee

The Place and Preacher Committee met at the Baptist Building in Cary on February 28, 1984. Since it is not necessary to select the place for the annual meeting of our Baptist State Convention, the Place and Preacher Committee had only one major task to perform.

The following were named to serve as preacher for the Convention sermon and alternates:

Convention Sermon: Gerald Goodwin, Durham Memorial Church, Durham

First Alternate: Charles Allen, Campbell University, Buies Creek

Second Alternate: M. O. Sears, Adamsville Church, Goldsboro

Memorials Committee

We, the members of the Committee on Memorials, thank you for giving us this ministry in the Baptist State Convention. We thank each of you who has helped us gather the information necessary for this report memorializing ministers and outstanding lay leaders of our state convention who have died during the current year. These names have come mainly from "The Biblical Recorder", our Directors of Missions and your Associational letters.

In Hebrews we have a description of God's Olympics. We were all thrilled this summer as we watched our athletes compete. Picture a great stadium filled with God's heroes, including those we remember today. In chapters 11 and 12 we read, "As for us, we have this large crowd of witnesses around us. What a record these men have won by their faith! Yet they did not receive what God had promised, for God had decided on an even better plan for us. His Purpose was that they would be made perfect only with us." Hebrews 12: 1; 11: 39,40. (TEV)

In this beautiful story we have a crowd of witnesses vitally interested in the way we run the race. Hebrews 11 describes many Old Testament people who have faced the competition of the challenges of life and have won their victories through faith and perseverance. The endurance and witness of those we remember today give us a foundation upon which we continue our work through our churches and organizations. It would be impossible to name the benefits of our relationships with our heroes of faith, of those who are named here and the others you have known. It is an honor and responsibility that we are so related to our spiritual ancestors that the completion of their work so largely depends on us. The fruit of their work can be helped or hindered by our degree of dedication, for we are one in Christ. We can build upon the foundation they have laid or we can neglect it and lose the results of years of work and planning. The writer of Hebrews says that their work is completed in us.

I followed two long time pastors. One had served his church for 28 years, the other, 38 years. Looking back I can see where their work and my work blended together.

Several years ago I heard Judge John W. McCall make this statement to a college graduating class: "If you succeed without suffering someone has suffered before you; if you suffer without succeeding someone will succeed after you."

John McRae in his poem, "Flanders Field", says it well:

"To you from falling hands we throw

Executive Committee of the General Board of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina

We have examined the balance sheet of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina as of December 31, 1984 and the related statements of changes in general fund balances, receipts and transfers by funds, activity of restricted reserve funds, general fund income and expenses and divisional summary departmental income and expenses of General Board and Convention and education and social services institutions funds income, expenses, distributions and fund balances for the year then ended. Except as explained in the first two sentences of the following paragraph, our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and, accordingly, included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

The funds shown as sent direct on the statement of receipts and transfers by funds were taken from reports received by the Convention and were not otherwise verified by us. Our examination as detailed by Note 3 was, in some instances, limited to recorded receipts. The statements presented in this report are in our opinion in accord with generally accepted accounting principles and with statements prepared on the accrual basis except for differences explained in Note 1, relating to income, expenses and depreciation. Additions to fixed assets are recorded at cost; dispositions of fixed assets are deleted from fixed asset accounts to the extent known; and provision is not made for depreciation (Notes 1 and 2).

In our opinion, except for the effects of the matters referred to in the preceding paragraph, the aforementioned financial statements present fairly the financial position of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina at December 31, 1984, and the results of its operations and the changes in fund balances for the year then ended, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

The financial information presented in Schedules 1 and 2 has been subjected to the same auditing procedures that were applied for the aforementioned financial statements. In our opinion, it is fairly presented in all material respects in relation to the financial statements taken as a whole, although it is not necessary for a fair presentation of the financial position and the results of operations of the Convention.

Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 1984

1. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES:

The Convention is on a modified cash basis and adheres to the principle of fund accounting. The financial statements presented in this report are in accord with generally accepted accounting principles and agree materially with financial statements prepared on an accrual basis, with the following differences:

- (a) Income is recorded as received in cash because it is not generally susceptible to accrual.
- (b) Expenditures for inventory type items, prepaid expenses and new fixed asset outlays are recorded as expenses when paid, in the account in which originally budgeted.
- (c) There is no provision for depreciation of fixed assets.
- (d) Interest on long term debt is recorded when due and paid and charged to a budgeted account.

Financial transactions are controlled by a Convention passed budget and accounted for within budgetary accounts. Distributions of income to Southern Baptist Convention areas or accounts and other external recipients are charged to the same period as the income. Salaries are expensed as paid; however, payment dates always correspond to the period in which salaries are earned. Other policies are described below:

- (a) Notes and accounts receivable not involving income accruals are recorded.
- (b) In a few instances, inventories and prepaid expenses at year end are recorded at cost in asset accounts and are charged to the following accounting period. Amounts in this category are not material and are recorded to conform to budget procedures.
- (c) Investments are recorded at cost. Earnings thereon are added to the investing fund.
- (d) Purchases of fixed assets and improvements are charged to operating expenses as they are paid. The assets are also recorded at cost in the fixed asset accounts of the general fund and credited to the fund balance. No consideration is given to depreciation. Leasehold costs are amortized over the life of the leaseholds or extension thereof. Real estate disposed of is deleted from the fixed asset accounts at the time of disposition. Personal property is also deleted from the fixed asset accounts when disposed of, if complete information is available. De-detailed subsidiary ledgers are not maintained.
- (e) Current unpaid expenses are not accrued and do not involve an expense accounts payable account. As a practical matter, at the end of the year most creditors will have been paid up-to-date and the unpaid amounts are not material to the statements. Long-term notes and other liabilities not previously referred to in this paragraph are recorded on the Convention books and appear on the balance sheet. Interest expense on debt is recognized in the period paid.

- (f) The Convention contributes to retirement plans for its own employees and shares in the cost of plans of ministers and employees of participating Baptist churches in North Carolina. All such costs are charged to operations in the year paid. The retirement plans are administered by the Annuity Board of the Southern Baptist Convention. Required contributions by the Convention for 1984 as determined by the Annuity Board were $929,023.
- (g) The Convention routinely receives contributions designated for specific uses. From time to time, the Convention or General Board designates certain funds for special purposes. All designations are recorded in restricted fund accounts so that charges to the accounts can be restricted to the designated purposes.
- (h) The Convention is a tax-exempt organization and does not, therefore, have to account for income taxes.

2. DEPRECIATION:

Fixed assets are valued at accumulated costs for prior years, plus costs of additions for the current year, reduced by dispositions when ascertainable, and with no consideration given to depreciation. As a result, the values do not reflect depreciated costs or net costs where complete information on dispositions has not been known.

3. FUNDS SENT DIRECT AND RECORDED RECEIPTS:

The funds shown as sent direct on the statement of receipts and transfers by funds were taken from reports received by the Convention and were not otherwise verified by us. As a routine procedure, funds are received by the Convention business office from various departments within the Convention covering registration fees, miscellaneous sales, expense reimbursements and other such items. Our examination of these items was limited to receipts as recorded in the business office receipt books. Our examination of receipts for the North Carolina Baptist Assembly, the Fruitland Baptist Bible Institute and Camp CaRaway and Conference Center was limited to amounts recorded in prenumbered receipt books and did not include reconciliations to separate records of registrations, enrollments and attendance.

4. NOTES AND BONDS RECEIVABLE - CHURCHES:

Notes receivable resulting from loans to churches bear low interest at varying rates and are secured by deeds of trust. Loan provisions generally require repayment over a period ranging from three to ten years according to terms of the individual notes.

4. NOTES AND BONDS RECEIVABLE - CHURCHES (Continued)

Bonds receivable consist of investments in church bonds with interest compounded semi-annually until maturity. All are first mortgage bonds. They are as follows:

Bonds Issued By	Interest Rate	Date Issued	Maturity Date	Face Value at Year End
Matthews Baptist Church Matthews, North Carolina	13%	4-1-82	1993	$ 6,850

5. OTHER NOTES RECEIVABLE:

The note receivable from Caswell Water Systems, Inc., for $21,000 is a noninterest bearing demand note. In 1969, Caswell Water Systems, Inc., was set up as a nonprofit corporation to purchase and operate the water system supplying water for the North Carolina Baptist Assembly. The original loan of $25,000 from the Convention to Caswell Water Systems, Inc., was made for the purpose of providing funds for the purchase of the water system and related property and expenses connected therewith.

6. RESTRICTED RESERVE FUNDS:

Restricted reserve fund balances as reflected by Exhibit D amounted to $1,611,216 at December 31, 1984. These funds have been reserved for specific uses due to action of the General Board or Convention or, in some instances, due to a designation accompanying the funds upon receipt.

7. CONVENTION RESERVE:

The Convention (1976 Annual Session), recognizing the need for reserves to meet emergencies or decreased income, made provision for the establishment of a reserve fund as early as feasible. Therefore, during the year 1978, the Convention Emergency Fund reserve was set up as provided for by the 1976 Annual Session. The fund is being invested by the Baptist Foundation. The activity for 1984 was as follows:

Balance December 31, 1983		$ 358,735

	Fruitland Baptist Bible Institute Building	Pembroke Baptist Student Center Building	Baptist State Convention Computer System	Baptist Conference Center New Wing
Unprovided for Costs - December 31, 1983	$ 258,253	$ 7,516	$ 119,246	$ 266,257	$ 21,144

Each of the projects was authorized by the Executive Committee.

The unprovided for costs at Fruitland Baptist Bible Institute were for the new cafeteria building and the new dormitory. The cafeteria was approved in May 1978 by the Executive Committee and the dormitory was approved on April 7, 1981 by the Executive Committee. The Convention in session in November 1981 authorized borrowings of $333,576 for Fruitland additions to be repaid within three years by payments on pledges and, if necessary, by budget allocations in 1983, 1984, and 1985. In November, 1982, the Convention authorized the Executive Committee to borrow $489,000 for Fruitland Baptist Bible Institute with the understanding that the balance of outstanding pledges would be applied when received and that the balance will be repaid by budget allocations during the years 1983 - 1987.

The Pembroke University Student Center Building was authorized on August 19, 1980 for an approximate cost of $185,000. The building was to be financed from an $85,000 allocation of the Duke Center sale monies and from loans up to $100,000 for two years. Repayment would come from gifts and possible allocations from the North Carolina Missions Offering.

The purchase of an IBM Systems computer was authorized by the Executive Committee on October 14, 1980. Costs would be provided from funds on hand and to be located and from the North Carolina Missions Offering. The computer costs amounted to $225,839 and at December 31, 1984 the unprovided for costs were $119,246.

The 1981 Convention, in the November session, approved the sale of the Baptist Building at 301 Hillsborough Street, Raleigh, and the construction of a new one at a cost of not more than $750,000 above the proceeds from the sale of the Raleigh building and any gifts received. In early 1982, the Executive Committee approved a contract to sell the Baptist Building in Raleigh and to construct a new building on a Cary site. The new building in Cary was occupied in December 1982. The Convention in November, 1982 authorized the Executive Committee to borrow as needed up to $280,000. At December 31, 1984 no borrowing had taken place and the unprovided for costs amounted to $210,902.

On March 8, 1983, the Executive Committee approved a plan to add a new wing to the CarAway Conference Center. The cost was projected to be approximately $600,000 and to the extent possible, it would be financed "on a pay-as-you-go basis with the exception of borrowing on a two-year period which is within the authority granted to the General Board." The Convention would act as its own contractor. Unprovided for costs at December 31, 1984 were $535,719.

9. COOPERATIVE PROGRAM INCOME:
